Survey Research In Africa Its Applications Limits:

The Evaluation And Application Of Survey Research In The Arab World Mark Tessler, Monte Palmer, Tawfic E Farah, Barbara Ibrahim, 2019-07-11 At a time when survey research is increasingly being conducted in the Arab world there is also growing concern about the degree to which research assumptions and methods developed in the West are appropriate for use in the study of Arab society This book assesses the application and limits of survey research performed in the Arab world reviews the surveys currently being used to study public attitudes and behavior patterns and discusses epistemological methodological and ethical issues associated with these studies Readers are alerted to normative and empirical considerations bearing on the quality of survey research and given practical suggestions for innovation in the design and execution of survey research and in the analysis of survey data The book raises intellectual issues of concern to all who seek to better understand Arab society and provides extensive information about attitudes and behavior in the Arab world

Survey Research in Africa William M. O'Barr., 1973 Survey Research in Africa David H. Spain, Mark A. Tessler, 1973 Compilation of essays on social research methodology with particular reference to the reliability of research methods as applied in Africa includes a bibliography pp 303 to 334 and references The SAGE Handbook of Survey Methodology Christof Wolf, Dominique Joye, Tom W Smith, Yang-chih Fu, 2016-07-11 Survey Methodology is becoming a more structured field of research deserving of more and more academic attention The SAGE Handbook of Survey Methodology explores both the increasingly scientific endeavour of surveys and their growing complexity as different data collection modes and information sources are combined The handbook takes a global approach with a team of international experts looking at local and national specificities as well as problems of cross national comparative survey research The chapters are organized into seven major sections each of which represents a stage in the survey life cycle Surveys and Societies Planning a Survey Measurement Sampling Data Collection Preparing Data for Use Assessing and Improving Data Quality The SAGE Handbook of Survey Methodology is a landmark and essential tool for any scholar within the social sciences Cultures, Politics, and Research Programs Uma Narula, W. Barnett Pearce, 2012-10-12 A compilation of authoritative reports from seasoned researchers working in eight different countries on five continents this volume examines the concept that conditions of local feasibility are constitutive of research practices not simply obstructions to the realization of an ideal The result documents the effects of political and cultural factors on research projects and offers culturally sensitive researchers a wealth of practical knowledge Afrocentric Visions Janice D. Hamlet, 1998-09-14 In this timely volume editor Janice D Hamlet has chosen essays which illuminate various aspects of African American culture refracted through the lens of Afrocentric thought The book examines Afrocentric ideology and methodology Afrocentric approaches to the dynamics of communication the Afrocentric influence on the black aesthetic with an examination of language literature oral tradition movies and television and the future of Afrocentric visions Research Directions of Black Psychologists Wade

Boykin, Anderson Franklin, Frank J. Yates, 1980-01-15 Focusing on issues of particular importance to black people and confronting the rich variety and the complexity of the black experience the many contributors demonstrate the broad diversity of research interests and strategies among black psychologists from the traditional to the innovative Topics covered include studies of motivation cognitive development life span development and cultural difference versus deficit theories Many of the studies directly refute previous conceptions of the psychological functioning of blacks and offer alternative models and formulations This book is the first to present soundly designed and executed research that is emphatically linked to the perspectives and the psychological concerns of black Americans In designing these studies the authors aimed to ameliorate the pressing educational and social problems of blacks through a better understanding of their life conditions

Survey Research in Underdeveloped Countries Chris J. Dixon, Bridget Leach, 1984      Research Design Catherine Hakim, 2012-11-12 Providing a practical overview for graduates and professional researchers this book highlights the central issues involved in the design of medium to large scale social and economic research Covering both theoretical and policy research Hakim sets out the key features strengths and limitations of eight main types of study with illustrations from real life research of the kinds of questions each can best be used to answer This book also offers a more general pragmatic discussion of strategies for choosing between one design and another and on how different types of study can be successfully combined in wider ranging research programmes In this expanded second edition the author has added new material on areas of contemporary significance across the social and economic sciences New features to this edition are a chapter on cross national comparative studies more examples throughout the text of comparative research both within Europe and across modern societies discussions of student theses advocacy research selection effects and collaboration      African Environmental Crisis Gufu Oba, 2020-03-13 This book explores how and why the idea of the African environmental crisis developed and persisted through colonial and post colonial periods and why it has been so influential in development discourse From the beginnings of imperial administration the idea of the desiccation of African environments grew in popularity but this crisis discourse was dominated by the imposition of imperial scientific knowledge neglecting indigenous knowledge and experience African Environmental Crisis provides a synthesis of more than one and a half century s research on peasant agriculture and pastoral rangeland development in terms of soil erosion control animal husbandry grazing schemes large scale agricultural schemes social and administrative science research and vector disease and pest controls Drawing on comparative socio ecological perspectives of African peoples across the East African colonies and post independent states this book refutes the hypothesis that African peoples were responsible for environmental degradation Instead Gufu Oba argues that flawed imperial assumptions and short term research projects generated an inaccurate view of the environment in Africa This book s discussion of the history of science for development provides researchers across environmental studies agronomy African history and development studies with a lens through which to understand the underlying assumptions behind development projects in Africa The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Religious Minorities in Non-Secular Middle Eastern and North African States Mark Tessler, 2019-07-19 This book describes and compares the circumstances and lived experiences of religious minorities in Tunisia Morocco and Israel in the 1970s countries where the identity and mission of the state are strongly and explicitly tied to the religion of the majority The politics and identity of Jews in Tunisia and Morocco and Arabs in Israel are therefore shaped to a substantial degree by their status as religious minorities in non secular states This collection based on in depth fieldwork carried out during an important moment in the history of each community and of the region considers the nature and implications of each group's response to its circumstances It focuses on both the community and individual levels of analysis and draws in part on original public opinion surveys It also compares the three communities in order to offer generalizable insights about ways the identity political culture and institutional character of a minority group are shaped by the broader political environment in which it resides The project will appeal to scholars and students in the fields of Middle Eastern and North African studies Judaic studies Islamic Studies minority group politics and international relations and the Arab Israeli conflict

African American Psychology A. Kathleen Hoard Burlew, 1992-09-04 In an effort to help develop an approach to psychology that is consistent with the African American experience African American Psychology provides a comprehensive overview of African American behavior and personality This collection of classical papers drawn from The Journal of Black Psychology points out that a Eurocentric perspective or orientation is inherent not only in most psychological theory but also in the research methods developed to test psychological theories As such those who try to understand the African American experience must not limit themselves to traditional concepts or research methods The five sections of this volume cover both alternative and theoretical perspectives and new approaches to conducting research the diversity of structure in African American families and the forces affecting them African American children and two controversial but critical areas of study intelligence and cognition

Indigenous Theories of Contagious Disease Edward C. Green, 2000-01-01 Far from being the province of magic witchcraft and sorcery indigenous understanding of contagious disease in Africa and elsewhere in the developing world very often parallels western concepts of germ theory according to the author Labeling this indigenous contagion theory ICT Green synthesizes the voluminous ethnographic work on tropical diseases and remedies_ as well as 20 years of his own studies and interventions on sexually transmitted diseases AIDS and traditional healers in southern Africa_ to demonstrate how indigenous peoples generally conceive of contagious diseases as having naturalistic causes His groundbreaking work suggests how western medical practitioners can incorporate ICT to better help native peoples control contagious diseases
