Narrative Innovation and Cultural Rewriting in the Cold War Era and After M. Cornis-Pope,2016-04-30 Narrative Innovation and Cultural Rewriting undertakes a systematic study of postmodernism's responses to the polarized ideologies of the postwar period that have held cultures hostage to a confrontation between rival ideologies abroad and a clash between champions of uniformity and disruptive others at home Considering a broad range of narrative projects and approaches from polysystemic fiction to surfiction postmodern feminism and multicultural postcolonial fiction this book highlights their solutions to ontological division real vs imaginary worldly and other worldly sociocultural oppositions of race class gender and narratological dualities imitation vs invention realism vs formalism A thorough rereading of the best experimental work published in the US since the mid 1960s reveals the fact that innovative fiction has been from the beginning concerned with redefining the relationship between history and fiction narrative and cultural articulation Stepping back from traditional polarizations innovative novelists have tried to envision an alternative history of irreducible particularities excluded middles and creative intercrossings

Swanny's Ways Steve Katz,1995 The life of a street gang member turned student He is William Swanson of New York who between amours with various women is taking night courses to become a lawyer By the author of Florry of Washington Heights Annie Salem Mac Wellman,1996 A novel of the absurd featuring Jack Scan a philosophical drifter from Ohio with lots of observations on life men women friendship love you name it He has a girlfriend and he also has an obsession with the Ku Klux Klan which he hates and eventually goes to Mars to fight them The Library of Thomas Rivka Martin Nakell,1997 The Library of Thomas Rivka suggesting other fictions by writers from J K Huysmans to Jorge Luis Borges is a rich absurdly ironic comic philosophical and even practical work dealing with the books within the private library of the title character exploring and revealing what knowledge and the containers of knowledge might mean in the human experience Dra- Stacey Levine,1997 Dra Levine's first long fictional work takes the reader into the comic yet dystopic world of the title character who inhabits a drab and dreary world of utter dread The work begins with her visit to an employment agency which punishes the terrified woman for being unable to chose between potential jobs culminating in a terrible vision of rage and torture which the all controlling Administrator proclaims is merely a self tyranny Levine's new work explores through a Kafka like world how the meek and sane are made mad in a society that demands choices that only lead to less and less individual choice and control Levine's characters may have difficulty functioning in the so called normal world but in her exploration of that world we recognize that the terror they feel is justified as we witness with increasing horror the insanity of the world we ourselves inhabit American Literature in Transition, 1990-2000

Stephen J. Burn,2017-12-28 Written in the shadow of the approaching millennium American literature in the 1990s was beset by bleak announcements of the end of books the end of postmodernism and even the end of literature Yet as conservative critics marked the century's twilight hours by launching elegies for the conventional canon American writers proved the continuing vitality of their literature by reinvigorating inherited forms by adopting and adapting emerging technologies to narrative ends and by finding new voices that had remained outside that canon for too long By reading 1990s literature in a sequence of shifting contexts from independent presses to the AIDS crisis and from angelology to virtual reality American Literature in Transition 1990 2000 provides the fullest map yet of the changing shape of a rich and diverse decade's literary production It offers new perspectives on the period's well known landmarks Toni Morrison Thomas Pynchon David Foster Wallace but also overdue recognition to writers such as Ana Castillo Evan Dara Steve Erickson and Carole Maso
