Rose, 2007 Volume 1 Traces the social issues technological advances and combative encounters of the international naval race from 1890 through WWI as the largest industrial nations U S Great Britain Japan and Germany scrambled to secure global markets and empire using their battleship navies as pawns of power politics Provided by publisher Architects of Continental Seapower Jeremy Stocker, 2020-10-01 This book describes and analyses two iconic figures in twentieth century naval history the German Admiral Alfred von Tirpitz and the Russian Admiral Sergei Gorshkov It examines the men what they thought and wrote about seapower the fleets they created and the strategic consequences of what they did More broadly it draws on the respective histories of the post 1897 Imperial German Navy and the post 1956 Soviet Navy to examine the continental bid for large scale seapower The work argues that both individuals built navies that did not and could not fulfil the objectives for which they were created Drawing on the legacies of both men the book also develops some wider ideas about the creation of large navies by continental states with cautionary lessons for today s emerging powers India and China Both admirals have received book length biographies but this is the first attempt at a comparative study and the first to draw broader strategic lessons from their respective attempts as continental navalists to challenge maritime states This book will be of much interest to students of naval history strategic studies and International Relations DEFCON-2 Norman Polmar, 2006-01-01 The closest we ve ever come to the end of the world DEFCON 2 is the best single volume on the Cuban Missile Crisis published and is an important contribution to the history of the Cold War Beyond the military and political facts of the crisis Polmar and Gresham sketch the personalities that created and coped with the crisis They also show us how close we came to the edge without becoming sensationalistic Larry Bond bestselling author of Dangerous Ground Spy satellite and aerial reconnaissance photos reveal that one of the United States s bitterest enemies may be acquiring weapons of mass destruction and the means to use them against the American homeland Administration officials refuse to accept intelligence professionals interpretation of these images and order an end to spy missions over the offending nation More than a month later after vicious infighting the president orders the spy missions to resume The new photos reveal an array of ballistic missiles capable of carrying nuclear warheads and striking deep within U S territory It appears that the missiles will be fully operational within one week This is not a plot setup for a suspense novel it is the true story of the most terrifying moment in the 45 year Cold War between the United States and the Soviet Union the Cuban Missile Crisis DEFCON 2 tells this tale as it has never been told before from both sides with the help of hundreds of recently declassified U S and Soviet documents as well as interviews with numerous former spies military figures and government officials who speak out here for the first time Doing Naval History John B.
