Swedish Cinema From Ingeborg Holm To Fanny And Alexander:

Swedish Cinema, from Ingeborg Holm to Fanny and Alexander Peter Cowie, 1989 Swedish Cinema, from Ingeborg Holm to Fanny and Alexander Peter Cowie, 1985 Historical Dictionary of Scandinavian Cinema John Sundholm, Isak Thorsen, Lars Gustaf Andersson, Olof Hedling, Gunnar Iversen, Birgir Thor Møller, 2012-09-20 Although relatively small the northern countries of Scandinavia have made a disproportionately large contribution to world cinema. Indeed some of their films are among the best known of all times including The Seventh Seal, Dancer in the Dark and The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo. And Scandinavian directors are also among the best known just to mention Ingmar Bergman and Lars von Trier. But there is much more to the cinema of Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Finland and Iceland than that and this book shows us what they have been accomplishing over more than a century from the beginnings of cinema until the present. The Historical Dictionary of Scandinavian Cinema shows just how long and busy this history has been in the chronology starting in 1896. The introduction then describes the situation in each one of the component countries all of which approached and developed the field in a similar but also slightly different manner. The dictionary section with over 400 substantial entries looks at the situation in greater detail with over 400 substantial entries on major actors, directors and others, significant films, various genres and themes and subjects such as animation, ethnicity, migration and censorship. Given its contribution to world cinema it is good to finally have an encyclopedia like this which can meet the interests of the scholar and researcher but also the movie fan. Swedish Film Maria Larsson, Anders Marklund, 2012-01-02 A compilation of carefully selected articles written by international film scholars this record provides an in depth look into the history of Swedish film. This scholarly account covers various phenomena including the early screenings at the turn of the century, Swedish censorship, the golden age of silent films, 1930s comedies and melodramas, documentaries, pornography and experimental films. In addition this volume examines the work of important contributors such as Ingmar Bergman, Stefan Jarl and Peter Weiss and discusses film policies of the new millennium. The Man from the Third Row Fredrik Gustafsson, 2016-10-01 Until his early retirement at age 50 Hasse Ekman was one of the leading lights of Swedish cinema, an actor, writer and director of prodigious talents. Yet today his work is virtually unknown outside of Sweden, eclipsed by the filmography of his occasional collaborator and frequent rival Ingmar Bergman. This comprehensive introduction, the first ever in English, follows Ekman's career from his early days as a film journalist through landmark films such as Girl with Hyacinths (1950) to his retirement amid exhaustion and disillusionment. Combining historical context with insightful analyses of Ekman's styles and themes, this long overdue study considerably enriches our understanding of Swedish film history. Swedish crime fiction Steven Peacock, 2015-11-01 Swedish crime fiction became an international phenomenon in the first decade of the twenty-first century, starting first with novels but then percolating through Swedish language television serials and films and onto English language BBC productions and Hollywood remakes. This book looks at the rich history of Scandinavian noir, examines the appeal of this particular genre and attempts to reveal why it is distinct from the plethora of other crime fictions Examining the popularity of Steig Larsson s international success with his Millennium trilogy as well as Henning Mankell s Wallander across the various media Peacock also tracks some lesser known novels and television programmes He illustrates how the bleakness of the country s noirs reflects particular events and cultural and political changes with the clash of national characteristics becoming a key feature It will appeal to students and researchers of crime fiction and of film and television studies as well as the many fans of the novels and dramatic representations The to Z of Sweden Irene Scobbie,2010-05-11 The A to Z of Sweden relates the history of Sweden through a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay a bibliography appendixes and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons events and institutions this dictiona Cultural Life in Sweden ,1982 The American Marshall Plan Film Campaign and the Europeans Maria Fritsche,2018-02-08 The US government launched the European Recovery Programme otherwise known as the Marshall Plan in order to save war torn Europe from collapse in 1948 Yet while much is known about the economic side of the Marshall Plan the extensive film campaign that accompanied it has been largely overlooked until now The American Marshall Plan Film Campaign and the Europeans is the first book to explore the use of the Marshall Plan films and importantly their distribution and reception across Europe The study examines every available film the 170 that remain from the 200 estimated to have been made and looks at how they were designed to instil hope argue the case for economic restructuring and persuade the Europeans of the superiority of the liberal capitalist system The book goes on to reason that the films served as a powerful weapon in the cultural Cold War but that the European audiences were by no means passive victims of the US propaganda effort Maria Fritsche discusses the Marshall Plan films in the context of countries across Western Northern and Southern Europe covering the majority of the 17 European countries that participated in the Plan in the process The book incorporates 70 images and utilises a vast number of archival sources to explore the strategies the US adopted to sway the minds of the Europeans the problems they encountered in the process and not least the varied responses of the European audiences It is a vital study for any scholar or student keen to know more about postwar recovery in Europe the legacy of the Second World War or America s relationship with Europe in the 20th century Deterritorializing the New German Cinema John E. Davidson,1993 The History of Film Nicholas Croce,2015-07-15 This comprehensive guide offers cinema enthusiasts everything they need to know about the history of film The book covers the film industry s most epic periods including the early years of film starting in the 1830s the silent years in the first quarter of the twentieth century the pre World War II sound era the rise and fall of the Hollywood studios and the transition into the twenty first century Along the way readers learn about the most iconic films and directors from around the world as well as how history politics and the cultural zeitgeist influenced cinema The International Movie Industry Gorham Anders Kindem,2000 A comprehensive history of the international movie industry during the 20th century Essays examine the film industries of 19

countries focusing on individual national movie industries economic social aesthetic technological and political ideological development within an international context Nordic National Cinemas Gunnar Iverson,Astrid Soderbergh Widding,Tytti Soila,2005-07-19 Nordic National Cinemas explores the film histories and cultures of Denmark Finland Norway Iceland and Sweden The authors trace the twentieth century development of each country s domestic film production and audiences
