C. Hurewitz, 1979-01-01 Morocco's Saharan Frontiers Frank E. Trout, 1969 Casebook on Insurgency and Revolutionary Warfare ,2012 Diodorus' Mythistory and the Pagan Mission Iris Sulimani, 2011-04-11 Examining Diodorus Siculus historiographical methods and his representation of mythical culture heroes this study demonstrates the significant contribution of the author's first pentad to his universal history and its importance as a supplement to our perception of Hellenistic civilization The Media and the Military P. Young, P. Jesser, 1997-10-13 The first comprehensive study of the contentious issue of the public s right to know in time of war or limited conflict The book traces the uneasy relations between the military and a generally unprepared and gullible media from the Crimea to the present day It shows how the advent of nuclear warfare has outlawed the nationalistic wars of survival of the past and freed the citizen from his age old obligations in time of war able to make up his or her own mind on the merits of the situation It is here that the battle lies in the struggle for public opinion as a necessary precursor to war This book details how the military discovered the secret of media and public manipulation in the Falklands tested it in Grenada and refined it in Panama before deploying it in all its glory during the Gulf This book is essential reading for every soldier and journalist or any student of military history as it points the way to the future The Socio-Intellectual Foundations of Malek Bennabi's Approach to Civilization Badrane Benlahcene, 2011-01-01 Since the publication of Samuel Huntington's The Clash of Civilizations concern about civilization has been reintroduced into the debate on the world order Malek Bennabi 1905 1973 prominent Algerian thinker and great Muslim intellectual intently focused on unraveling the causes of Muslim decline and the success of Western civilization and culture The key problem he theorized lay not in the Qur an or Islamic faith but in Muslims themselves The author investigates Bennabi s approach to civilization and the fundamental principles drawn using metatheorizing methodology In doing so he sheds further light on perhaps one of the more intriguing elements of Bennabi's theory that civilization is governed by internal external and social intellectual factors and that an equation can be generated for civilization itself This equation of Man Soil Time Civilization and of which religion according to Bennabi forms the all important catalyst is explained and its significance in terms of the reversal of Muslim decline evaluated What is clearly apparent is that for Bennabi Man is the central force in any civilizing process and without him the other two elements are of no value With regard to outcomes Bennabi s unerring conviction that unless Muslims changed their spiritual condition they could not affect any far reaching meaningful change in society is echoed in the Qur anic verse Verily never will Allah change the condition of a people until they change what is in themselves 13 11 Casebook on Insurgency and Revolutionary Warfare American University (Washington, D.C.). Special Operations Research Office, Paul A. Jureidini, 1962 States and Women's Rights Mounira Charrad, 2001 At a time when the situation of women in the Islamic world is of global interest here is a study that unlocks the mystery of why women s fates vary so greatly from one country to another Mounira M Charrad analyzes the distinctive nature of Islamic legal codes by placing them in the larger context of state power in various societies Charrad argues that many analysts miss what is going on in Islamic societies because they fail to recognize the logic of the kin based model of social and political life which she contrasts with the Western class centered model In a skillful synthesis she shows how the logic of Islamic legal codes and kin based political power affect the position of women These provide the key to Charrad s empirical puzzle why after colonial rule women in Tunisia gained broad legal rights even in the absence of a feminist protest movement while despite similarities in culture and religion women remained subordinated in post independence Morocco and Algeria Charrad's elegant theory crisp writing and solid scholarship make a unique contribution in developing a state building paradigm to discuss women s rights This book will interest readers in the fields of sociology politics law women's studies postcolonial studies Middle Eastern studies Middle Eastern history French history and Maghrib
