Testimony After Catastrophe Stevan Weine, 2006-08-14 Survivors of political violence give testimonies in families and communities trials and truth commissions religious institutions psychotherapies newspapers documentaries artworks and even in solitude Through spoken written and visual images survivors testimonies tell stories that may change history politics and life itself In this book Stevan Weine a psychiatrist and scholar in the field of mental health and human rights focuses on the testimony of survivors for the hope it might hold hope expressed by survivors again and again that no matter what horrors or humiliations they have endured some good might come of their stories It is through the thinking of Mikhail Bakhtin and his approach to narrative that Weine seeks to read the testimony of survivors of political violence from four different twentieth century historical nightmares and to read them as the stories they are meant to be fully conveying their legitimacy resourcefulness power and finally hope A deeply involving compassionate occasionally confrontational blend of practical hands on experience and dialogic theory emerging from the author's decade long work in Europe and Chicago with survivors of the Balkan wars this book is committed to the proposition that efforts to use testimony to address the consequences of political violence can be strengthened though by no means guaranteed if they are based on a fuller acknowledgment of the personal and ethical elements embodied in the narrative essence of testimony These elements are what Testimony after Catastrophe seeks to reveal Survivors Simon and Schuster Staff,1999-03-01 Testimony/Bearing Witness Sybille Krämer,Sigrid Weigel,2017-08-23 What is the epistemological value of testimony What role does language images and memory play in its construction What is the relationship between the person who attests and those who listen Is bearing witness a concept that is exclusively based in interpersonal relations Or are there other modes of communicating or mediating to constitute a constellation of testimony Testimony Bearing Witness establishes a dialogue between the different approaches to testimony in epistemology historiography law art media studies and psychiatry With examples including the Holocaust the Khmer Rouge Killing Fields and the Armenian genocide the volume discusses the chances and limits of communicating epistemological and ethical philosophical and cultural historical past and present perspectives on the phenomenon and concept of bearing witness

Jewish Families in Europe, 1939-Present Joanna Beata Michlic,2017-01-03 This book offers an extensive introduction and 13 diverse essays on how World War II the Holocaust and their aftermath affected Jewish families and Jewish communities with an especially close look at the roles played by women youth and children Focusing on Eastern and Central Europe themes explored include how Jewish parents handled the Nazi threat rescue and resistance within the Jewish family unit the transformation of gender roles under duress youth's wartime and early postwar experiences postwar reconstruction of the Jewish family rehabilitation of Jewish children and youth and the role of Zionism in shaping the present and future of young survivors Relying on newly available archival material and novel research in the areas of families youth rescue resistance gender and memory this volume will be an indispensable guide to current work on the familial and social history of the Holocaust Psychoanalysis, Historiography, and the Nazi Camps Dan Stone,2024-07-10 In the postwar years Dutch survivors Eddy de Wind Louis Micheels and Elie A Cohen who went on to become practicing psychoanalysts penned accounts of their survival of the Nazi camps Their sober assessments contrast sharply with those by Bruno Bettelheim and Viktor Frankl which emphasized decisiveness positive thinking and resistance missing the fact that many Holocaust victims with those characteristics or other qualities did not survive De Wind's Micheels and Cohen's accounts are more sober self critical and shaped by analytical practice By analyzing them anew and comparing them with accounts by female doctors who survived Block 10 in Auschwitz this book argues that their theories of survival accord with contemporary sensibilities in psychoanalysis and Holocaust historiography Psychoanalytic concepts have changed over time in response to greater understanding of the Holocaust and recent Holocaust historiography makes us more receptive to insights that were unfashionable in the first postwar decades

The Care of the Witness Michal Givoni, 2016-10-31 The Care of the Witness explores the historical shifts in the crises of witnessing to genocide war and disaster and their contribution to nongovernmental politics

Engaged Humanities Aagje Swinnen, Amanda Kluvel, Renée Vall, 2025-10-01 What is the role of the humanities at the start of 21st century In the last few decades the various disciplines of the humanities history linguistics literary studies art history media studies have encountered a broad range of challenges related to the future of print culture to shifts in funding strategies and to the changing contours of culture and society Several publications have addressed these challenges as well as potential responses on a theoretical level This coedited volume opts for a different strategy and presents accessible case studies that demonstrate what humanities scholars contribute to concrete and pressing social debates about topics including adoption dementia hacking and conservation These engaged forms of humanities research reveal the continued importance of thinking and rethinking the nature of art culture and public life

The Witness as Object Steffi de Jong, 2018-01-31 In recent years historical witnessing has emerged as a category of museum object Audiovisual recordings of interviews with individuals remembering events of historical importance are now integral to the collections and research activities of museums They have also become important components in narrative and exhibition design strategies With a focus on Holocaust museums this study scrutinizes for the first time the new global phenomenon of the musealization of the witness to history exploring the processes prerequisites and consequences of the transformation of video testimonies into exhibits

Documentary Testimonies Bhaskar Sarkar, Janet Walker, 2009-12-04 This volume examines documentary films that compel us to bear witness move us to anger or tears and possibly mobilize us to action The essays gathered here analyze questions regarding the usefulness and legitimacy of documentary testimony What is the value of the historical archive the televised public hearings or activist online videos constitute Is it made part of the official record or dismissed as renegade or ephemeral To what extent can documentary bring about social change How do the documentary testimonies compensate for or account for the frailty of memory

Heritage, Affect and Emotion Divya P. Tolia-Kelly, Emma Waterton, Steve Watson, 2016-07-01 Heritage and its economies are driven by affective politics and consolidated through emotions such as pride awe joy and pain In the humanities and social sciences there is a widespread acknowledgement of the limits not only of language and subjectivity but also of viscosity and representation Social scientists particularly within cultural geography and cultural studies have recently attempted to define and understand that which is more than representational through the development of theories of affect assemblage post humanism and actor network theory to name a few While there have been some recent attempts to draw these lines of thinking more forcefully into the field of heritage studies this book focuses for the first time on relating heritage with the politics of affect The volume argues that our engagements with heritage are almost entirely figured through the politics of affective registers such as pain loss joy nostalgia pleasure belonging or anger It brings together a number of contributions that collectively and with critical acuity question how researchers working in the field of heritage might begin to discover and describe affective experiences especially those that are shaped and expressed in moments and spaces that can be at times intensely personal intimately shared and ultimately social It explores current theoretical advances that enable heritage to be affected released from conventional understandings of both heritage as objects and objects as representations by opening it up to a range of new meanings emergent and formed in moments of encounter Whilst representational understandings of heritage are by no means made redundant through this agenda they are destabilized and can thus be judged anew in light of these developments Each chapter offers a novel and provocative contribution provided by an interdisciplinary team of researchers who are thinking theoretically about affect through landscapes practices of commemoration visitor experience site interpretation and other heritage work Holocaust Testimonies Lawrence L. Langer, 1993-01-27 Annotation This important and original book is the first sustained analysis of the unique ways in which oral testimony of survivors contributes to our understanding of the Holocaust Langer argues that it is necessary to deromanticize the survival experience and that to burden it with accolades about the indomitable human spirit is to slight its painful complexity and ambivalence Between Hope and Despair Roger I. Simon, Sharon Rosenberg, Claudia Eppert, 2000-03-15 At the end of a century of unfathomable suffering societies are facing anew the question of how events that shock resist assimilation and evoke contradictory and complex responses should be remembered Between Hope and Despair specifically examines the pedagogical problem of how remembrance is to proceed when what is to be remembered is underscored by a logic difficult to comprehend and subversive of the humane character of existence This pedagogical attention to practices of remembrance reflects the growing cognizance that hope for a just and compassionate future lies in the sustained if troubled working through of these issues

The Palgrave Handbook of Testimony and Culture Sara Jones, Roger Woods, 2023-04-19 This Palgrave Handbook examines the ways in which researchers and practitioners theorise analyse produce and make use of testimony It explores the full range of testimony in the public sphere including perpetrator testimony testimony presented through social media and virtual reality A growing body of research shows how complex and multi layered testimony can be how much this complexity adds to our understanding of our past and how creators and users of testimony have their own complex purposes These advances indicate that many of our existing assumptions about testimony and models for working with it need to be revisited The purpose of this Palgrave Handbook is to do just that by bringing together a wide range of disciplinary theoretical methodological and practice based perspectives

Jesus and the Eyewitnesses, 2nd ed. Richard Bauckham, 2017-04-28 A groundbreaking work in New Testament studies expanded and updated Winner of the 2007 Christianity Today Book Award in Biblical Studies this momentous volume argues that the four Gospels are closely based on the eyewitness testimony of those who personally knew Jesus Noted New Testament scholar Richard Bauckham challenges the prevailing assumption that the Jesus accounts circulated as anonymous community traditions asserting instead that they were transmitted in the names of the original eyewitnesses In this expanded second edition Bauckham is adding a new preface three substantial new chapters that respond to critics and clarify key points of his argument and a comprehensive new bibliography

From the Vilna Ghetto to Nuremberg Abraham Sutzkever, 2021-10-06 In 1944 the Yiddish poet Abraham Sutzkever was airlifted to Moscow from the forest where he had spent the winter among partisan fighters There he was encouraged by Ilya Ehrenburg the most famous Soviet Jewish writer of his day to write a memoir of his two years in the Vilna Ghetto Now seventy five years after it appeared in Yiddish in 1946 Justin Cammy provides a full English translation of one of the earliest published memoirs of the destruction of the city known throughout the Jewish world as the Jerusalem of Lithuania Based on his own experiences his conversations with survivors and his consultation with materials hidden in the ghetto and recovered after the liberation of his hometown Sutzkever's memoir rests at the intersection of postwar Holocaust literature and history He grappled with the responsibility to produce a document that would indict the perpetrators and provide an account of both the horrors and the resilience of Jewish life under Nazi rule Cammy bases his translation on the two extant versions of the full text of the memoir and includes Sutzkever's diary notes and full testimony at the Nuremberg Trials in 1946 Fascinating reminiscences of leading Soviet Yiddish cultural figures Sutzkever encountered during his time in Moscow Ehrenburg Yiddish modernist poet Peretz Markish and director of the State Yiddish Theatre Shloyme Mikhoels reveal the constraints of the political environment in which the memoir was composed Both shocking and moving in its intensity From the Vilna Ghetto to Nuremberg returns readers to a moment when the scale of the Holocaust was first coming into focus through the eyes of one survivor who attempted to make sense of daily life resistance and death in the ghetto A Yiddish Book Center Translation
