Conquest and Resistance to Colonialism in Africa

Gregory Maddox, 2018-05-03 The articles collected in this study first published in 1993 concentrates on African struggles to maintain their autonomy Although the history of interaction between African peoples and those from outside that continent is old for most of Africa colonial domination by European powers was both relatively recent and relatively short phenomenon In 1970 most Africans lived in independent societies by 1915 all but two African states had been conquered by Europeans Resistance to European domination by Africans was continuous although the level on which it occurred varied As the articles in this collection show the costs of conquest to Africans was great This title will be of interest to students of African history and Imperialism

The History of South Africa Roger B. Beck, 2013-11-12 South Africa's history stretches back to the beginnings of human existence This book provides an overview to South Africa's multiple millennia of history covering its long and often troubled past to its current status in the 21st century A newly revised and thoroughly updated version of a popular Greenwood publication The History of South Africa Second Edition provides readers with readable accessible information on the nation's prehistory early history and colonial past its unfortunate apartheid era as well as new coverage of South Africa's more recent events in the 20th and 21st centuries This work presents unique extended coverage of South Africa's prehistory beginning 3.5 million years ago and incorporating information gleaned from the most recent archaeological finds The text reflects the most current historiography on African settlement and life before the arrival of Europeans accurately describes the colonial era as a period of European hegemony and intense African resistance and discusses in great detail the apartheid years and the events leading up to majority rule in 1994 This second edition also includes an updated timeline new biographical sketches of notable people and supplies recent print and electronic resources in the bibliography

UNESCO General History of Africa, Vol. VI, Abridged Edition J. F. Ade Ajayi, 1998-07 Volume VI of this acclaimed series is now available in an abridged paperback edition The result of years of work by scholars from all over the world The UNESCO General History of Africa reflects how the different peoples of Africa view their civilizations and shows the historical relationships between the various parts of the continent Historical connections with other continents demonstrate Africa's contribution to the development of human civilization Each volume is lavishly illustrated and contains a comprehensive bibliography Volume VI covers the period from the beginning of the nineteenth century to the onset of the European scramble for colonial territory in the 1880s In spite of a growing European commercial religious and political presence during the first three quarters of the century outside influences were felt indirectly by most African societies and they made a number of culturally distinctive attempts to modernize expand and develop These are detailed in four thematic chapters twenty three chapters detailing developments in specific areas and two concluding chapters tracing the African diaspora and assessing the state of the Continent s political economic and cultural development on the eve of the European conquest The Religious Traditions of Africa Elizabeth Isichei,2004-11-23 This work is a first of its kind historical introduction to the major religions of Africa The vast majorities of Africa s peoples have been Muslim Christian or Traditionalist for a great deal of time making an inclusive study of these religions essential Isichei s work gives equal attention to all three religions and balances the elements of each to construct an easily accessible overview It is also the first book to provide a comprehensive look at the traditional religion in Africa filling the void in the literature on African religious history Written by a pioneering scholar in the African religious experience this volume blends in depth research and personnel accounts to explore the origins and effects of religion in Africa While primarily a work of history this book also incorporates the latest findings while engaging with current issues such as the interface of neo traditional religion and contemporary cultures This work includes four sections each dedicated to a separate religion detailed maps a glossary and a guide to further reading The Cross-Cultural Process in Christian History Andrew F. Walls ,2015-02-26 Walls shows how the demographic transformation of the church has brought us to a new Ephesian moment The church is challenged as never before to become one global body with its many cultural and ethnic members contributing their gifts Former patterns of domination need to be superseded His seer s eyes probe beneath the surface to bring the reader insights into Pentecostalism African traditional religion and the ironic ways in which the Western missionary movement often accomplished things both for good and for ill that its agents never dreamed of Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set Kevin Shillington,2013-07-04 Covering the entire continent from Morocco Libya and Egypt in the north to the Cape of Good Hope in the south and the surrounding islands from Cape Verde in the west to Madagascar Mauritius and Seychelles in the east the Encyclopedia of African History is a new A Z reference resource on the history of the entire African continent With entries ranging from the earliest evolution of human beings in Africa to the beginning of the twenty first century this comprehensive three volume Encyclopedia is the first reference of this scale and scope Also includes 99 maps The Land Belongs to Us Peter Delius,Peter Nicholas St. Martin Delius,1984-01-01 This book covers the decades spanning two fundamental refashionings of the relations of power in South Africa the upheavals of the difaqane in the 1820s and the aggressive British imperialism of the 1870s Inside African Anthropology Andrew Bank,Leslie J. Bank,2013-04-08 Inside African Anthropology offers an incisive biography of the life and work of South Africa s foremost social anthropologist Monica Hunter Wilson By exploring her main fieldwork and intellectual projects in southern Africa between the 1920s and 1960s the book offers insights into her personal and intellectual life Beginning with her origins in the remote Eastern Cape the authors follow Wilson to the University of Cambridge and back into the field among the Mpondo of South Africa where her studies resulted in her 1936 book Reaction to Conquest Her fieldwork focus then shifted to Tanzania where she teamed up with her husband Godfrey Wilson In the 1960s Wilson embarked on a new urban ethnography with a young South African anthropologist Archie Mafeje one of the many black scholars she trained This study also provides a meticulously researched exploration of the indispensable contributions of African research assistants to the production of this famous woman scholar s cultural knowledge about mid twentieth century Africa

Outlaws, Anxiety, and Disorder in Southern Africa Rachel King,2019-06-18 This book explores how objects landscapes and architecture were at the heart of how people imagined outlaws and disorder in colonial southern Africa Drawing on evidence from several disciplines it chronicles how cattle raiders were created pursued and controlled and how modern scholarship strives to reconstruct pasts of disruption and deviance Through a series of vignettes Rachel King uses excavated material rock art archival texts and object collections to explore different facets of how disorderly figures were shaped through impressions of places and material culture as much as actual transgression Addressing themes from mobility to wilderness historiography to violence resistance to development King details the world that raiders made over the last two centuries in southern Africa while also critiquing scholars tools for describing this world Offering inter disciplinary perspectives on the past in Africa s southernmost mountains this book grapples with conceptsrelevant to those interested in rule breakers and rule makers both in Africa and the wider world

A Military History of Africa Timothy J. Stapleton,2013-10-21 A detailed and thorough chronological overview of the history of warfare and military structures in Africa covering ancient times to the present day A Military History of Africa achieves a daunting task it synthesizes decades of specialized academic research and literature including the most recent material to offer an accessible survey of Africa s military history from the earliest times to the present day The first volume examines the precolonial period beginning with warfare in ancient North Africa including ancient Egypt and Carthage and continues through the cavalry based Muslim empires of the trans Sahara trade and the wars of the slave trade in West and East Africa The second volume focuses on the wars of European colonial conquest and African resistance during the late 19th century African participation in both world wars and the early violent struggles for independence from the 1950s and early 1960s The third volume explores warfare in postcolonial Africa including coverage of the impact of the global Cold War conflicts in Southern Africa from the 1960s to 1980s the development of postcolonial African armed forces and civil wars sparked by the discovery of precious resources such as diamonds in Sierra Leone Readers of this three volume work will understand how warfare and military structures have been consistently central to the development of African societies

Begging to Be Black Antjie Krog,2012-03-23 In 1992 a gang leader was shot dead by an ANC member in Kroonstad The murder weapon was then hidden on Antjie Krog s stoep In Begging to Be Black Krog begins by exploring her position in this controversial case From there the book ranges widely in scope both in time reaching back to the days of Basotho king Moshoeshe and in space as we follow Krog s experiences as a research fellow in Berlin far from the Africa that produced her Begging to Be Black is a book of journeys moral historical philosophical and geographical These form strands that Krog interweaves and sets in conversation with each other as she explores questions of change and becoming coherency and connectedness before drawing them closer together as the book approaches its powerful end Experimental and courageous Begging to Be Black is a welcome addition to Krog's own oeuvre and to South African literary non-fiction From History to Herstory Paul Leshota, Maxwell Musingafi, Itumeleng Mokhele, Makhulu Makumane, 2024-11-15 This book seeks to contribute to reflections done on the gender equality agenda by combing through oral and written resources to unearth and document heroic displays of leadership by women of Africa in general and of Southern Africa in particular that remain hidden under the rubble of Eurocentric colonial and African patriarchal archive and hegemony It seeks to open the archive of Southern Africa to unearth the names of women who have played an important role in shaping the course of Southern Africa history in every way While acknowledging the systematic marginalisation of women's voices and identities by scribal patriarchy the aim is to bring to life women's experiences and voices through critical engagement of sources of knowledge available to Africa in general and southern Africa in particular The chapters of this book will contribute to the debate on gender equality and women empowerment by women themselves within the framework of Sustainable Development Goals especially SDG 5

Searching for Sweetness Sarah Hanisch, 2022-03-11 Traversing from the rapidly urbanising county level city of Fuqing to the remote mountainous kingdom of Lesotho in Southern Africa Searching for Sweetness is one of the first and most extensive ethnographies linking rural to urban migration in China with Chinese migration to Africa Against the backdrop of China's national struggle for modernity and globalisation Sarah Hanisch examines Chinese migrant women's complex and ever shifting struggles for upward social mobility across different generations and localities in China and Lesotho Embedding the women's individual portraits into larger historical contexts Hanisch illustrates how these women interpret and narrate their migratory and everyday experiences through and beyond powerful state metanarratives on sweetness and bitterness In her exploration of migratory identities and projects that have been overlooked by previous studies Hanisch brings uniquely gendered multi-sited and intergenerational perspectives to existing scholarship on Chinese internal and international migration This book is an important effort to connect Chinese migration to Africa to developments taking place in China Hanisch also explores various drivers of present-day gendered migration and ongoing changes in the state's metanarratives surrounding development modernity and bitterness sweetness The deeply trusting relationships she was able to establish with her interlocutors make this book especially unique and valuable Yoon Jung Park Georgetown University This book tells us about Chinese migration to Africa beyond the state-centred narratives we usually read in journalistic and academic accounts As a multi-sited ethnography it provides insights into the struggle of ten women between hope and desperation between success and defeat Searching for Sweetness is what drives these women and makes them tell their stories beyond and in constant dialogue with the state-designed master narratives This is a must-read for anyone who wishes to confront the complexity of today's globalised world Susanne Weigelin Schwiedrzik University of Vienna African Kingdoms Saheed

Smashing the Liquor Machine Mark Lawrence Schrad,2021 When most people think of the prohibition era they think of speakeasies gin runners and backwoods fundamentalists railing about the ills of strong drink In other words in the popular imagination it is a peculiarly American event Yet as Mark Lawrence Schrad shows in Smashing the Liquor Machine the conventional scholarship on prohibition is extremely misleading for a simple reason American prohibition was just one piece of a global wave of prohibition laws that occurred around the same time Schrad s counterintuitive global history of prohibition looks at the anti alcohol movement around the globe through the experiences of pro temperance leaders like Thomas Masaryk founder of Czechoslovakia Vladimir Lenin Leo Tolstoy and anti colonial activists in India Schrad argues that temperance wasn t American exceptionalism at all but rather one of the most broad based and successful transnational social movements of the modern era In fact Schrad offers a fundamental re appraisal of this colorful era to reveal that temperance forces frequently aligned with progressivism social justice liberal self determination democratic socialism labor rights women s rights and indigenous rights By placing the temperance movement in a deep global context he forces us to fundamentally rethink all that we think we know about the movement Rather than a motley collection of puritanical American evangelicals the global temperance movement advocated communal self protection against the corrupt and predatory liquor machine that had become exceedingly rich off the misery and addictions of the poor around the world from the slums of South Asia to central Europe to the Indian reservations of the American west Unlike many traditional dry histories Smashing the Liquor Machine gives voice to minority and subaltern figures who resisted the global liquor industry and further highlights that the impulses that led to the temperance movement were far more progressive and variegated than American readers have been led to believe

A Military History of South Africa Timothy J. Stapleton,2010-04-09 This work offers the first one volume comprehensive military history of modern South Africa A Military History of South Africa From the Dutch Khoi Wars to the End of Apartheid represents the first comprehensive military history of South Africa from the beginning of European colonization in the Cape during the 1650s to the current postapartheid republic With particular emphasis on the last 200 years this balanced analysis stresses the historical importance of warfare and military structures in the shaping of modern South African society Important themes include military adaptation during the process of colonial conquest and African resistance the growth of South Africa as a regional military power from the early 20th century and South African involvement in conflicts of the decolonization era Organized chronologically each chapter reviews the major conflicts policies and military issues of a specific period in South African history Coverage includes the wars of colonial conquest 1830 69 the diamond wars 1869 81 the gold wars 1886 1910 World Wars I and II 1910 45 and the apartheid wars 1948 94

Great Land Rush and the Making of the Modern World, 1650-1900 John C. Weaver, 2003-04-24 He also underscores the tragic history of the indigenous peoples of these regions and shows how they came to lose possession of their land to newly formed governments made up of Europeans with European interests at heart Weaver shows that the enormous efforts involved in defining and registering large numbers of newly carved out parcels of property for reallocation during the Great Land Rush were instrumental in the emergence of much stronger concepts of property rights and argues that this period was marked by a complete disregard for previous notions of restraint on dreams of unlimited material possibility Today while the traditional forms of colonization that marked the Great Land Rush are no longer practiced by the European powers and their progeny in the new world the legacy of this period can be seen in the western powers insatiable thirst for economic growth including newer forms of economic colonization of underdeveloped countries and a continuing evolution of the concepts of property rights including the development and increasing growth in importance of intellectual property rights

Kingship, Society, and the Church in Anglo-Saxon Yorkshire Thomas Pickles, 2018-11-01 Inspired by studies of Carolingian Europe Kingship Society and the Church in Anglo Saxon Yorkshire argues that the social strategies of local kin groups drove conversion to Christianity and church building in Yorkshire from 400 1066 AD It challenges the emphasis that has been placed on the role and agency of Anglo Saxon kings in conversion and church building and moves forward the debate surrounding the minster hypothesis through an inter disciplinary case study Members of Deiran kin groups faced uncertainties that predisposed them to consider conversion as a social strategy in their rule between 600 and 867 Their decision to convert produced a new social fraction the ecclesiastical aristocracy with a distinctive but fragile identity The ecclesiastical aristocracy transformed kingship established a network of religious communities and engaged in the conversion of the laity The social and political instabilities produced by conversion along with the fragility of ecclesiastical identity resulted in the expropriation and re organization of many religious communities Nevertheless the Scandinavian and West Saxon kings and their nobles allied with wealthy and influential archbishops of York and there is evidence for the survival revival or foundation of religious communities as well as the establishment of local churches
