State Public Enterprise and Economic Development Kamesh Kumar, Priti Kashyap, 1994 The history of public enterprises is not new They have been assigned the role of harbinger of socialism in India in accordance with the Industrial Policy Resolution of 1956 They are treated as the catalysts of economic development and social upliftment of the people For pretty a long time public enterprises have been in dock and dottage on the ground that they have not been able to deliver goods as per our expectations With a huge amount of investment in the central sector and the states sector taken together these enterprises have failed to generate a dependable surplus Public sector is an amalgam of Central and State enterprises In this book we have established that the state s enterprises commitments are no less than central enterprises to fulfil the objectives and expectations with which they were allotted the commanding height in our economy A macro level study of all types of State level public undertakings has been done to judge the efficiency and effectiveness of these enterprises This book is unique in the sense that it covers the syllabus of M A B A Hons and B A Pass courses of all the universities of Bihar and special paper as Public Enterprises in other universities of India In view of its multi dimensional approach the book would be of immense importance to general readers students academicians and researchers Review The book deals with the economics of public enterprises with special reference to Bihar The book is of special importance particularly in the present context of redefining the role of public sector I Satya Sundaram Southern Economist China's State Enterprise Reform John Hassard,Jackie Sheehan,Meixiang Zhou,Jane Terpstra-Tong,Jonathan Morris,2007-06-11 Based on extensive original research this book provides a comprehensive overview of the current status of state enterprise reform in China Chinese State Enterprise Reform considers the relationship between public ownership and public enterprises and the historical evolution of China s economic reform programme since 1978 including assessments of the Contrast Responsibility System which operated from the early 1980s to the early 1990s and the Group Company Experiments which began in the 1990s It discusses the relations between workers managers and the state in post Dengist China the implications of the reform programme for human resources management in state enterprises the nature of labour representation and organization under state capitalism and the problems of surplus labour and reemployment Handbook of Comparative and Development Public Administration Ali Farazmand,2019-02-21 With contributions from nearly 80 international experts this comprehensive resource covers diverse issues aspects and features of public administration and policy around the world It focuses on bureaucracy and bureaucratic politics in developing and industrialized countries and emphasizing administrative performance and policy implementation as well as political system maintenance and regime enhancement The book covers the history of public administration and bureaucracy in Persia Greece Rome and Byzantium and among the Aztecs Incas and Mayas public administration in small island states Eastern Europe and ethics and other contemporary issues in public administration Abstracts; State Appalachian Development Plans and Investment Programs for Fiscal Year Appalachian Regional Commission,1981 Vietnam Foreign Policy and Government Guide IBP USA,2004-05 Political government system government and administrative structure foreign domestic policy international activity and more Updated annually New East Asian Economic Development: The Interaction of Capitalism and Socialism Lily Xiao Hong Lee,2016-09-16 This text documents the economic development of East Asian countries in order to highlight the beneficial techniques used to increase growth Socialist and capitalist structures are discussed complete with an analysis of the future extent of interaction between East Asian countries Vietnam Forestry Development Strategy Trieu, V.H.,Pham, T.T.,Đào Thị, L.C.,2020-12-18 The Vietnam Forestry Development Strategy VFDS is one of the country s most important plans for the forestry sector The strategic directions objectives and solutions within it differ from time to time depending on the political goals and perspectives of the moment as well as the role that the forestry sector plays in Vietnam s overall socio economic development Regardless of such changes inheriting lessons learned developing the next strategy off the back of the experience gained from solving previous challenges and taking advantage of opportunities are always the top priorities of the Government of Vietnam This report is the result of a collaboration between the Center for International Forestry Research CIFOR and the Vietnam Administration of Forestry VNFOREST it is intended to provide VNFOREST with input as they develop the new strategy Based on secondary document research and stakeholder interviews the report reviews achievements and challenges in the implementation of VFDS 2006 2020 as well as provides recommendations for policy makers to consider in the process of developing the new strategy Research results show that by 2020 Vietnam had exceeded a number of the goals set out in VFDS 2006 2020 including i accelerating the growth of production value in the sector ii increasing the export value of wood and forest products iii increasing domestic wood production and iv planting protection forest PTF and special use forests SUF However the forestry sector still faces many challenges when it comes to other key performance indicators such as i increasing the area of production forests PDF with certification of sustainable forest management SFM ii increasing large diameter timber production iii increasing revenue for forest environmental services FES iv securing forest and forest land for the purposes of allocation and leases v reducing the number of poor households in forestry areas and vi increasing the rate at which forestry workers are trained Although some anticipated targets were not achieved others were exceeded for example forest cover reforestation after logging reduction of forest protection violations and scattered tree planting That these goals were achieved or exceeded is the result of strong political commitment policies trend matching the market improvements in central and local management capacity the active support of international donors and the involvement of civil society and the private sector That some targets were not achieved is due to the challenges of implementing policy effectively efficiently and equitably at grassroots level lack of resources and funding and some ambitious goals and targets not being realistic in the current economic political and market contexts Addressing these challenges requires a new approach and more effective economic social and technical solutions Development of VFDS 2021 2030 and the 2050 vision needs to consider the implementation achievements and challenges of the previous policy as well as how to align with global trends and balance these with the current political economic and social development context in Vietnam The direction of the new strategy must also be considered in the context of international requirements to facilitate the mobilization of domestic and foreign financial resources to help modernize the industry as well as enhance the forestry sector's role and value in terms of poverty reduction sustainable economic development and ensuring sustainable forest ecosystems
