Survival And Mission For The City Church:

Survival and Mission for the City Church Gaylord B. Noyce, 1975-01-01 Church Planting at the End of the Twentieth Century Charles L. Chaney, 2013-01-01 More than 80 million Americans claim no church affiliation Only six other nations have a total population of more than 80 million Another 90 million who claim membership or affiliation don't attend church It is obvious that this many people will not be reached by existing congregations The answer More churches are needed Here is a book written by one of the nation's authoritative voices on church planting with both biblical and practical help for those who share his vision that the task of church planting rests not with denominational leaders but with the people and pastors of local churches

Energizing the Congregation Carl S. Dudley, 1993-01-01 Dudley and Johnson show how churches are revitalized by claiming the symbols that best articulate self identity They describe five images of churches relationships to their communities over time the survivor prophet pillar pilgrim and servant styles found in a wide variety of congregations and situations

Missions Howard Benjamin Grose, 1911 A Protestant Church in Communist China John Craig William Keating, 2012-02-16 Freedom of religious belief is guaranteed under the constitution of the People's Republic of China but the degree to which this freedom is able to be exercised remains a highly controversial issue Much scholarly attention has been given to persecuted underground groups such as Falun but one area that remains largely unexplored is the relationship between officially registered churches and the communist government This study investigates the history of one such official church Moore Memorial Church in Shanghai This church was founded by American Methodist missionaries By the time of the 1949 revolution it was the largest Protestant church in East Asia running seven day a week programs As a case study of one individual church operating from an historical rather than theological perspective this study examines the experience of people at this church against the backdrop of the turbulent politics of the Mao and Deng eras It asks and seeks to answer questions such as were the people at the church pleased to see the foreign missionaries leave Were people forced to sign the so called Christian manifesto Once the church doors were closed in 1966 did worshipers go underground Why was this particular church especially chosen to be the first re opened in Shanghai in 1979 What explanations are there for its phenomenal growth since then A considerable proportion of the data for this study is drawn from Chinese language sources including interviews personal correspondence statistics internal church documents and archives many of which have never previously been published or accessed by foreign researchers The main focus of this study is on the period from 1949 to 1989 a period in which the church experienced many ups and downs restrictions and limitations The Mao era in particular remains one of the least understood and seldom written about periods in the history of Christianity in China This study therefore makes a significant contribution to our evolving understanding of the delicate balancing act between compromise co operation and compliance that categorizes church state relations in modern China
