The Force Of Knowledge:

The Force of Knowledge John Ziman, 1976 Truth, Force, and Knowledge in Language Savas L. Tsohatzidis, 2020-08-24

This book collects twenty five of the author's essays each of which addresses a descriptive or a foundational issue that arises at the interface between linguistic semantics and pragmatics on the one hand and the philosophy of language on the other. Arranged into three interconnected parts I Matters of Meaning and Truth II Matters of Meaning and Force III Knowledge Matters the essays suggest that some key topics in the above mentioned fields have often been approached in ways that considerably underestimate their empirical or conceptual complexity and attempt to delineate perspectives from which and conditions under which an improved understanding of those topics could be sought. The book will be of interest to linguists working in semantics and pragmatics and to philosophers working in the philosophy of language and in epistemology.

Managing Knowledge in Strategic Alliances is a volume in the book series Research in Strategic Alliances that will focus on providing a robust and comprehensive forum for new scholarship in the field of strategic alliances. In particular the books in the series will cover new views of interdisciplinary theoretical frameworks and models, significant practical problems of alliance organization and management and emerging areas of inquiry. The series will also include comprehensive empirical studies of selected segments of business, economic, industrial, government and non profit activities with wide prevalence of strategic alliances. Through the ongoing release of focused topical titles this book series will seek to disseminate theoretical insights and practical management information that will enable interested professionals to gain a rigorous and comprehensive understanding of the field of strategic alliances. Managing Knowledge in Strategic Alliances contains contributions by leading scholars in the field of strategic alliance research. The 11 chapters in this volume cover a number of significant topics that speak to the critical issues in managing knowledge in strategic alliances. The chapter topics cover both the broader issues such as managing uncertainty in alliances, collaborative know how, novelty in interpartner knowledge, cooptation in knowledge integration and dynamic knowledge capabilities and the more focused problems of innovation and partner selection, partner responsiveness and knowledge in supply chain networks, the effect of knowledge flows on the decision to cooperate and interpartner learning dynamics in an alliance constellation. The chapters include empirical as well as conceptual treatments of the selected topics and collectively present a wide ranging review of the noteworthy research perspectives on knowledge management in strategic alliances.
