The Black Military Experience in the American West John M.. Carroll,1971 Black Military Experience in America John Melvin Carroll,1996-09 Blacks in the American West and Beyond--America, Canada, and Mexico George H. Junne,2000-05-30 Almost a century before their arrival in the English New World Blacks appeared alongside the Spanish in what is now the American West Through their families communities and institutions these Western Blacks left behind a long history which is just now beginning to receive systematic scholarly treatment Comprehensively indexing a variety of research materials on Blacks in the North American West Junne offers an invaluable navigational tool for students of American and African American history Entries are organized both geographically and topically and cover a broad range of subjects including cross cultural interaction health art and law Contains a complete compilation of African American newspapers

The American West Gordon Morris Bakken,2000 Buffalo Soldiers in the West Bruce A. Glasrud,Michael N. Searles,2007 In the decades following the Civil War scores of African Americans served in the U S Army in the West The Plains Indians dubbed them buffalo soldiers and their record in the infantry and cavalry a record full of dignity and pride provides one of the most fascinating chapters in the history of the era This anthology focuses on the careers and accomplishments of black soldiers the lives they developed for themselves their relationships to their officers most of whom were white their specialized roles such as that of the Black Seminoles and the discrimination they faced from the very whites they were trying to protect In short this volume offers important insights into the social cultural and communal lives of the buffalo soldiers The selections are written by prominent scholars who have delved into the history of black soldiers in the West Previously published in scattered journals the articles are gathered here for the first time in a single volume providing a rich and accessible resource for students scholars and interested general readers Additionally the readings in this volume serve in some ways as commentaries on each other offering in this collected format a cumulative mosaic that was only fragmentary before Volume editors Glasrud and Searles provide introductions to the volume and to each of its four parts surveying recent scholarship and offering an interpretive framework The bibliography that closes the book will also commend itself as a valuable tool for further research

Freedom's Soldiers Ira Berlin,Joseph Patrick Reidy,Leslie S. Rowland,1998-03-13 Freedom s Soldiers tells the story of the 200 000 black men who fought in the Civil War in their own words and those of eyewitnesses Blacks in the American West Lenwood G. Davis,1974 Of Times and Race Michael B. Ballard,Mark R. Cheatham,2013 Of Times and Race contains eight essays on African American history from the Jacksonian era through the early twentieth century Taken together these essays inspired by noted scholar John F Marszalek demonstrate the many nuances of African Americans struggle to grasp freedom respect assimilation and basic rights of American citizens Essays include Mark R Cheatham s look at Andrew Jackson Donelson s struggle to keep his plantations operating within the ever growing debate over slavery in mid nineteenth century America Thomas D Cockrell examines Southern Unionism during the Civil War and wrestles with the difficulty of finding hard evidence due to sparse sources Stephen S Michot examines issues of race in Lafourche Parish Louisiana and finds that blacks involved themselves in both armies curiously clouding issues of slavery and freedom Michael B Ballard delves into how Mississippi slaves and Union soldiers interacted during the Vicksburg campaign Union treatment of freedmen and of U S colored troops demonstrated that blacks escaping slavery were not always welcomed Horace Nash finds that sports especially boxing played a fascinating role in blending black and white relations in the West during the early twentieth century Timothy Smith explores the roles of African Americans who participated in the work of the Civilian Conservation Corps during the creation of the Shiloh National Military Park James Scott Humphreys analyzes the efforts of two twentieth century historians who wished to debunk the old racist views of Reconstruction known as the Dunning school of interpretation Edna Green Medford provides a concluding essay that ties together the essays in the book and addresses the larger themes running throughout the text

Blacks and the Military in American History Jack D. Foner,1974 The American West ,1972 The Frontier and the American West Richard W. Etulain,1977 The Black Condition Howard Dodson,Colin A. Palmer,2009 Michigan State University Press ProQuest Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture and The New York Public Library are pleased to present a unique research study and teaching resource for professors and students of black studies In the more than thirty five years since the field of black studies established its presence in American higher education the volume of research writing and publications on the global black experience has increased exponentially With the extraordinary volume of research resources on the black experience currently available the challenge of selecting appropriate materials for research study and teaching has become extremely difficult Schomburg Studies on the Black Experience is a resource designed to assist users in making such choices
