Linguistic Sign Theories Manuela Kistner,2008-06 Seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics University of Heidelberg 10 entries in the bibliography language English abstract We seem to be a species that is driven by a desire to make meanings Chandler 1995 by creating and interpreting signs Indeed it is a fact that we think only in signs Peirce 1931 58 II 302 These signs can have the shape of sounds images objects acts or flavours Since these things do not have an intrinsic meaning we have to give them a meaning so that they can become signs Peirce states that Nothing is a sign unless it is interpreted as a sign Peirce 1931 58 II 172 This means that everything can become a sign as long as it signifies something refers to or stands for something other than itself Chandler 1995 Our interpretation of signs is an unconscious process in our minds as we constantly relate the signs we experience to a system of conventions that is familiar to us This system of conventions and the use of signs in general is what semiotics is about There are three major models that give a detailed explanation of the constitution of a sign these are the models of Ferdinand de Saussure s Charles Sanders Peirce s and Karl B hler s model At first they will be presented in detail and secondly there will be a brief discussion about them
