Writing With An Accent Edvige Giunta, 2016-04-30 Mary Cappello Louise DeSalvo Sandra M Gilbert Maria Mazziotti Gillan Carole Maso Agnes Rossi These are some of the best known Italian American writers today They are part of a literary tradition with mid twentieth century roots that began to develop in earnest in the late 1970s and early 1980s During those decades a number of Italian American women such as Helen Barolini began to publish books that depicted their perspectives on life through the critical lenses of gender class and ethnicity At the end of the twentieth century this literature finally blossomed into a fully fledged cultural movement that also took into account issues of sexuality age illness and familial and societal abuse Writing with an Accent takes a look at this vibrant literary movement by discussing those first writers of the 1970s and 1980s as well as later authors At the center of Edvige Giunta's Writing with an Accent is the literal notion of accent the marker of linguistic and cultural difference that separates and identifies recent immigrants to the United States In this study an accent symbolically embodies the differences and creative strategies through which contemporary Italian American women writers engage Italian American culture in works of fiction poetry and memoir Giunta also looks at the links between the literature and art music film and video produced by contemporary Italian American women The literature of the Italian American women in Writing with an Accent is shaped by the complicated connections these authors maintain with their cultural origins but also and perhaps more importantly by their feminist consciousness and politicized sense of ethnic identity Writing with an Accent celebrates and explores a group of authors who characteristically mix the joy and pain of Italian American life to paint a multifaceted picture of Italian American women and their complex place in U S culture

Hitler's Gray Wolves Lawrence Paterson, 2017-05-16 Next to nothing has been written about the U boat war in the Indian Ocean This is the story of a forgotten campaign The battle began in August 1943 when a German submarine arrived in the Malaysian harbor of Georgetown In total nearly forty U boats were assigned to penetrate the Indian Ocean serving alongside troops of the occupying Imperial Japanese forces The Japanese allowed U boats to use Malaysia as an operational station From that base they mixed with Japanese forces on a hitherto unseen scale a move which spread the U boat war throughout the vast Indian Ocean and into the Pacific Success in this theater of war held a real chance to swing the tide of battle in North Africa in favor of Rommel but the Germans essentially did too little too late The joint action also gave U boats the opportunity to penetrate the Pacific Ocean for the first time attacking shipping off the Australian coast and hunting off New Zealand Plans were even afoot for an assault on American supply lines The cooperation also brought into stark relief the fundamental differences of German and Japanese war aims After the crews of Italian supply submarines joined the Germans and Japanese relations between the fighting men of the three main Axis powers were often brutal and almost constantly turbulent Stories of U boats laden with gold and treasure stem almost exclusively from boats destined to and returning from Japanese controlled Malaysia laden with material exchanged between the two major partners of the Triple Axis Alliance The New Life/La Vita Nuova Dante
