Six Lives Six Deaths:

Six Lives, Six Deaths Robert Jay Lifton, Shūichi Katō, Michael Reich, 1979 Death and Dying John F.

Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death. Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death, dying, grief, and bereavement can be extremely challenging. Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology, those titles were incomplete, limited in scope, or leaned heavily toward one area of the field. In Death and Dying: An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature, John F. Szabo provides more than 2,200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying. Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological, philosophical, and attitudinal aspects of coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions; instructional and educational topics for practitioners; primarily health care providers; cultural differences in bereavement, rituals, and grief; mourning and loss. In addition, notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture, death themes in literature, methods of death, or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses. This book will be helpful to students, researchers, academics, caregivers, health care professionals, psychologists, social workers, and anyone with an interest in death, dying, bereavement, or the care of the terminally ill.

Trauma and Self Charles B. Strozier, Michael Flynn, 1996 This remarkable collection of original essays written by prominent scholars recognized for their achievements in a wide range of disciplines defines trauma as a disruption in the fragile process of symbolization or the human capacity to imbue life with meaning by representing the self's immortality. The contributors analyze the multiple meanings and deeper significance of trauma, whether of shell-shocked war veterans or victims of sexual abuse, and they discuss its manifestations, both subtle and obvious, in human behavior and memory. Organized as an honorary volume to Robert Jay Lifton, who identified trauma as the core psychological issue of the postmodern world, this book demonstrates how trauma and other fundamental breaks in human continuity inform psychiatric, historical, religious, literary, political, cultural, and scientific interpretations of the self. The Justice of the Peace, 1842

Death of the Senate Ben Nelson,2021-09 Something is rotten in the U S Senate and the disease has been spreading for some time But Ben Nelson former U S senator from Nebraska is not going to let the institution destroy itself without a fight Death of the Senate is a clear eyed look inside the Senate chamber and a brutally honest account of the current political reality In his two terms as a Democratic senator from the red state of Nebraska Nelson positioned himself as a moderate broker between his more liberal and conservative colleagues and became a frontline player in the most consequential fights of the Bush and Obama years His trusted centrist position gave him a unique perch from which to participate in some of the last great rounds of bipartisan cooperation such as the Gang of 14 that considered nominees for the federal bench and passed over a young lawyer named Brett Kavanaugh for being too partisan Nelson learned early on that the key to any negotiation at any level is genuine trust With humor insight and firsthand details Nelson makes the case that the heart of the deal is critical and describes how he focused on this during his time in the Senate As seen through the eyes of a centrist senator from the Great Plains Nelson shows how and why the spirit of bipartisanship declined and offers solutions that can restore the Senate to one of the world s most important legislative bodies
