The Monroe Doctrine Donald Marquand Dozer,1965 The Monroe Doctrine Donald Marquand Dozer,1976 The Monroe Doctrine Ralph Thomlinson,1965 The Monroe doctrine: its modern significance. Edited with an introduction by Donald Marquand Dozer Second printing Donald Marquand Dozer,1967 A blanc check for intervention - the evolution of the Monroe Doctrine and its significance in contemporary U.S. foreign policy Michael Schmid,2007-01-12 Seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject Politics Region USA grade 1 3 Indiana University Political Science Department course American Political Traditions language English abstract The Monroe Doctrine will be 200 years old in 2023 and the world of today could not be more different than from the conditions of the world in which president James Monroe gave his speech which would become so famous and significant for the direction of U S foreign policy Yet the policies of the Monroe Doctrine are still very much alive Especially after president Theodore Roosevelt announced the Roosevelt Corollary to the Monroe Doctrine in 1904 America s path of becoming a major player in world affairs with arbitrary power was paved for them The argument of this paper is that the document known today as the Monroe Doctrine started out as a simple but efficient and bold proclamation which dealt with the problems of its time and has been transformed into a tool for global involvement Originally it attempts to keep Europeans out of the New World but it does not attack the already existing colonies in the Western Hemisphere Over time various presidents altered this original phrasing One of the more important examples of this tradition is Theodore Roosevelt s Corollary to the doctrine which will serve as an illustration to outline the main argument Roosevelt turned the meaning of the doctrine around and went from noninterference to active responsibility by the United States to intervene anywhere in the Western Hemisphere where chaos and violence ruled Still limited on the Western Hemisphere and whatever was defined to fit into this category Roosevelt s definition of the international police power soon became just that The United States would enter two World Wars on the basic justification that they were restoring order and justice and were only acting out of self defense reasons After World War II nothing of what James Monroe had once proclaimed as essential to American progress was left The defining characteristic of Monroe s old doctrine the non interference with European affairs phrase had been shattered to pieces The Cold War forced the United States to become even more dedicated to European matters and even after the Cold War the U S or a multilateral coalition under U S leadership now dealt with new threats to European peace With the post 9 11 era all dreams about isolation from Europe were forever destroyed The War on Terrorism is the latest effort of the United States to change the conditions of countries all around the world The Monroe Doctrine. Its Modern Significance. Ed. with an Introd. by Donald Marquand Dozer Donald Marquand Dozer,1967 The Monroe Doctrine and Mommsen's Law Charles Francis Adams,1914 The Doctrines of US Security Policy Heiko Meiertöns,2010-06-10 The practise of outlining principles for the conduct of US security policy in so called doctrines is a characteristic feature of US foreign policy From an international

lawyer's point of view two aspects of these doctrines are of particular interest First to what degree are the criteria for the use of force as laid down in these doctrines consistent with the limitations for the use of force in international law Second which law creating effects do these doctrines have Furthermore the legal nature of these doctrines remains uncertain These matters are examined beginning with the Monroe Doctrine of 1823 and taking into account the Stimson Doctrine of 1932 the doctrines of the Cold War period and the Bush Doctrine of 2002 The Bush Doctrine in particular has generated controversies concerning its compatibility with Article 51 of the UN Charter due to its principle of preventive self defence The
