by other publishers and welcome the author whose expertise can help our audience of readers Pioneers of Modern Design Nikolaus Pevsner, 2005-01-01 Richard Weston is professor at the Welsh School of Architecture Cardiff University He has published extensively on twentieth century architecture including his book Materials Form and Architecture published by Yale University Press Paintings and Sculpture in the Collection of the National Academy of Design: 1826-1925 David Bernard Dearing, National Academy of Design (U.S.), 2004 This is the first installment of a fully illustrated catalogue of the Academy's priceless collection of paintings and sculptures Minnesota 1900 Michael Conforti, 1994 This book examines advances in architecture design and painting in a region widely recognized for its contribution to the Arts and Crafts and Prairie School movements It features the work of many well known American artists including the architects Cass Gilbert Harvey Ellis Frank Lloyd Wright Purcell and Elmslie ceramicist and Arts and Crafts philosopher Ernest Batchelder and the painters Homer Dodge Martin and Alexander Fournier The six essays also focus on the ceramic and metalwork production of the Handicraft Guild of Minneapolis the Crafthouse of John Bradstreet and American Indian art and artifacts created both for native and white use at the time Alan Lathrop discusses Minnesota architecture by combining his knowledge of architectural practitioners of the time with an awareness of international stylistic trends particularly the tradition of the Ecole des Beaux Arts in this first overview of the state's architecture of the period ever published Michael Conforti and Jennifer Komar link the development of retailing in the late nineteenth century to the interior design practice and Arts and Crafts production of John Bradstreet Thomas O Sullivan provides a study of Robert Koehler one of the region's most respected painters while he reviews the work of over two dozen of the state's other painters working at the time The special communal nature of Minnesota's artistic life is emphasized in Marcia Anderson's contribution Her study of the Handicraft Guild of Minneapolis presents years of archival research on the Guild which she presents in the context of the international Arts and Crafts movement Mark Hammons provides the first monograph ever published on the architectural partnership of Purcell and Elmslie the most commissioned architects of the Prairie School after Frank Lloyd Wright Hammons analyzes the team centered working process of the firm and relates their creative process and formal vocabulary to the contemporary metaphysical discourse that was the foundation of their architectural philosophy Louise Lincoln and Paulette Molin study the nature of relationships between whites and the Chippewa and Dakota Indians in their discussion of native material culture Lincoln and Molin decode a complex nuanced cultural interchange embodying both traditional and assimilationist trends Their essay is the first in depth examination of the range of American Indian art from this region one that considers both objects crafted for native use and those produced for the tourist market

BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Builder, 1847 Costume, Makeup, and Hair Adrienne L. McLean, 2016-10-07 Movie buffs and film scholars alike often overlook the importance of makeup artists hair stylists and costumers With precious few but notable exceptions creative workers in these fields have received little public recognition

even when their artistry goes on to inspire worldwide fashion trends From the acclaimed Behind the Silver Screen series Costume Makeup and Hair charts the development of these three crafts in the American film industry from the 1890s to the present Each chapter examines a different era in film history revealing how the arts of cinematic costume makeup and hair have continually adapted to new conditions making the transitions from stage to screen from monochrome to color and from analog to digital Together the book s contributors give us a remarkable glimpse into how these crafts foster creative collaboration and improvisation often fashioning striking looks and ingenious effects out of limited materials Costume Makeup and Hair not only considers these crafts in relation to a wide range of film genres from sci fi spectacles to period dramas but also examines the role they have played in the larger marketplace for fashion and beauty products Drawing on rare archival materials and lavish color illustrations this volume provides readers with both a groundbreaking history of film industry labor and an appreciation of cinematic costume makeup and hairstyling as distinct art forms Childhood by Design Megan Brandow-Faller, 2018-04-19 Informed by the analytical practices of the interdisciplinary material turn and social historical studies of childhood Childhood By Design Toys and the Material Culture of Childhood offers new approaches to the material world of childhood and design culture for children This volume situates toys and design culture for children within broader narratives on history art design and the decorative arts where toy design has traditionally been viewed as an aberration from more serious pursuits The essays included treat toys not merely as unproblematic reflections of socio cultural constructions of childhood but consider how design culture actively shaped commodified and materialized shifting discursive constellations surrounding childhood and children Focusing on the new array of material objects designed in response to the modern invention of childhood what we might refer to as objects for a childhood by design Childhood by Design explores dynamic tensions between theory and practice discursive constructions and lived experience as embodied in the material culture of childhood Contributions from and between a variety of disciplinary perspectives including history art history material cultural studies decorative arts design history and childhood studies are represented critically linking historical discourses of childhood with close study of material objects and design culture Chronologically the volume spans the 18th century which witnessed the invention of the toy as an educational plaything and a proliferation of new material artifacts designed expressly for children s use through the 19th century expansion of factory based methods of toy production facilitating accuracy in miniaturization and a new vocabulary of design objects coinciding with the recognition of childhood innocence and physical separation within the household towards the intersection of early 20th century child centered pedagogy and modernist approaches to nursery and furniture design through the changing consumption and sales practices of the postwar period marketing directly to children through television film and other digital media and into the present where the line between the material culture of childhood and adulthood is increasingly blurred The Publishers Weekly ,1993 Chicago Scene ,1962
