Kripal, 2011-09-07 Jeffrey Kripal here recounts the spectacular history of Esalen, the institute that has long been a world leader in alternative and experiential education and stands today at the center of the human potential movement. Forged in the literary and mythical leanings of the Beat Generation, inspired in the lecture halls of Stanford by radical scholars of comparative religion, the institute was the remarkable brainchild of Michael Murphy and Richard Price. Set against the heady backdrop of California during the revolutionary 1960s, Esalen recounts in fascinating detail how these two maverick thinkers sought to fuse the spiritual revelations of the East with the scientific revolutions of the West or to combine the very best elements of Zen Buddhism, Western psychology, and Indian yoga into a decidedly utopian vision that rejected the dogmas of conventional religion. In their religion of no religion, the natural world was just as crucial as the spiritual one; science and faith not only commingled but became staunch allies, and the enlightenment of the body could lead to the full realization of our development as human beings. An impressive new book, Kripal has written the definitive intellectual history of the ideas behind the institute. San Francisco Chronicle Kripal examines Esalen's extraordinary history and evocatively describes the breech birth of Murphy and Price's brainchild. His real achievement though is effortlessly synthesizing a dizzying array of dissonant phenomena: Cold War espionage, ecstatic religiosity, incongruous pairings, Darwinism, Tantric sex, and otherwise schizy ephemera, psychedelic drugs, spaceflight into a cogent, satisfyingly complete narrative. Atlantic Monthly Kripal has produced the first all-encompassing history of Esalen, its intellectual, social, personal, literary, and spiritual passages. Kripal brings us up to date and takes us deep beneath historical surfaces in this definitive elegantly written book. Playboy
