This collection of articles covers a crucial period of Spain's history from the rise of Franco to the crucial Stabilization Plan of 1959. Separated into four chronologically divided sections, it focuses largely on the international reactions to and the involvement of other powers in the Spanish Civil War, including an examination of French and British reactions to the situation in Spain and Soviet, German, and Italian involvement, and the period of the Second World War with a particular focus on Spain's relations to the Axis and Vichy France, especially during the period of 1940-41 when a Spanish entry into the war was most likely. The fate of the Spanish refugees and exiles in Britain and France is also highlighted, as is Spain's international position in the aftermath of the Second World War and particularly the attitude of the former Allies: Britain, France, the Soviet Union, and the USA. The volume ends with Spain's response to the unfolding economic co-operation and integration in Western Europe.

Language Identity, Learning, and Teaching in Costa Rica Lena Barrantes-Elizondo, Cinthya Olivares-Garita, 2023-07-19. This edited collection provides a comprehensive and locally situated understanding of English language teaching from the perspective of dedicated and experienced language professionals and researchers in Costa Rica. The book uses a series of reflective sections that interconnect theory and practice in a non-English dominant context in order to inform and transform pedagogical practices. The chapters depict a wide-ranging image of English language teaching and learning in the region, encouraging in-service teachers, TESOL specialists, and ELT scholars to critically reassess, rethink, and relearn teaching and learning as more than a political decision in an educational curriculum. Ultimately promoting the practice as dynamic, ever-changing, and culturally situated, the book will be highly relevant to researchers, academics, scholars, and faculty in the fields of teacher education, educational research, EFL, and modern foreign languages.

Learning and Not Learning in the Heritage Language Classroom Kimberly Adilia Helmer, 2020-02-13. Learning and Not Learning in the Heritage Language Classroom is a critical ethnography that describes the first year of a teacher-founded charter high school and presents a case study of compulsory Spanish heritage language instruction with two Spanish language teachers: one English dominant and the other Spanish dominant. The study follows the same cohort of Mexican origin students to their humanities English class, bringing into focus what works and what does not with this group of learners. Unlike many Spanish heritage language studies, the students in this book did not choose to take part in Spanish class and thus provide unusually raw feedback on their teachers and classes. The engagement and resistance of these students suggests pedagogical directions for engaging Spanish heritage language learners. The book will be of interest to scholars, administrators, students, and teachers involved in the delivery and assessment of heritage language classes.

Interpreting in Legal and Healthcare Settings Eva N.S. Ng, Ineke H.M. Crezee, 2020-06-15. The importance of quality interpreting in legal and healthcare settings can never be stressed enough when any mistake, no matter how small, can compromise the delivery of justice or put someone's health at risk.
