Strickland W. Gillilan,2015-07-19 Excerpt from Sunshine and Awkwardness I have been giving a lecture entitled Sunshine and Awkwardness for a whole lot of years It started by my being called on to recite Finnigin to Flannigan when I first wrote that thing in the early spring of 1897 I felt so keenly my extreme gawkiness that I apologized for getting up People laughed at my apology and I who had never heard of a monologue in my whole life found that I was doing one I let it lengthen Then my sensitive soul got busy and balked I wanted to make people laugh with me and I hated to be laughed at I wanted to be taken seriously whenever I qualifiedly pleased I wondered what to do About that time I saw and heard Bob Burdette I said to myself I can do what I want to About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
