Sounding Differences Conversations With Seventeen Canadian Women Writers:

Sounding Differences Janice Rae Williamson, 1993 The Emma LaRocque Reader Elaine Coburn, 2025-07-15 Emma LaRocque was born in 1949 in Lac La Biche into a Cree speaking M tis family She grew up in a one room kerosene lit log cabin built by her father At the age of nine she fought her parents to attend school where she encountered English and the colonizer s harmful stereotypes of Indigenous peoples Confronting the contradictions of colonialism sparked her journey as a writer and scholar as she sought to understand the dissonance between her identity and the world around her The Emma LaRocque Reader is a comprehensive collection of her most significant writings poetry and prose offering an intimate window into the mind of one of Canada s foremost Indigenous scholars Through her work LaRocque provides profound insights into the intersections of colonialism sexism and racism in Canada while also critically celebrating the beauty of her community and culture In the afterword she reflects on fifty years of challenging the colonial enterprise A vital contribution to postcolonial literature The Emma LaRocque Reader intertwines the personal and the political to explore what it means to be human offering a powerful testament to Indigenous resistance resilience and vision Producing Canadian Literature Kit Dobson, Smaro Kambourelli, 2013-06-15 Producing Canadian Literature Authors Speak on the Literary Marketplace brings to light the relationship between writers in Canada and the marketplace within which their work circulates Through a series of conversations with both established and younger writers from across the country Kit Dobson and Smaro Kambourelli investigate how writers perceive their relationship to the cultural economy and what that economy means for their creative processes The interviews in Producing Canadian Literature focus in particular on how writers interact with the cultural institutions and bodies that surround them Conversations pursue the impacts of arts funding on writers show how agents editors and publishers affect writers works examine the process of actually selling a book both in Canada and abroad and contemplate what literary awards mean to writers Dialogues with Christian B k George Elliott Clarke Daniel Heath Justice Larissa Lai Stephen Henighan Roy Miki Er n Moure Ashok Mathur Lee Maracle Jane Urquhart and Aritha van Herk testify to the broad range of experience that writers in Canada have when it comes to the conditions in which their work is produced Original in its desire to directly explore the specific circumstances in which writers work and how those conditions affect their writing itself Producing Canadian Literature will be of interest to scholars students aspiring writers and readers who have followed these authors and want to know more about how their books come into being Seeing in the Dark Pauline Butling, 2006-01-01 Poet Phyllis Webb initiated new ways of seeing into the cultural dark of Western thought By blurring the axis between light and dark she redefined in positive terms women s subjectivity and sexuality which are traditionally assigned dark negative values Seeing in the Dark includes perceptive discussions on a number of Webb s collections specifically Naked Poems Wilson s Bowl Water and Light and Hanging Fire Butling shows how Webb uses strategies of subversion reversal and re vision of prevailing traditions and tropes to facilitate seeing in the dark She also provides a fascinating analysis of Webb criticism tracing it over the past thirty years and revealing a shift in critical paradigms A chapter on biography includes intriguing archival material Pauline Butling offers important new ways of reading one of Canada's finest poets Seeing in the Dark is essential introductory material for the general reader and provides provocative penetrating analysis for literary scholars

Tricks with a Glass, 2022-04-19 Studies of literary reflections on ethnicity are essential to the ever renewed definition of Canadian literature The essays in this collection explore the diverse ways of negotiating identity and the articulation of space in Canada taking ethnicity as a driving force with ideological and cultural implications that lend public and literary discourse an urgent dynamism While theorizing ethnicity is a valuable critical enterprise these essays centre on the concrete realization of the problematics of ethnicity in creative writing covering a wide range of Canada's mosaic The creative inscription of ethnicity stimulates the evolution and expansion of Canada's literary heritage the complexity of this cultural experience being the focus of the present collection Fourteen essays including a personal account by the Ukrainian Canadian Janice Kulyk Keefer on the merging of private and public history and two interviews with the Chinese Canadian writer Wayson Choy and the critic Linda Hutcheon analyze the manifestations of the pluralism that has always characterized Canadian writers consciousness of themselves their engagement with the notion of the multicultural and its significance in contemporary society and in particular its effect on creativity

Lifestyle Shopping Rob Shields, 2003-09-02 First Published in 2004 In contemporary shopping sites new modes of subjectivity inter personal relationships and models of social totality are being tried on taken off and displayed in much the same way that one might shop for clothes These are not the modernist spaces of goal directed individuals and utopian projects Rather it is a space of carnivalesque inversions of the present order of things The multiple masks of the postmodern person who wears many hats in different groups and surroundings form a veritable dramatis personae In such masks of the individual and the social world may be found a new spatialization and new intuitive perceptions of time and space This representation of contemporary social life grows out of the work of Henri Lefebvre Michel Maffesoli Walter Benjamin and Mikhail Bakhtin It is an attempt to take seriously the idea that we live in a postmodern consumer culture and to follow through the implications and possibilities of this idea Cases are drawn from Britain the United States Canada Australia Japan and Singapore to illustrate the new intersections between people mass culture and consumption
