Medhurst, 2023-02-05 Reprint of the original The Foreigner in Far Cathay \(Classic Reprint\) W. H. Medhurst, 2015-07-04 Excerpt from The Foreigner in Far Cathay This little book does not pretend to the importance of a work on China Its aim is simply to enlighten the home public as to the actual circumstances in which residents in that remote region find themselves and to supply a few scraps of information part of it new and part of it hitherto misapprehended respecting the Chinese themselves Existing relations between China and the leading Western powers are inevitably tending towards results the importance of which to both sides cannot be exaggerated and I shall consider myself fortunate if the few words which I have herein ventured should lead to a better understanding in England of our true position and interests in Far Cathay About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Foreigner in Far Cathay W. Medhurst, 2017-07-28 Trieste Publishing has a massive catalogue of classic book titles Our aim is to provide readers with the highest quality reproductions of fiction and non fiction literature that has stood the test of time The many thousands of books in our collection have been sourced from libraries and private collections around the world The titles that Trieste Publishing has chosen to be part of the collection have been scanned to simulate the original. Our readers see the books the same way that their first readers did decades or a hundred or more years ago. Books from that period are often spoiled by imperfections that did not exist in the original. Imperfections could be in the form of blurred text, photographs or missing pages. It is highly unlikely that this would occur with one of our books. Our extensive quality control ensures that the readers of Trieste Publishing's books will be delighted with their purchase. Our staff has thoroughly reviewed every page of all the books in the collection, repairing or if necessary rejecting titles that are not of the highest quality. This process ensures that the reader of one of Trieste Publishing's titles receives a volume that faithfully reproduces the original and to the maximum degree possible gives them the experience of owning the original work. We pride ourselves on not only creating a pathway to an extensive reservoir of books of the finest quality but also providing value to every one of our readers. Generally Trieste books are purchased singly on demand; however, they may also be purchased in bulk. Readers interested in bulk purchases are invited to contact us directly to enquire about our tailored bulk rates.

Culinary Nostalgia Mark Swislocki, 2009. This book argues that regional food culture is intrinsic to how Chinese connect to the past, live in the present, and imagine their future. It focuses on Shanghai, a food lover's paradise, and identifies the importance of regional food culture at pivotal moments in the city's history and in Chinese history more generally.

A Review of the Following Works , Catalogue of the Foreign Mission Library of the Divinity School of Yale University, New Haven, Conn Yale University. Divinity School. Day Missions Library, 1892 Finding List of the Chicago Public Library Chicago Public Library, 1890 Big Business in China Sherman Cochran, 1980. This is the first major study in Chinese business history based largely on business's own records. It focuses on the battle for the cigarette market in early twentieth-century China between the British American Tobacco Company based in New York and London and its leading Chinese rival Nanyang Brothers Tobacco Company whose headquarters were in Hong Kong and Shanghai. From its founding in 1902, the British American Tobacco Company maintained a lucrative monopoly of the market until 1915 when Nanyang entered China and extended its operations into the country's major markets despite the use of aggressive tactics against it. Both companies grew rapidly during the 1920s and competition between them reached its peak, but by 1930 Nanyang weakened, bringing an end to serious commercial rivalry. Though less competitive, both companies continued to trade in China until their Sino foreign rivalry ended altogether with the founding of the People's Republic in 1949. Debate over international commercial rivalries has often been conducted broadly in terms of imperialist exploitation and economic nationalism. This study shows the usefulness and limitations of these terms for historical purposes and contributes to the separate but related debate over the significance of entrepreneurial innovation in Chinese economic history. By analyzing the foreign Chinese companies' business practices and by describing their involvement in diplomatic incidents, boycotts, strikes, student protests, relations with peasant tobacco growers, dealings with the Kuomintang and Chinese Communist Party, and a host of other activities, the author brings to light the roles that big businesses played not only in China's economy but also in its politics, society, and foreign affairs.

Enclave to Urbanity Johnathan Andrew Farris, 2016-07-01. Cross-cultural relations are spatial relations. Enclave to Urbanity is the first book in English that examines how the architecture and the urban landscape of Guangzhou framed the relations between the Western mercantile and missionary communities and the city's predominantly Chinese population. The book takes readers through three phases: the Thirteen Factories era from the eighteenth century to the 1850s, the Shamian enclave up to the early twentieth century, and the adoption of Western building techniques throughout the city as its architecture modernized in the early Republic. The discussion of architecture goes beyond stylistic trends to embrace the history of shared and disputed spaces using a broadly chronological approach that combines social history with architectural and spatial analysis. With nearly a hundred carefully chosen images, this book illustrates how the foreign architectural footprints of the past form the modern Guangzhou. Enclave to Urbanity is a study of one of China's most important cities at the most exciting time in its history. This carefully researched work not only offers an in-depth look at Canton/Guangzhou; it narrates history through anecdotes and personalities associated with the city. The superior illustrations combined with the excellent choice of quotes will be appreciated by audiences who are familiar with the city as well as those who have never been there. Nancy S. Steinhardt, Professor of East Asian Art and Curator of Chinese Art, University of Pennsylvania. Cross-cultural exchanges draw a lot of attention across various disciplines today. Painting a fascinating picture of the multiple ways in which Western traders and their families transformed Guangzhou/Canton together with local Chinese people from the late eighteenth to the twentieth century, Farris provides a finely illustrated close reading of life and building in a global context. Carola Hein, Professor and Head of History of Architecture and Urban Planning, Delft University of Technology.

Narodne pjesne Muhamedovaca u Bosni i Hercegovini, 1909 民族歌集, 1905 Mesny's Chinese Miscellany William Mesny, 1905. A text book of notes on China and the Chinese.
