The Forgetting Of Air In Martin Heidegger The Constructs Series:

The Forgetting of Air in Martin Heidegger Luce Irigaray, 1999 French philosopher Luce Irigaray has become one of the twentieth century's most influential feminist thinkers. Among her many writings are three books with a projected fourth in which she challenges the Western tradition's construals of human beings' relations to the four elements: earth, air, fire, and water, and to nature. In answer to Heidegger's undoing of Western metaphysics as a forgetting of Being, Irigaray seeks in this work to begin to think out the Being of sexedness and the sexedness of Being. This volume is the first English translation of L'oubli de l'air chez Martin Heidegger 1983. In this complex, lyrical, meditative engagement with the later work of the eminent German philosopher, Irigaray critiques Heidegger's emphasis on the element of earth as the ground of life and speech and his oblivion or forgetting of air. With the other volumes Elemental Passions and Marine Lover of Friedrich Nietzsche published elsewhere in Irigaray's elemental series, The Forgetting of Air offers a fundamental rereading of basic tenets in Western metaphysics. And with its emphasis on dwelling and human habitation, it will be important reading not only in the humanities but also in architecture and the environmental sciences.

The Handy Philosophy Answer Book Naomi Zack, 2009-09-01. Combining a basic history of philosophical thought with the often quirky personal stories of famous philosophers, this comprehensive introduction to the world of philosophy answers more than 1,000 questions ranging from "What was the Enlightenment?" to "Why did the Pythagorians avoid fava beans?" Analyzing the collective effort of philosophers throughout history in the pursuit of truth and wisdom, the guide explores the tangible significance of philosophical thought to modern society and civilization as a whole. With a wide range of information suitable for various knowledge bases from junior high to junior college, this is an ideal resource for anyone looking to get a better grasp of the history of thought.

e-mail trouble S. Paige Baty, 2010-06-28. This is about a society of isolates who all communicate with one another from terminal sites. This is about being disembodied, distanced, distinct, and that sort of boundary thing. It is not about being present. It is not about being there. It is not about a shared history or a shared meal or a shared story or any kind of mutuality. It is about contact between virtual strangers. It happens when you feel that you are so alone that you need anybody to talk to anybody at all because you believe that your connections have failed you. This kind of connection leaves you cold and dead inside because it lacks history and a language of belonging. In this daring postmodern autobiography, S. Paige Baty recounts her search for love and community on the Internet. Taking Jack Kerouac's On the Road as a point of departure, Baty describes both an actual road trip to meet the object of an e-mail romance and the cyber search for connection that draws so many people into the matrix of the Internet. Writing in a bold, experimental style that freely mixes e-mails, poems, fragments of quotations, and puns into expository text, she convincingly links e-mail trouble with female trouble in the displacement of embodied love and accountable human relationships to opaque screens and alienated identities. Her book stands as a vivid feminist critique of our culture's love affair with technology and its dehumanizing effect on personal relationships.

The Ethics of Choosing Children Simon Reader, 2017-09-02 This book takes the contentious issue of designer babies and argues against the liberal eugenic current of bioethics that commends the logic and choice regimes of selective reproduction. Against conceptions of Procreative Beneficence that trade on a disregard for the gifts of maternal bodies, it seeks to recover a thought of maternal giving and a more hospitable ethic of generational beneficence. Exploring themes of responsibility, gift, and natality, the book refigures the experience of reproduction as the site of an ethical response to future generations, where refusal to choose one's children is one virtuous response. The book will appeal to anyone with an interest in reproductive ethics, feminist thought, and those seeking principled grounds for resisting the technologies of choosing children.

The Publishers Weekly, 1999 Lingua Franca, 1999 Breathing with Luce Irigaray Lenart Skof, Emily A. Holmes, 2013-08-15 Contributors to this volume consider the implications of the Age of Breath, a spiritual shift in human awareness to the needs of the other figured through breathing. Awareness of the breath allows us to attend to our bodies and the bodies of others, to animals, nature, other cultures, oppressed minorities, and the other of sexual difference. As a way to connect body and spirit, self and other, nature and culture, and East and West, breathing emerges as the significant theological and philosophical gesture of our time. Philosophy has too often cut off metaphysical thought from this living, breathing world with its animal and female bodies, just as religious traditions have repressed the breathing flesh in favour of calcified word. The re-introduction of breath into philosophy and theology draws our awareness back to the body, to respect for the other, and to nature, making awareness of the breath essential for an embodied ethics of difference in our globalized ecological age. These themes are addressed by an international team of scholars, including Luce Irigaray.

La naturaleza en disputa Emanuela Bianchi, 2023-08-24 Este libro de Emanuela Bianchi, el primero en ser traducido y publicado en castellano, es ante todo un texto sobre la recepción. Strange Beauty A. Siewers, 2009-09-14 Strange Beauty provides a new perspective on early Celtic stories of the Otherworld and their relevance to today s ecological concerns arguing for a contemporary re reading of the Otherworld trope in relation to physical experience American Book Publishing Record ,1999

Thinking with Irigaray Mary C. Rawlinson, Sabrina L. Hom, Serene J. Khader, 2011-11-01 Thinking with Irigaray takes up Irigaray s challenge to think beyond the androcentric one subject culture identifying much that is useful and illuminative in Irigaray s work while also questioning some of her assumptions and claims Some contributors reject outright her prescriptions for changing our culture others suggest that her prescriptions are inconsistent with the basic ethical concerns of her project and still others attempt to identify blind spots in her work By confronting and challenging the mechanisms of masculine domination Irigaray has identified and applying these insights to a wide range of practical and contemporary concerns including popular media representations of women s sexuality feminist practice in the arts political resistance and yoga the contributors demonstrate the unique potential of Irigaray s thought within feminist philosophy and gender studies Translation Review ,1998

The Enclosed Garden and the Medieval Religious Imaginary Liz Herbert McAvoy, 2021 During the Middle Ages the arresting motif of the walled garden especially in its manifestation as a sacred or love inflected hortus conclusus was a common literary device Usually associated with the Virgin Mary or the Lady of popular romance it appeared in myriad literary and iconographic forms largely for its aesthetic decorative and symbolic qualities This study focuses on the more complex metaphysical functions and meanings attached to it between 1100 and 1400 and in particular those associated with the gardens of Eden and the Song of Songs Drawing on contemporary theories of gender gardens landscape and space it traces specifically the resurfacing and reworking of the idea and image of the enclosed garden within the writings of medieval holy women and other female coded texts In so doing it presents the enclosed garden as generator of a powerfully gendered hermeneutic imprint within the medieval religious imaginary indeed as an alternative language used to articulate those highly complex female coded approaches to God that came to dominate late medieval religiosity The book also responds to the eco turn in our own troubled times that attempts to return the non human to the centre of public and private discourse The texts under scrutiny therefore invite responses as both literary and garden spaces where form often reflects content and where their authors are also diligent gardeners the apocryphal Lives of Adam and Eve for example the horticulturally inflected Hortus Deliciarum of Herrad of Hohenburg and the green philosophies of Hildegard of Bingen s Scivias the visionary writings of Gertrude the Great and Mechthild of Hackeborn collaborating within their Helfta nunnery the Middle English poem Pearl and multiple reworkings of the deeply problematic and increasingly sexualized garden enclosing the biblical figure of Susanna

Relational Hermeneutics Paul Fairfield, Saulius Geniusas, 2018-10-04 Investigating connections between philosophical hermeneutics and neighbouring traditions of thought this volume considers the question of how post Heideggerian hermeneutics as represented by Gadamer Ricoeur and recent scholars following in their wake relate to these traditions both in general terms and bearing upon specific questions The traditions covered in this volume existentialism pragmatism poststructuralism Eastern philosophy and hermeneutics itself are all characterized by significant internal diversity adding to the difficulty in reaching an interpretation that is at once comparative and critical None of these traditions represent a unified system of belief all are umbrella terms which are at once useful and imprecise and the differences internal to each must not to be understated An innovative work of comparative philosophy this volume avoids oversimplification and offers specific analyses that treat hermeneutics in relation to particular themes and key figures in each of these traditions of thought Philosophical hermeneutics is explicitly dialogical and it is in this spirit that the authors of this book approach their subjects revealing the important affinities and opportunities for mutually enriching conversations which have until now been overlooked

The Antigone Complex Cecilia Sjöholm, 2004-10-08 What if psychoanalysis had chosen Antigone rather than Oedipus This book traces the relation between ethics and desire in important philosophical texts that focus on femininity and use Antigone as their model It shows that the notion of feminine desire is conditioned by a view of women as being prone to excesses and deficiencies in relation to ethical norms and rules Sjöholm explains Mary Wollstonecraft s work as well as readings of Antigone by G W F Hegel Martin Heidegger Luce Irigaray Jacques Lacan and Judith Butler This book introduces the concept of the Antigone complex in order to illuminate the obscure and multifaceted question of feminine desire which has given rise to the fascination of generations of philosophers and other theoreticians as well as readers and spectators At the same time the book argues for a notion of desire that is intrinsically related to ethics The ethical question posed by Antigone and explored in the book is what determines those actions that one must do as opposed to those that one ought to do

Male Bodies and Sexual Difference Ovidiu Anemtoai, 2018-04-18 This book addresses themes concerning male bodies men and masculinities from an explicit feminist philosophical position drawing from various fields including phenomenology gender theory sociology of the body and continental philosophy among others Whereas the majority of works in the field of critical studies on men and masculinities draw predominantly on gender and queer theories this book works from within the sexual difference theory as developed by feminist philosopher Luce Irigaray As such it proposes a conceptual sketch for a different understanding of the complex relationships between male bodies men and masculinities making use of Gilles Deleuze's radical notion of critique and arguing at the same time for a post Deleuzean concept of becoming man from the philosophy of sexual difference perspective The book represents a contribution to the interpretations of Luce Irigaray's rich work as well as to the fields of masculinities studies and feminist philosophy and it is written primarily for scholars and students in cultural studies women and gender studies sexuality studies and philosophy Transcendence and Beyond John D. Caputo, Michael J. Scanlon, 2007

A benchmark volume at the intersection of philosophy and religion The Routledge Handbook of Feminist Philosophy of Science Sharon Crasnow, Kristen Intemann, 2020-11-30 The Routledge Handbook of Feminist Philosophy of Science is a comprehensive resource for feminist thinking about and in the sciences Its 33 chapters were written exclusively for this Handbook by a group of leading international philosophers as well as scholars in gender studies women's studies psychology economics and political science The chapters of the Handbook are organized into four main parts I Hidden Figures and Historical Critique II Theoretical Frameworks III Key Concepts and Issues IV Feminist Philosophy of Science in Practice The chapters in this extensive fourth part examine the relevance of feminist philosophical thought for a range of scientific and professional disciplines including biology and biomedical sciences psychology cognitive science and neuroscience the social sciences physics and public policy The Handbook gives a snapshot of the current state of feminist philosophy of science allowing students and other newcomers to get up to speed quickly in the subfield and providing a handy reference for many different kinds of researchers Luce Irigaray Luce Irigaray, Mary Green, 2008-11-18 Luce Irigaray is one of the world's most important and influential contemporary theorists and this book presents a collection of essays exploring the full range of her work from an international team of academics in many different fields
