Survivors Of Steel City:

Imagining Cities Sallie Westwood, John Williams, 2003-09-02 The city has always been a locus of research and discussion within the debates of modernity and more recently postmodernity This volume brings together some of the most recent and exciting work on the city from within sociology and cultural studies The book is organised around the following major themes the theoretical imagination ethnic diversity and the politics of difference memory and nostalgia and the complex and complimentary narrative of the city ways While these representations bring the past and the present together the final section of the book elaborates the present and future in relation to the idea of the virtual city Hence the world of cyberspace not only recasts our imaginaries of space and communication but has a profound effect on the sociological imagination itself

A Tale Of Two Cities Karen Evans, Penny Fraser, Ian Taylor, 2002-11-01 A Tale of Two Cities is a study of two major cities Manchester and Sheffield Drawing on the work of major theorists the authors explore the everyday life making contributions to our understanding of the defining activities of life

Selfless: A Psychologist's Journey through Identity and Social Class Geoffrey Beattie, 2020-12-29 Selfless is a memoir reflecting on identity social class mobility education and on psychology itself how psychology as a discipline is conducted how it prioritises objects of study how it uncovers psychological truths about the world Geoffrey Beattie takes the reader on a journey through his early life in working class Belfast his Ph D at Trinity College Cambridge and subsequent academic and professional career to explore fundamental issues within psychology about social class and social identity Beattie discusses the difficulties inherent in this process of education and change and how social background affects how you view academic work and the subject matter of one's discipline This book movingly details a life and how it is changed by the processes of education the psychological pressures when abandoning those close to you the dissonance within and how it feels and operates The book takes a critical look at psychology from the other side and examines the process of becoming selfless meaning having little sense of self rather than being overly concerned with the wishes and needs of others Showing how our early experiences and their influence continues throughout life Beattie's emotionally engaging entertaining and witty text offers general readers students and academics fresh insights into psychology adaptation and personal change

A Tale of Two Cities Ian Taylor, Karen Evans, Penny Fraser, 1996 A Tale of Two Cities is a study of two major cities Manchester and Sheffield Drawing on the work of major theorists the authors explore the everyday life making contributions to our understanding of the defining activities of life

A Social History of Sheffield Boxing, Volume II Matthew Bell, Gary Armstrong, 2021-01-04 A Social History of Sheffield Boxing combines urban ethnography and anthropology sociological theory and place and life histories to explore the global phenomenon of boxing Raising many issues pertinent to the social sciences such as contestations around state regulation of violence commerce and broadcasting pedagogy and elite sport and how sport is delivered and narrated to the masses the book studies the history of boxing in Sheffield and the sport's impact on the cultural political and economic development of the city since the 18th century Interweaving urban anthropology with sports studies and historical research the text expertly examines a variety of published sources ranging from academic papers to biographies and from newspaper reports to case studies and contemporary interviews In Volume II Bell and Armstrong examine the revival of Sheffield boxing after the decline of the 1950s and 1960s outlined in Volume I Instigated by two men from outside the city Brendan Ingle and Herol Graham this renaissance became known as the Ingle style which between 1995 and 2014 produced four world champions Naseem Hamed Johnny Nelson Junior Witter and Kell Brook These successes inspired others and raised Sheffield's profile as a boxing city which in the 1990s and 2000s produced two more world champions in Paul Silky Jones and Clinton Woods In this second volume Bell and Armstrong track the resurgence of boxing to the present day and consider how the game and its players have changed over time

Our Racist Heart? Geoffrey Beattie, 2013-05-07 Few people today would admit to being a racist or to making assumptions about individuals based on their skin colour or on their gender or social class In this book leading psychologist Geoffrey Beattie asks if prejudice more subtle than before is still a major part of our everyday lives Beattie suggests that implicit biases based around race are not just found in small sections of our society but that they also exist in the psyches of even the most liberal educated and fair minded of us More importantly the book outlines how these hidden attitudes and prejudices can be revealed and measured and how they in turn predict behaviours in a number of important social situations Our Racist Heart takes a fresh look at our racial attitudes using new technology and experimental approaches to show how unconscious biases influence our everyday actions and thinking These groundbreaking results are brought to life using the author's own experiences of class and religious prejudice in Northern Ireland and are also discussed in relation to the history of race racism and social psychological theory

Men and masculinities in modern Britain Matt Houlbrook, Katie Jones, Ben Mechen, 2024-01-16 Men and masculinities provides an engaging accessible and provocative introduction to histories of masculinity for all readers interested in contemporary gender politics The book offers a critical overview of ongoing historiographical debates and the historical making of men's lives and identities and ideas of masculinity between the 1890s and the present day In setting out a new agenda for the field it makes an ambitious argument for the importance of writing histories which are present centred and politically engaged This means that the book engages head on with ferocious debates about men's social position and the status of masculinity in contemporary public life In establishing a critical genealogy for the proliferation of this crisis talk it sets out new ways of understanding how men's lives and ideas of masculinity have changed over time while patriarchy and male power have persisted

Bouncers Dick Hobbs, 2003 This text is an attempt to understand Britain's night time economy the violence that pervades it and the bouncers whose job it is to prevent it Britain's rapidly expanding night life is one of the countries most vibrant economic spheres but it has created huge problems of violence and disorder

Managing People Globally Chris Rowley,Wes Harry,2011-03-24 This wide ranging review of human resources management HRM in Asia draws attention to issues which are substantially different from those which a Western trained manager or student would expect Intra regional issues are examined and in an unusual approach topics are organised thematically rather than by the more typical country by country approach Considers the influences on HRM including the political economic and social contexts and expectations Discusses organisational behaviour impacts on HRM Review of HRM in Asia with topics and practices organised thematically and integrated rather than by country New Society,1987 Environment & Planning,1987

Sheffield's Most Notorious Gangs Ben W. Johnson,2018-05-30 British veterans of the Great War turn to organized crime in this history of rival street gangs and their reign of terror in the 1920 s When the returning heroes of the First World War were forgotten by their country they had no choice but to fight again this time for their own survival Reduced to motley neighborhood regiments they traded their rifles for razors and butcher s knives The enemy was society at large and the police force paid to protect it Money would be made blood would be shed and lives would be lost Sheffield was a city at war with itself as opposing gangs battled daily for control of the streets Out of these deadly gangs two rival factions took control of the city For a dark and dangerous time The Mooney Gang and the Park Brigade even acted as governing bodies in many of the poorer neighborhoods In Sheffield s Most Notorious Gangs true crime historian Ben W Johnson explores their rise to power and the rising tide of violence that authorities seemed powerless to stop

Journal of the Senate of the United States of America United States. Congress. Senate, The City's End Max Page,2008-01-01 From nineteenth century paintings of fires raging through New York City to scenes of Manhattan engulfed by a gigantic wave in the 1998 movie Deep Impact images of the city s end have been prolific and diverse Why have Americans repeatedly imagined New York s destruction What do the fantasies of annihilation played out in virtually every form of literature and art mean This book is the first to investigate two centuries of imagined cataclysms visited upon New York and to provide a critical historical perspective to our understanding of the events of September 11 2001 Max Page examines the destruction fantasies created by American writers and imagemakers at various stages of New York s development Seen in every medium from newspapers and films to novels paintings and computer software such images though disturbing have been continuously popular Page demonstrates with vivid examples and illustrations how each era s destruction genre has reflected the city s economic political racial or physical tensions and he also shows how the images have become forces in their own right shaping Americans perceptions of New York and of cities in general The Planner ,1990
