Source of All Evil ,1992 A Christian and African Ethic of Women's Political Participation Léocadie W. Lushombo,2022-11-30 This book surveys a broad panorama of Christian and African traditions to discover and assess the components that will illuminate and motivate a Christian and African ethic of women s political participation The author s primary lens for diagnosing the problems faced by women in Africa is Engelbert Mveng s concept of anthropological poverty that results from slavery and colonialism It affects women in unique ways and is exacerbated by the religious and cultural histories of women s oppression The author advocates an interplay between the sacredness of every individual s life a salient principle of Christian ethics and the collective consciousness of solidarity distinctive to African cultures This interplay can in turn foster a more enlightened approach to African masculinity Using a sophiological hermeneutic this in depth study undertakes a moral imagination through narrative criticism It argues that the existential reality of African women must be addressed as an essential element in the development of Christian socio political ethic The righteous solidaristic and resistant anger of women can transform patriarchy and inform Catholic social teaching The author draws on The Circle of concerned African women theologians postcolonial theorists inculturation theology African males and Jon Sobrino s liberation theology to present an innovative Christian ethic that will radically affect the lives of African women and inform feminist theology

An African Feminist Philosophy of Language Olayinka Oyeleye,2024-08-14 This book calls for the institution of an African feminist philosophy of language challenging existing debates and encouraging a move away from the Western gaze The book begins with an analysis of the philosophical context of African feminism and a call for the decolonization of epistemological discourse Oyeleye then goes on to consider how indigenous patriarchies play out in the cultural reality of the Yor b in particular ontologically unpacking the nature of woman as expressed in language especially in myths and proverbs Challenging the derogatory language found in proverbs which entrench patriarchal oppression the author advocates for feminist postproverbials new proverbs which draw on old traditions but reconstruct the space of woman in a new egalitarian rhetorical tradition The author concludes by outlining the conditions necessary for African feminist philosophers to consider language as a decolonizing space which can help to push through the agenda of social change This book will be an important resource for researchers from across the fields of gender and women studies feminist philosophy philosophy of language cultural studies and African studies Never Marry a Woman with Big Feet Mineke Schipper, Wilhelmina Janneke Josepha Schipper, 2003-01-01 In this study the author analyses similarities differences and contradictions in the cultural norms about gender expressed in proverbs she has found in oral and written sources from over 150 countries Grouping the proverbs into categories as the female body love sex childbirth and the female power the author examines shared patterns in ideas about women and how men see them LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE Dainess Maganda, 2006-01-15 s the world continues to interconnect in this modern age the need for people to understand one another is magnified Whether for business purposes entertainment tourism or any other reason the more people learn about the world and the cultures that define them the more they are able to make this world a better place The languages people speak reflect the lives lived Understanding people s cultures therefore necessitates the use of language This book underscores the importance of using language and literature to enhance cultural understanding It also discusses the ways in which the teaching of African languages and literature can be used as vehicles for developing people s understanding of African cultures The African Palimpsest Chantal J.
