Classics Transformed in Jewish, Israeli, and Palestinian Receptions ,2025-02-19 Classics Transformed in Jewish Israeli and Palestinian Receptions invites the reader to view classical antiquity through the writings of poets translators and scholars emerging from modern Jewish diasporas Mandatory Palestine and the State of Israel who engaged with Greek and Roman literary precedents Whereas these voices have up to now been mostly studied independently of one another as separate fields of research this volume brings some of these distinct voices who nevertheless share a connection to Greco Roman antiquity into conversation with one another Taking its cue from the crisis of humanism following the Holocaust the chapters take as their themes the destruction of home displacement and different forms of wandering and homecomings drawing connections to acts of translation and transmission of the classics to form a picture of cultural and textual states of alterity The volume shows that Jewish Israeli and Palestinian responses to the classics are entangled and even complementary despite their different trajectories The chapters included here focus particularly on critical moments in Jewish and Palestinian existence when the reception of classical humanism is closely linked to issues of survival On offer here is a historically grounded investigation into the ways Jews Israelis and Palestinians have used classical antiquity and classical philology to validate their identity in a rapidly changing society

The Poetics of Prophecy Yosefa Raz, 2023-12-21 Since the mid 1700s poets and scholars have been deeply entangled in the project of reinventing prophecy Moving between literary and biblical studies this book reveals how Romantic poetry is linked to modern biblical scholarship s development On the one hand scholars intellectuals and artists discovered models of strong prophecy in biblical texts shoring up aesthetic and nationalist ideals while on the other poets drew upon a counter tradition of destabilizing indeterminate weak prophetic power Yosefa Raz considers British and German Romanticism alongside their margins incorporating Hebrew literature written at the turn of the twentieth century in the Russia Empire Ultimately she explains the weakness of modern poet prophets not only as a crisis of secularism but also strikingly as part of the instability of the biblical text itself This title is part of the Flip it Open Programme and may also be available Open Access Check our website Cambridge Core for details
