

THE FRANCES SLOCUM TRAIL

There is no place in the Northwest Territory where you can travel twenty-five miles on a public highway along which there has been more history, romance, and tragedy than on the famous Sierrita trail. This trail will express the Phelps of your mind to the interesting events of our country. Here the Indian legend has lost its life long story of romance in other parts of the Northwest. The story of his lands and of our life and the Sioux and of our relations among the Indians, and how they were found by her, is a most thrilling story after a search of nearly thirty years in one of the most famous of all American homes of the West. It is all American history and the last Indian life. Here are the Washingtons.
