Interculturalism and Performance Now Charlotte McIvor, Jason King, 2018-12-29 This book is the first edited collection to respond to an undeniable resurgence of critical activity around the controversial theoretical term interculturalism in theatre and performance studies Long one of the field's most vigorously debated concepts intercultural performance has typically referred to the hybrid mixture of performance forms from different cultures typically divided along an East West or North South axis and its related practices frequently charged with appropriation exploitation or ill founded universalism New critical approaches since the late 2000s and early 2010s instead reveal a plethora of localized grassroots diasporic and historical approaches to the theory and practice of intercultural performance which make available novel critical and political possibilities for performance practitioners and scholars This collection consolidates and pushes forward reflection on these recent shifts by offering case studies from Asia Africa Australasia Latin America North America and Western Europe which debate the possibilities and limitations of this theoretical turn towards a new interculturalism Music in the Post-9/11 World Jonathan Ritter, J. Martin Daughtry, 2013-10-31 Music in the Post 9 11 World addresses the varied and complex roles music has played in the wake of September 11 2001 Interdisciplinary in approach international in scope and critical in orientation the twelve essays in this groundbreaking volume examine a diverse array of musical responses to the terrorist attacks of that day and reflect upon the altered social economic and political environment of post 9 11 music production and consumption Individual essays are devoted to the mass mediated works of popular musicians such as Bruce Springsteen and Darryl Worley as well as to lesser known musical responses by artists in countries including Afghanistan Egypt Mexico Morocco Peru and Senegal Contributors also discuss a range of themes including the role played by Western classical music in rites of mourning and commemoration invisible musical practices such as the creation of television news music and implicit censorship in the mainstream media Taken as a whole this collection presents powerful evidence of the central role music has played in expressing shaping and contesting worldwide public attitudes toward the defining event of the early twenty first century

The Dreamhunter's Diaries Johnny Reynolds, 2016-03-10 A satirical mirror of leading politicians and the national media to enable them to see their grotesque image Following on from Johnny Reynold s first satirical novel The Big Pipedream Society The Dreamhunter's Diaries is a socio political and quasi economical satirical farce that makes reference to real life situations It focuses on the ludicrousness of the ruling establishment and the state governed media

Written in the spirit of Jon Steward the book was borne out of Johnny s opinion that David Cameron and Ed Milliband are both equally politically irresponsible and too petty minded to be seen as trustworthy statesmen and qualified politicians Johnny also wrote the book in response to his anguish and despair at seeing Britain the country that he has always been deeply committed to in a state of decline He has observed with sorrow the dignified institution of the monarchy reduce itself to a show and tourist curiosity The moral downfall of the institution of church which in my early times was seen as a pillar of ethical standards worth following no longer exists he notes These observations have all been woven into The Dreamhunter s Diaries The book will appeal to those who enjoy reading about important social and political issues and who read and enjoyed Johnny s first book The Big Pipedream Society

Islam and the Politics of Culture in Europe Frank Peter, Sarah Dornhof, Elena Arigita, 2014-03-15 Culture is a constant reference in debates surrounding Islam in Europe Yet the notion of culture is commonly restricted to conceptual frames of multiculturalism where it relates to group identities collective ways of life and recognition This volume extends such analysis of culture by approaching it as semiotic practice which conjoins the making of subjects with the configuration of the social Examining fields such as memory literature film and Islamic art the studies in this volume explore culture as another element in the assemblage of rationalities governing European Islam From this perspective the transformations of European identities can be understood as a matter of cultural practice and politics which extend the analytical frames of political philosophy historical legacies normative orders and social dynamics
