Lane, 2002 This substantially expanded edition of Belden C Lane's Landscapes of the Sacred includes a new introductory chapter that offers three new interpretive models for understanding American sacred space Lane maintains his approach of interspersing shorter and more personal pieces among full length essays that explore how Native American early French and Spanish Puritan New England and Catholic Worker traditions have each expressed the connection between spirituality and place A new section at the end of the book includes three chapters that address methodological issues in the study of spirituality the symbol making process of religious experience and the tension between place and placelessness in Christian spirituality      Winkies, Toilets and Holy Places Timothy Merrill, 2009-01-27 What others are saying about Winkies Toilets and Holy Places A classic travel tale with adventure misadventure and curlicue unexpected turns in the road But more than that it's a voyage in which a family discovers what matters most to them across America and Europe without a dime to spare this is not the travel of pretty picture books from marital squabbles to homesick children from a haunting island monastery to the pure pleasure of simple farmhouse fare They travel moment to moment some staggeringly beautiful gently swinging in cable car above the Swiss Alps and others staggeringly real as when the cable car ride makes one of the boys sick to his stomach with nowhere to go All of this Merrill recounts with the gentle humor of an experienced pastor the wavering resolve of a stepfather and the openhearted joy of a man rekindling his wanderlust Read this tale if you're seeking a window to the Europe not of guidebooks and picture books but of human hearts finding that home is everywhere Paul Shepherd former Writer in Residence and Kingsbury Fellow at Florida State University whose debut novel More Like Not Running Away was the winner of the 2004 Mary McCarthy Prize in Short Fiction      American Book Publishing Record, 2003      Indigenous Perspectives on Sacred Natural Sites Jonathan Liljeblad, Bas Verschuuren, 2018-12-17 Much previous literature on sacred natural sites has been written from a non indigenous perspective In contrast this book facilitates a greater self expression of indigenous perspectives regarding treatment of the sacred and its protection and governance in the face of threats from various forms of natural resource exploitation and development It provides indigenous custodians the opportunity to explain how they view and treat the sacred through a written account that is available to a global audience It thus illuminates similarities and differences of both definitions interpretations and governance approaches regarding sacred natural phenomena and their conservation The volume presents an international range of case studies from the recent controversy of pipeline construction at Standing Rock a sacred site for the Sioux people spanning North and South Dakota to others located in Australia Canada East Timor Hawaii India Mexico Myanmar Nigeria and the Philippines Each chapter includes an analytical introduction and conclusion written by the editors to identify common themes unique insights and key messages The book is therefore a valuable teaching resource for students of indigenous studies anthropology religion heritage human rights and law nature conservation and environmental protection It will also be of great interest to
