

Jesus's Miracles in Mark's Gospel

- Jesus often instructs those whom he has helped or healed not to speak of the miracle to others. Biblical scholars call this the "messianic secret."
- Literary criticism and form criticism help us to see that the miracles follow an established form: the problem is stated and then brought to Jesus' attention, Jesus solves the problem, and the onlookers react.
- The miracle stories help to establish Jesus' identity as the Messiah and the Son of God.
