Suicide Mass Suicide:

Mass Suicides on Saipan and Tinian, 1944 Alexander Astroth, 2019-03-28 When the Americans invaded the Japanese controlled islands of Saipan and Tinian in 1944 civilians and combatants committed mass suicide to avoid being captured. Though these mass suicides have been mentioned in documentary films they have received scant scholarly attention. This book draws on United States National Archives documents and photographs as well as veteran and survivor testimonies to provide readers with a better understanding of what happened on the two islands and why. The author details the experiences of the people of the islands from prehistoric times to the present with an emphasis on the Japanese, Okinawan, Korean,

Chamorro and Carolinian civilians during invasion and occupation. Responding After Suicide Andrea

Walraven-Thissen, 2019-11-21 This practical guide about what first responders should do after a suicide offers advice on identifying and recording a death as suicide, breaking the bad news, and dealing with the impact of suicide in the short, middle, and long term. Drawing on her own experience as a first responder and trainer, the author provides guidance and tips for best practice when responding to a suicide. These include what can happen to the body in the immediate aftermath, how to talk to the bereaved to limit or prevent secondary trauma, and how to manage suicide in public arenas such as schools. The scenarios covered include detailed scripts of how to deal with difficult situations. There are also sections that tackle complex issues such as religious or cultural customs and unusual cases of suicide which can pose extra challenges. Straightforward and full of sage advice, each chapter includes real world examples from the author's many years working as a first responder which highlight how suicide postvention techniques can be applied. Sacred Suicide Professor Carole M. Cusack, Professor James

R. Lewis, 2014-10-28 The label Suicide Cults has been applied to a wide variety of different alternative religions from Jonestown to the Solar Temple to Heaven's Gate. Additionally, observers have asked if such group suicides are in any way comparable to Islamist suicide terrorism or to historical incidents of mass suicide such as the mass suicide of the ancient community of Masada. Offering a valuable perspective on New Religious Movements and on religion and violence, Sacred Suicide brings together contributions from a diverse range of international scholars of sociology, religious studies, and criminology. The Idea of Suicide Michael J. Kral, 2019-05-21 This book is about a new theory of suicide as cultural mimesis or as an idea that is internalized from culture. Written as part of a new critical focus in suicidology, this volume moves away from the dominant, strictly scientific understanding of suicide as the result of a mental disorder and towards positioning suicide as an anthropologically salient, community-driven phenomenon. Written by a leading researcher in the field, this volume presents a conception of suicide as culturally scripted and it demonstrates how suicide becomes a cultural idiom of distress that for some can become a normative option. THEORIES OF SUICIDE John F. Gunn, David Lester, 2015-06-01

Some researchers in the field of suicidology think that the old theories of suicide are too constraining and impede advances in the understanding of suicide. However, the book's authors are not quite so critical of past theories. In the book, they review the classic theories of suicide both psychological and sociological because they are the foundation of our current theories and also propose the skeletons of possible future theories The goal of the text is to present researchers with theories to guide their research encourage them to modify these theories perhaps meld them together in some cases and think how they might propose new theories Presented in three sections the first reviews significant psychological theories including Suicide as Escape Interpersonal Psychological theory The Role of Defeat and Entrapment in Suicidal Behavior Suicide Ethology and Sociobiology Stress Diatheses Cognitive Theories Learning Perspective on Suicide Theories of Personality and Suicide Typological Theories and the Pathophysiology of Suicide The second section of the text addresses Sociological and Economic Theories including Suicide as Deviance Naroll's Thwarting Disorientation Theory three classic sociological theories as well as several minor theories A comprehensive chapter on economic theories is offered by Bijou Yang The final section concentrates on Critical Thoughts About Theories of Suicide a new and growing influence in academia and scholarship

Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2009-07-15 Death and dying and death related behavior involve the causes of death and the nature of the actions and emotions surrounding death among the living Interest in the varied dimensions of death and dying has led to the development of death studies that move beyond medical research to include behavioral science disciplines and practitioner oriented fields As a result of this interdisciplinary interest the literature in the field has proliferated This two volume resource addresses the traditional death and dying related topics but also presents a unique focus on the human experience to create a new dimension to the study of death and dying With more than 300 entries the Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience includes the complex cultural beliefs and traditions and the institutionalized social rituals that surround dying and death as well as the array of emotional responses relating to bereavement grieving and mourning The Encyclopedia is enriched through important multidisciplinary contributions and perspectives as it arranges organizes defines and clarifies a comprehensive list of death related perspectives concepts and theories Key Features Imparts significant insight into the process of dying and the phenomenon of death Includes contributors from Asia Africa Australia Canada China eastern southern and western Europe Iceland Scandinavia South America and the United States who offer important interdisciplinary and cross cultural perspectives Provides a special focus on the cultural artifacts and social institutions and practices that constitute the human experience Addresses death related terms and concepts such as angel makers equivocal death end of life decision making near death experiences cemeteries ghost photography halo nurses caregiver stress cyberfunerals global religious beliefs and traditions and death denial Presents a selective use of figures tables and images Key Themes Arts Media and Popular Culture Perspectives Causes of Death Conceptualization of Death Dying and the Human Experience Coping With Loss and Grief The Human Experience Cross Cultural Perspectives Cultural Determined Social Oriented and Violent Forms of Death Developmental and Demographic Perspectives Funerals and Death Related Activities Legal Matters Process of Dying Symbolic Rituals

Ceremonies and Celebrations of Life Theories and Concepts Unworldly Entities and Events With an array of topics that include traditional subjects and important emerging ideas the Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience is the ultimate resource for students researchers academics and others interested in this intriguing area of study Politics and Suicide Nicholas Michelsen, 2015-10-08 Politics and Suicide argues that whilst the historical lineage of suicidal politics is recognised the fundamental significance of autodestruction to the political remains under examined It contends that practices like suicide bombing do not simply embody a strange or abnormal suicidal articulation of the political but rather that the existence of suicidal politics tells us something fundamental about the political as such and thinking about political violence more broadly Recent world events have emphatically shown our need for tools with which to develop better understandings of the politics of suicide Through the exploration of several arresting case studies including the Kamikaze bombers of World War Two Jan Palach's self immolation in 1969 Cold War nuclear deterrence and the suicide terrorist attacks of 9 11 Michelsen asks how we might talk of a political suicide in any of these contexts The book charts how political processes go suicidal and asks how we might still consider them to be political in such a case It investigates how suicide can function as politics A strong contribution to the fields of philosophy and international relations theory this work will also be of interest to students and scholars of political theory and terrorism political violence Sacred Suicide Carole M. Cusack, 2016-04-08 The label Suicide Cults has been applied to a wide variety of different alternative religions from Jonestown to the Solar Temple to Heaven's Gate Additionally observers have asked if such group suicides are in any way comparable to Islamist suicide terrorism or to historical incidents of mass suicide such as the mass suicide of the ancient community of Masada Organizationally and ideologically diverse it turns out that the primary shared trait of these various groups is a common stereotype of religion as an irrational force that pushes fanatics to undertake acts of suicidal violence Offering a valuable perspective on New Religious Movements and on religion and violence Sacred Suicide brings together contributions from a diverse range of international scholars of sociology religious studies and criminology Adolescent Suicide Group for the Advancement of Psychiatry. Committee on Adolescence, 1996 Even the most skilled therapist may underestimate suicide potential Careful assessment and competent psychiatric intervention cannot always predict the suicidality of a particular person Adolescent Suicide GAP Report 140 presents techniques that allow psychiatrists and all those caring for the health and welfare of adolescents to respond to signals of distress with timely therapeutic intervention It also suggests measures of anticipatory prevention Adolescent Suicide presents an overview of adolescent suicidal behavior It explores risk factors the identification and evaluation of the suicidal adolescent and approaches to therapy It offers both historical and cross cultural perspectives the relevance of suicide to adolescent development mental health training needs regarding suicidality and related issues such as public health policies and medicolegal concerns The risk of suicide presents a unique crisis in adolescent development For this reason all mental health professionals will find this report an indispensable tool in the treatment of adolescents at risk for suicide Drawing from years of combined experience this committee has applied its expertise on adolescent development to the sobering problem of suicide HANDBOOK OF SUICIDE PREVENTION Dr. Sheikh Shoib MD,2020-10-21 Suicide is a serious preventable public health problem in many countries and has always been a source of apprehension and quest to human mankind Suicide is hidden and silent epidemic has many causative factors studying various causative factors has always been the subject of significance for many researchers Psychiatric illnesses are the primary risk processes that underlie the vast majority of suicide mortality and morbidity Apart from increase in mental disorders there has been increase in suicide and suicidal attempters Globally an estimated 700 000 people will take their own lives annually Number of suicidal attempts has increased more than 250% over the last 18 years especially in conflict prone area Poisoning hanging and self immolation are the common methods to commit suicide Physical and mental illness disturbed emotional relationships and economic difficulties were the major reasons for suicide and the predisposed population are women students and farmers The WHO estimates that one suicide occurs approximately every minute and an attempt at the suicide is made every 3rd second thus a number of people killed by suicide is more than the armed conflict In all over the world committing suicide is a significant origin of cause to death Neurological and Mental Disorders Kaneez Fatima Shad,Kamil Hakan Dogan,2020-09-23 Mental disorders can result from disruption of neuronal circuitry damage to the neuronal and non neuronal cells altered circuitry in the different regions of the brain and any changes in the permeability of the blood brain barrier Early identification of these impairments through investigative means could help to improve the outcome for many brain and behaviour disease states The chapters in this book describe how these abnormalities can lead to neurological and mental diseases such as ADHD Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder anxiety disorders Alzheimer s disease and personality and eating disorders Psycho social traumas especially during childhood increase the incidence of amnesia and transient global amnesia leading to the temporary inability to create new memories Early detection of these disorders could benefit many complex diseases such as schizophrenia and depression Suicidology Ronald W. Maris,2019-03-04 Integrating research from multiple disciplines this text provides a comprehensive perspective on suicide and examines what works in prevention and intervention The author is a pioneering researcher and clinician who addresses the classification prevalence and assessment of suicide and self destructive behaviors and explores risk factors at multiple levels from demographic variables personality traits psychiatric diagnoses and neurobiological factors to the social and cultural context Student friendly features include text boxes that dive deeply into specific issues instructive figures and tables thought provoking clinical cases and engaging examples from literature and popular culture The text reviews medical and psychosocial treatment and prevention approaches discusses ways to help those bereaved by suicide and considers issues of professional liability Salvation and Suicide David Chidester,2003-10-16 Praise for the first edition This ambitious and courageous book is a benchmark of theology by which questions about the meaningful history of the Peoples
