Harris, Elissa Della Monica, Pamela Boyd, 1999 PART OF THE NEW JONES BARTLETT LEARNING INFORMATION SYSTEMS SECURITY ASSURANCE SERIES Security Strategies in Linux Platforms and Applications covers every major aspect of security on a Linux system Written by an industry expert this book is divided into three natural parts to illustrate key concepts in the field It opens with a discussion on the risks threats and vulnerabilities associated with Linux as an operating system using examples from Red Hat Enterprise Linux and Ubuntu Part 2 discusses how to take advantage of the layers of security available to Linux user and group options filesystems and security options for important services as well as the security modules associated with AppArmor and SELinux The book closes with a look at the use of both open source and proprietary tools when building a layered security strategy for Linux operating system environments Using real world examples and exercises this useful resource incorporates hands on activities to walk students through the fundamentals of security strategies related to the Linux system The Widow's Survival Guide Charity Pimentel-Hyams, 2020-09-01 Charity offers hope and practical steps through the darkness and difficulty of grief into the light and new possibilities of life The Reverend Tracy Fye Weatherhogg Within The Widow s Survival Guide Charity Pimentel Hyams a widow at thirty seven with children aged five three and one at the time of her husband s tragic and unexpected death takes women through the challenges and triumphs of young widowhood Throughout The Widow s Survival Guide women learn What to do directly after the death of their spouse How to support themselves and handle grieving children even when they re falling apart What grief can look like and the symptoms it creates How to create an action plan for day to day life Strategies to check in with their heart and stay connected to their lost loved one A brave and deeply human account of embracing unbearable loss powerful medicine for anyone suffering loss Robin Winn LMFT A heartbreaking journey of myriad emotions love and loss I found myself holding my breath through some of the painfully practical details and advice to widows The love expressed in this book in tangible honest and devastating Ana Maria Figueredo author of The Secret Art of Selling Insurance Just the right mix of practicality and existentialism anticipates and normalizes the complex emotions associated with early widowhood Megan Greenleaf MD Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill

The Hardest Thing I'll Ever Do Linda Guebert, 2013-05-22 In The Hardest Thing I'll Ever Do Linda Guebert shares her personal grief journey following the sudden death of her husband only nine months after they were married At times heartrending occasionally funny her compelling account moves us through sorrow anger and despair to renewed hope and commitment to life A powerful story of healing and personal growth The Hardest Thing I'll Ever Do is a valuable resource for those who have suffered the loss of someone they love and for those who strive to understand grief and offer support to others

The Widow's Handbook Charlotte Foehner, Carol Cozart, 1988 A comprehensive sensitive guide for dealing with the emotional and practical issues of the first two years of widowhood

A Widow's Hope Julie Escalante Ortiz, 2023-03-21 A Widow's Hope shares a unique story as a young widow with children who shares the raw relatable ways she dug her way out of the trenches and back to the land of the living There are many books about widowhood and grief While helpful when the time is right the shock and the aftermath of such a traumatic experience can make it difficult to find the time and motivation to read them while surviving the daily obstacles that zap your energy Right now the widow is too busy surviving funeral planning endless calls and texts from family tireless efforts to obtain the death certificate meetings with social security arrangements to be ironed out with banks mortgagors and debts Not to mention the practical things like ensuring the children have been fed arranging who will take them to school while you deal with the horrible details such as picking out his casket or helping your children with things only you can help with And then it hits her How will I even tell them that their father is dead They don't even know what dead means Just thinking of the unending list of things to be done can leave the widow feeling smothered and breathless Now is not the time for a novel now is the time for a survival book because right now that's what the widow is doing surviving

Talking Book Topics, 1988 Includes audio versions and annual title author index

Learning to Live Again in a New World Marlene Anderson, 2020-01-28 Loss brings with it many layers of grief that need to be addressed Healing from losses requires more than just talking about our pain it involves working through the twists and turns of conflicting emotions and confronting questions that often have no satisfactory answers It is reassembling the pieces of life that have been shattered by assumptions and expectations in order to create a new beginning Within the process we begin to heal and recover But as we close one chapter of life we need tools and information to begin a new chapter and make that transition from what was to what is now It requires challenging old assumptions and creating a new identity and road map for life going forward
