If the workers never confronted the dangerous click members he also thinks there is no difference between a street gun member and some click members then the workers had nothing to lose their jobs. The workers have been quiet for many years even decades why? Because they understood the way the click members have been working with benefits only for some employees possible click members without equal opportunities everybody working for the Company. Unfortunately the people sat on elegant chairs in front their desks preferred to dismiss the workers complaints calling 911 than to help them with the Click Members Company they felt untouchables more dangerous incrementing harassment mistreats and possible punishments equal to violence against some workers only including himself that's why he decided to share with any one worker from any country the way how he tried to defended himself from an unfair situation from May 2001 until December 2004 with the click members abusing their authority power. This first book letters memorandums and complaints grievances with the Company Management Union Government Agencies and finally our Governor of California listen his partners and throughout them himself unfortunately some Government people agencies made their own rules. Disobeying our Governor orders for help workers and decided to support the click members violence against Company workers Oilfield Survival Guide, Volume One: For All Oilfield
