Played in Birmingham Steve Beauchampe, Simon Inglis, 2006 Played in Birmingham is the fifth book in a groundbreaking English Heritage series celebrating Britain's rich and diverse sporting heritage Lavishly illustrated and adopting a completely new approach to the study of sporting and urban history Played in Birmingham leads readers along a trail of fascinating locations and little known buildings landscapes and waterscapes in all corners of the city and its surrounds Birmingham is a city founded upon hard work enterprise and civic pride Its stock of historic public baths includes three of the oldest operational swimming pools in Britain In 1888 a Birmingham draper was responsible for setting up the Football League the first in the world Birmingham also has a proud record at grassroots level Following on from the pioneering example set at Bournville by the Quaker brothers George and Richard Cadbury during the early 20th century Birmingham industrialists invested in a network of sports facilities for their employees that gave rise to the largest works football association ever known Birmingham was the cradle of lawn tennis in the 1860s and the setting for the world's first snooker championships in 1927 Its numerous workshops have also been responsible for supplying medals cups and trophies for generations of international competitions plus no fewer than 200 million Acme Thunderer whistles the first choice of referees around the world since 1884 For those who do not know the city or perhaps dismiss it as a mere concrete jungle Played in Birmingham also reveals a wealth of green space parks golf courses cricket grounds and bowling greens several barely more than a mile or so from the Bull Ring Perhaps even more surprising Birmingham's topography is interlaced with rivers brooks lanes and pools with Edgbaston Reservoir forming one of the great waterscapes of urban Britain a magnet for anglers and sailors alike This is a book full of delightful surprises and quirky details many of which are little known even within the Birmingham area There has never been a history of the city quite like it

A Kingdom United Catriona Pennell, 2012-03-01 In this the first fully documented study of British and Irish popular reactions to the outbreak of the First World War Catriona Pennell explores UK public opinion of the time successfully challenging post war constructions of war enthusiasm in the British case and disengagement in the Irish Drawing from a vast array of contemporary diaries letters journals and newspaper accounts from across the UK A Kingdom United explores what people felt and how they acted in response to an unanticipated and unprecedented crisis It is a history of both ordinary people and elite figures in extraordinary times Pennell demonstrates that describing the reactions of over 40 million British and Irish people to the outbreak of war as either enthusiastic in the British case or disengaged in the Irish is over simplified and inadequate Emotional reactions to the war were ambiguous and complex and changed over time By the end of 1914 the populations of England Scotland Wales and Ireland had largely embraced the war but the war had also embraced them and showed no signs of relinquishing its grip The five months from August to December 1914 set the shape of much that was to follow A Kingdom United describes and explains the twenty week formative process in order to deepen our understanding of British and Irish entry into war The Photographic Journal ,1915 Vols for 1853 include the transactions of the Royal Photographic Society of Great Britain The Amateur Photographer & Photography ,1922 Archives ,1979 Journal of the Photographic Society of London ,1909 Vols for 1853 include the transactions of the Royal Photographic Society of Great Britain Old and New Birmingham Robert Kirkup Dent,1880 Birmingham Sports & Recreation From Old Photographs Eric Armstrong,Rosemary Stafford,2012-02-15 A unique and charming look at the history of Birmingham Sports and Recreation through a fascinating collection of beautiful photographs The Photogram ,1896 The Amateur Photographer and Photographic News Charles W.
