McQuail,2018-02-14 New Zealand author Janet Frame 1924 2004 during her lifetime published 11 novels three collections of short stories a volume of poetry and a children's book The details of her life her tragic early years her confinement in a psychiatric hospital and her miraculous reprieve overshadow her work and she remains largely neglected by scholars These essays focus on Frame's autobiography short stories and novels Contributors from around the world explore a range of topics including her mother's Christadelphian faith her relationships with two 20th century icons William Theophilus Brown and John Money and a view of Frame in the context of trauma studies Two of the essays were presented at the 2014 Northeast Modern Language Association convention THE TESTIMONY OF JOHN: 1907 Biblical Study Notes on the Gospel of John George N.H. Peters,2017-01-01 From cover to cover conception to completion this book is about Jesus It addresses and answers the fundamental question of His identity and mission The book never waivers from this original purpose and structure Who better to inform us of Jesus than John the disciple whom Jesus loved the person to whom Jesus often confided in and to whom He ultimately entrusted with His own future Revelation And who better to expose these truths than Mr George N H Peters gifted Bible teacher and faithful steward of the Word of God throughout his lifetime Composed in the form of study notes the author directs attention away from modern mystical interpretations of this Gospel towards what John intended to accomplish i.e confront the reader with the predicted Messiah

Jesus and in so doing provide reasons to believe and through believing find the very promise of eternal life John calls this work his testimony like a witness pleading before a jury of his peers he lays out a selection of evidence He claims that he could easily have written volumes but these things he wrote so that the reader might believe The beauty of this book lies in the evidence John chooses to put forth the impact of the book slightly over 100 years old stems from the ability of Mr Peters to point out these things and then allow the testimony to speak for itself Over the last century many able men and women have undertaken to expound the Gospel of John The reader will not find a more plainly written account than what Mr Peters penned during the last years of his life

Women and the Material Culture of Death BethFowkes Tobin,2017-07-05 Examining the compelling and often poignant connection between women and the material culture of death this collection focuses on the objects women make the images they keep the practices they use or are responsible for and the places they inhabit and construct through ritual and custom Women s material practices ranging from wearing mourning jewelry to dressing the dead stitching memorial samplers to constructing skull boxes collecting funeral programs to collecting and studying diseased hearts making and collecting taxidermies and making sculptures honoring the death are explored in this collection as well as women s affective responses and sentimental labor that mark their expected and unexpected participation in the social practices surrounding death and the dead The largely invisible work involved in commemorating and constructing narratives and memorials about the dead from family members and friends to national figures calls attention to the role women as memory keepers for families local communities and the nation Women have tended to work collaboratively making collecting and sharing objects that conveyed sentiments about the deceased whether human or animal as well as the identity of mourners Death is about loss and many of the mourning practices that women have traditionally and are currently engaged in are about dealing with private grief and public loss as well as working to mitigate the more general anxiety that death engenders about the impermanence of life
