Survival Of The Sanest Order And Disorder In A Pretrial Psychiatric Clinic:

Survival of the Sanest Robert J. Menzies,1989      The Canadian Criminal Justice System Nick Larsen,1995 The administration of justice is an area of social policy that defies attempts to achieve a balance between order and the protection of the public and respect for individual rights The media contain daily accounts of the failure of the criminal justice system to repress crime It is within this social and legal context that this work is situated In addition to including a range of articles in the standard areas of policing courts and corrections recent articles deal with such controversial issues as aboriginal justice the recruitment of visible minorities by Canadian police forces and the role of women in the Canadian criminal justice system The collection concludes with a critical assessment of the retributive model that currently serves as the philosophical underpinnings of the Canadian criminal justice system      Survival of the Sanest Robert J. Menzies,1989

Community Mental Health in Canada, Revised and Expanded Edition Simon Davis,2013-11-15 When it was first published in 2006 Community Mental Health in Canada was hailed as a much needed critical overview of the provision of public mental health services in Canada Comprehensive in scope its coverage included the prevalence and impact of mental illness in Canada the complementary and conflicting interests of stakeholder groups such as mental health professionals clients families governments and drug companies strengths and limitations of models of care and practice approaches current and developing initiatives in treatment rehabilitation housing and criminal justice programs the clinical benefits and costs of particular interventions the legal and ethical basis of mental health practice This much awaited new edition of the book has been substantially revised and expanded to include a deeper discussion of stigma the recovery vision the pharmaceutical industry the assessment process and mental health law new topics such as the two continua model of mental health mental illness rural mental health and prevention and health promotion recent developments stemming from recommendations of the 2006 Senate report on mental health including the creation of the Mental Health Commission of Canada in 2007 and its influential national mental health strategy released in 2012 This book fills a gap in the literature in its analysis of both clinical mental health practice and the structural context within which it is situated Accessibly written and highly informative it is an indispensable resource for students practitioners and policymakers as well as service recipients their families and interested members of the public      Past, Present And Future Of Psychiatry - Ix World Congress Of Psychiatry (In 2

Volumes) Allan Beigel,Jorge Alberto Costa E Silva,Juan J Lopez-ibor Jr,1994-09-27 This volume presents the highlights of the IX World Congress of Psychiatry The congress was a major event with the participation of over 6000 scientists from all over the world with the scientific program covering all aspects of contemporary psychiatry The 200 papers selected for this volume provide an insight into recent advances in psychiatry They discuss a wide spectrum of subjects ranging from the diagnosis and treatment of mental illnesses to critical issues affecting the future of mental health care throughout the world Authors include leading psychiatric clinicians and researchers throughout the world as well as international mental health policy makers      The Persistent Prison? Maeve Winifred McMahon,1992-01-01 The Prison system is widely believed to be an immutable element of contemporary society Many criminologists and sociologists of deviance believe that decarceration movements have failed to yield progressive reform and that feasible alternatives to the prison system do not exist Maeve McMahon challenges these views Reconstructing the emergence of critical perspectives on decarceration she examines analytical and empirical problems in the research She also points out how indicators of community programs and other penalties serving as alternatives to prison have typically been overshadowed through critical focus on their effects in widening the net of control McMahon presents a detailed analysis of decreasing imprisonment and of the part played by alternatives in this during the postwar period in Ontario Drawing from extensive documentary research and from interviews with former correctional officials she charts the changing climates of opinions and socio economic factors which facilitated decarceration By situating her analysis in the context of theoretical and political arguments about the possibility of decarceration McMahon provides in her work a stimulus to the development of progressive penal politics not just in Canada but in all western countries      Essays in the History of Canadian Law Osgoode Society,1995-01-01 These essays look at key social economic and political issues of the times and show how they influenced the developing legal system

Impulsivity Christopher D. Webster,Margaret A. Jackson,1997-06-20 Impulsivity features prominently in contemporary descriptions of many psychiatric disorders and is also a key element in the clinical risk assessment of violence Thoroughly examining the nature assessment and treatment of impulsive conduct this up to date volume brings together contributions from prominent researchers and clinicians in both mental health and correctional settings Chapters illuminate our current understanding of impulsive behavior from conceptual legal and biological perspectives and address the challenges of describing and measuring it With special emphasis on how the likelihood of future violent or destructive behavior can best be gauged in specific cases the volume includes several newly developed risk assessment tools Impulsivity also provides an invaluable overview of the current state of the research and delineates a broad clinically pertinent agenda for future study Impulsivity is an invaluable resource for clinicians working in private practice correctional facilities health care settings and community based programs It also serves as a primary or supplementary text for advanced undergraduate and graduate level courses

Violence among the Mentally III Sheilagh Hodgins,2012-12-06 The NATO Advanced Study Institute on the Prevention of Crime and Violence Among the Mentally III was held in May 1999 in Tuscany Italy Participants from 15 countries attended Since care for persons with mental illness schizophrenia major depression bipolar disorder delusional disorder atypical psychoses has been deinstitutionalized some persons with these disorders are committing crimes and serious violence Consequently societies around the world are confronted with a new challenge to provide mental health care and social services to mentally ill persons in a humane way that will prevent illegal behaviours Research in this field has been dominated by investigations designed to improve clinicians accuracy in predicting violent behaviours with little attention focused on the organization and implementation of treatments. The premise of the Advanced Study Institute was that treatments must have empirically proven efficacy. Both professional ethics and public accountability require empirical evidence that each treatment will alleviate the problem that it targets. However, despite the fact that Western industrial societies provide treatment for mentally ill persons who have offended, there is a very limited base of knowledge on what constitutes effective treatment and how such treatments should be organized and delivered. The Advanced Study Institute was an attempt to stimulate and encourage research that will extend this knowledge base. The goals were to review what is known about mentally ill offenders and about effective treatments for them and to provide a framework for the orientation of future investigations designed to improve treatment efficacy.

Deportation and the Confluence of Violence within Forensic Mental Health and Immigration Systems Ameil J. Joseph, 2016-04-29

The practices and technologies of evaluation and decision making used by professionals, police, lawyers, and experts are questioned in this book for their participation in the perpetuation of historical forms of colonial violence through the enforcement of racial and eugenic policies and laws in Canada.

Mad Matters Brenda A. LeFrançois, Robert Menzies, Geoffrey Reaume, 2013

In 1981 Toronto activist Mel Starkman wrote, "An important new movement is sweeping through the western world. The mad, the oppressed, the ex-inmates of society's asylums are coming together and speaking for themselves." Mad Matters is the first Canadian book to bring together the writings of this vital movement, which has grown explosively in the years since. With contributions from scholars in numerous disciplines as well as activists and psychiatric survivors, it presents diverse critical voices that convey the lived experiences of the psychiatricized and challenges dominant understandings of mental illness. The connections between mad activism and other liberation struggles are stressed throughout, making the book a major contribution to the literature on human rights and anti-oppression.

Crime Prevention in the Urban Community Koichi Miyazawa, Setsuo Miyazawa, 2023-09-20

One of today's most pressing issues in criminology and crime prevention is the problem of crime in our cities and towns and its prevention. The topic of crime prevention in the Urban Community was discussed at the 47th International Course of the International Society for Criminology (ISC) held at Chuo University, Tokyo. It was the very first time such an ISC meeting was held in Asia, and this meant that finally a relatively large number of Japanese and other Asian participants were able to express their views on criminal policy and crime prevention in urban centres all over the world. Crime in urban communities is not an exclusively Western phenomenon, but it is also a considerable problem in other parts of the world. This makes an interchange of ideas between Western, Eastern, and Third World criminologists particularly important. General characteristics of the urban communities that suffer from a high crime rate are ethnic and racial tensions, a mix of old housing areas and new business districts, a prevailing sense of anonymity, slums, and juvenile delinquency. The existence of these general characteristics, besides mutual differences, makes cooperation in the crime prevention sphere definitely worth the effort.

Negotiating Responsibility Kimberley White, 2007-11-02

The meaning of criminal responsibility emerged in early to mid twentieth century Canadian capital murder cases through a complex synthesis of socio cultural medical and legal processes Kimberley White places the negotiable concept of responsibility at the centre of her interdisciplinary inquiry rather than the more fixed legal concepts of insanity or guilt In doing so she brings subtlety to more general arguments about the historical relationship between law and psychiatry the insanity defence and the role of psychiatric expertise in criminal law cases Through capital murder case files White examines how the idea of criminal responsibility was produced organized and legitimized in and through institutional structures such as remissions trial and post trial procedures identity politics of race character citizenship and gender and overlapping narratives of mind state and capacity In particular she points to the subtle but deeply influential ways in which common sense about crime punishment criminality and human nature shaped the boundaries of expert knowledge at every stage of the judicial process Negotiating Responsibility fills a void in Western socio legal history scholarship and provides an essential point of reference from which to evaluate current criminal law practices and law reform initiatives in Canada Policing the Risk Society Richard Victor Ericson, Kevin D. Haggerty, 1997 The focus of this book is the policing of modern society and the risks involved It explores various issues and factors effecting policing communities particularly communication and police organization

Challenging the Public/private Divide Susan B. Boyd, 1997-01-01 Feminist scholars in disciplines ranging from law to geography challenge our traditional notion of a public private divide in legal and public policy in Canada and internationally

Criminalizing Women, 2nd Edition Gillian Balfour, Elizabeth Comack, 2021-01-10T00:00:00Z Criminalizing women has become all too frequent in these neo liberal times Meanwhile poverty racism and misogyny continue to frame criminalized women s lives Criminalizing Women introduces readers to the key issues addressed by feminists engaged in criminology research over the past four decades Chapters explore how narratives that construct women as errant females prostitutes street gang associates and symbols of moral corruption mask the connections between women s restricted choices and the conditions of their lives The book shows how women have been surveilled disciplined managed corrected and punished and it considers the feminist strategies that have been used to address the impact of imprisonment and to draw attention to the systemic abuses against poor and racialized women In addition to updating material in the introductions and substantive chapters this second edition includes new contributions that consider the media representations of missing and murdered women in Vancouver s Downtown Eastside the gendered impact of video surveillance technologies CCTV the role of therapeutic interventions in the death of Ashley Smith the progressive potential of the Inside Out Prison Exchange Program and the use of music and video as decolonizing strategies Mental Health and Canadian Society James E. Moran, David Wright, 2006-08-14 In Mental Health and Canadian Society leading researchers challenge generalisations about the mentally ill and the history of mental health in Canada Considering the period from colonialism to the present they examine such issues as the rise of the insanity plea the Victorian asylum as a tourist attraction the treatment of First Nations people in western mental hospitals and post World War II psychiatric research into LSD      Racialization, Crime, and Criminal Justice in Canada Wendy Chan,Dorothy Chunn,2014-04-29 Race still matters in Canada and in the context of crime and criminal justice it matters a lot In this book the authors focus on the ways in which racial minority groups are criminalized as well as the ways in which the Canadian criminal justice system is racialized Employing an intersectional analysis Chan and Chunn explore how the connection between race and crime is further affected by class gender and other social relations The text covers not only conventional topics such as policing sentencing and the media but also neglected areas such as the criminalization of immigration poverty and mental illness      Women, Madness and the Law Wendy Chan,Dorothy E. Chunn,Robert Menzies,2012-10-12 This book explores for the first time in an edited collection the intersection of three key research areas women madness and the law and advances the debates on how law and the psy sciences play a critical role in regulating and controlling women s lives      Violence Risk Christopher D. Webster,Stephen J. Hucker,2007-02-06 The decision to release someone from psychiatric hospital forensic services or prison is often controversial and forensic psychologists play a key role in assessing the risk of recidivism In Violence Risk Chris Webster and Steve Hucker discuss the accuracy of prediction and highlight how violence assessments would improve if well established findings became entrenched in clinical and research practice Although the authors write the majority of the text specialist colleagues add essential material on subjects such as averting spousal assault sex offending and improving community support
