Surviving Addiction:

Survivors of Addiction Mary Addenbrooke, 2015-10-23 Addiction is something that affects many different people from all walks of life and can be difficult for a therapist to treat and the client to conquer In this book fifteen people who have formerly had serious addictions speak about their experiences Survivors of Addiction draws on first hand narratives to provide an overview of how and why people become addicted and explores what happens after the addiction is left behind Divided into four sections it covers being caught up in addiction how and why users stop being addicted the early days after surviving addiction long term outcomes By considering psychodynamic and Jungian perspectives as well as the clinical vignettes this book examines the process of recovery from addiction It will be key reading for therapists clinicians and healthcare workers who encounter addictions in their day to day professions and will also be of great interest to those who are or have been addicted and their families

You Are Not Alone: Personal Stories on Surviving the Impact of Addiction Frances Black, The Rise Foundation, 2012-07-16 Here the many sides to addiction are explored in stories which though often raw and at times heart breaking are bound together by their courage honesty hope and resolve Each one recognises the power of openness in emerging from the dark shadow cast by addiction In looking to a brighter day they assert the loudly and clearly that even when we feel at our most isolated we are never alone Help is at hand With contributions from well known public figures who have struggled with addiction including Paul McGrath Ben Dunne singer Mary Coughlan and Oisín McConville the accounts are interspersed with the thoughtful reflections of addiction therapist Frances Black on many themes of recovery You Are Not Alone is a book that will give hope and practical advice to the hundreds of thousands of Irish people out there whose lives have been affected by addiction

Surviving Alex Patricia A. Roos, 2024-05-17 In 2015 Patricia Roos's twenty five year old son Alex died of a heroin overdose Turning her grief into action Roos a professor of sociology at Rutgers University began to research the social factors and institutional failures that contributed to his death Surviving Alex tells her moving story and outlines the possibilities of a more compassionate and effective approach to addiction treatment Weaving together a personal narrative and a sociological perspective Surviving Alex movingly describes how even children from good families fall prey to addiction and recounts the hellish toll it takes on families Drawing from interviews with Alex's friends family members therapists teachers and police officers as well as files from his stays in hospitals rehab facilities and jails Roos paints a compelling portrait of a young man whose life veered between happiness anxiety success and despair And as she explores how a punitive system failed her son she calls for a community of action that would improve care for substance users and reduce addiction realigning public health policy to address the overdose crisis

From Surviving to Thriving Christine Dinsmore, 1991-01-01 This book will be of great value to any survivor of incest Equally important Christine Dinsmore teaches the rest of us therapists family members and friends how to be helpful to the survivor who takes on the task of ending the secrecy recovering memories and experiencing feelings Dinsmore points out that the recovery process is unique for each survivor You won t find any pat formulas here Instead the reader is left with a sensitivity and an awareness of the role one might play in the survivor s journey from the Foreword Jane R Hirschmann From Surviving to Thriving Incest Feminism and Recovery analyzes incest recovery from a feminist perspective It is based on research with incest survivors and years of therapy with survivors of childhood sexual abuse Unlike other writings on incest recovery this book links the incest with patriarchy and its belief in male sexual entitlement The discussions of incest and its traumatic effects society s response to the sexual abuse of children the recovery process and the role of the supporting cast are reinforced by the words of incest survivors themselves A detailed account of the incest healing treatment is also provided with specific treatments suggested for therapists working with incest survivors

Illness Or Deviance? Jennifer Murphy, 2015-06-12 Is drug addiction a disease that can be treated or is it a crime that should be punished In her probing study Illness or Deviance Jennifer Murphy investigates the various perspectives on addiction and how society has myriad ways of handling it incarcerating some drug users while putting others in treatment Illness or Deviance highlights the confusion and contradictions about labeling addiction Murphy s fieldwork in a drug court and an outpatient drug treatment facility yields fascinating insights such as how courts and treatment centers both enforce the disease label of addiction yet their management tactics overlap treatment with therapeutic punishment The addict label is a result not just of using drugs but also of being a part of the drug lifestyle by selling drugs In addition Murphy observes that drug courts and treatment facilities benefit economically from their cooperation creating a very powerful institutional arrangement Murphy contextualizes her findings within theories of medical sociology as well as criminology to identify the policy implications of a medicalized view of addiction Defeating Addiction and Alcoholism Susan

Henneberg, 2015-12-15 Many teens experiment with alcohol and drugs but experimenting can quickly turn into addiction for some With so many celebrities checking in and out of rehab it may seem like addiction is no big deal maybe even glamorous However it is a very real problem According to the National Survey on Drug Use and Health 3 percent of young adults are dependent on alcohol while 11 percent are dependent on illicit drugs This useful resource teaches readers what addiction is who is at risk how to identify the problem and how to find help when things get out of hand Survivor Criminology Alissa

R. Ackerman, Kimberly J. Cook, Reneè D. Lamphere, Stacy L. Mallicoat, Jason M. Williams, 2022-08-22 Survivor Criminology A Radical Act of Hope is a trauma informed approach to the study of crime and justice that stems from the lived experiences of crime survivors The chapters within this volume explore our authors who have each had close personal encounters with violence and death as well as institutionalized oppressions based on racism heterosexism sexism and poverty As scholars professors practitioners and students in the field these lived experiences with crime and criminal justice have shaped their research teaching and advocacy work Their voices represent experiences that are intersectional multigenerational global trauma informed and resiliency focused They are deliberately and decidedly anti racist and their experiences acknowledge the harm that has resulted from institutionalized and structural trauma Most importantly their stories are grounded in their lived experiences This volume offers survivor criminology as a radical act of hope Our hope comes from the belief that a trauma centered approach to crime justice and healing provides the opportunity for criminology to expand its theoretical and methodological roots We see this work as transformative for the discipline for students scholars members of the community and policy makers Go Beyond Surviving to Success Stepp Stevens Sydnor, 2021-01-12 Life is filled with challenges
