State Contracts:

Cases and Materials on Government Contracts United States. Department of the Army, 1962 State Responsibility for Breaches of Investment Contracts Jean Ho, 2018-10-25 There is a wealth of material that shapes the law of State responsibility for breaches of investment contracts First impressions of an unsettled or uncertain law have thus far gone unchallenged But unchallenged first impressions point to the need for a detailed study that investigates and analyses the sources the content the characteristics and the evolution of this law The argument at the heart of this monograph is that the law of state responsibility for breaches of investment contracts has carved a unique and distinct trajectory from the traditional route for the creation of international law developing principally from arbitral awards and mimicking to a considerable extent the general international law on the protection of aliens and alien property This book unveils the remarkable journey of the law of state responsibility for breaches of investment contracts from its origins to its formation to its arrival at the cusp of maturity The Fiction of 'State Contract' in the Energy Industry Darya Shirokova, 2025-09-23 International Arbitration Law Library Contracts designed expressly to accommodate foreign energy investment and protect companies rights underlie most investor State arbitrations when disputes over energy exploration facilities or distribution arise But do the parties really use such state contracts as a protection tool This book analyses whether signing of a state contract can be deemed the safest and most predictable way for a private party to protect its interests vis vis a host state in the energy field The author shows that because the actual level of protection is ultimately measured by how the contract is interpreted and by the outcome of a dispute the state contract concept has become obsolete Drawing on recent historical and contemporary sources primarily an empirical analysis of 501 energy contracts concluded between 1990 and 2020 between States and private parties the book approaches the topic in the following sequence the notion of state contract and its theoretical background the frequency of use of the concept in energy contracts and the circumstances under which these contracts tend to be concluded and the interpretation of the concept by arbitrators trained in different legal traditions and applying different laws The contracts are examined via their regional economic and political characteristics revealing notably distinctive interpretations among the Middle East and North Africa MENA region the Latin American States and the countries of the former Soviet Union as well as according to each private party s characteristics and the legal tradition relied upon in the arbitrations that ensue Despite today s much desired energy transition there is little doubt that the continuing use of conventional energy sources in the mid term future means that energy companies will keep looking for new oil and gas deposits For this reason this systematic and informative study will serve as a practical guide for energy contract drafters in house counsel arbitrators government officials and other professionals concerned with energy related disputes arising between states and private parties Conditions of Government Contracts United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary, 1935 Recommendations for Usage, Commercial Contracts, and Cost

Recovery in Government Contracts Gregory K. Tharp, 2021-04-30 This book will be of interest to those in the field of contract management in the United States government the private sector and internationally This book is relevant to scholars and academics as well as both American and international policymakers those working in the field of contract management and those seeking to join the field of contract management It will be useful for people interested in contracting with the United States government and in designing and implementing acquisitions and or contract management policy both in the United States of America and internationally Lastly it will be useful for people in a wide variety of industries countries and regions internationally and in the United States of America already contracting with the United States government or interested in contracting with the United States government in understanding how to terminate commercial contracts for convenience using United States of America procurement regulations Review of Finality Clauses in Government Contracts United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary, United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee No. 1, 1954 The Definitive Guide to Government Contracts Malcolm Parvey, Deborah Alston, 2010-01-01 The U S government is the biggest customer in the world How can your small business get a piece of the pie The Definitive Guide to Government Contracts begins at the beginning and assumes no prior knowledge of the government marketplace Written in a clear easy to understand language by experienced sales and marketing professionals it takes you through every step of the process finding the opportunities understanding the requirements registering your company and submitting your bid shipping packaging and invoicing requirements The same step by step approach is used to explain the increasingly popular GSA contract from researching the schedules preparing the paperwork and submitting your proposal to the all important marketing that is required once the contract has been awarded Thinking about selling to the federal government but don't know where to begin The Definitive Guide to Government Contracts is all the help you need Public Private Partnership Contracts Mohamed Ismail, 2020-03-18 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the law surrounding PPPs in the Middle East and North African region The significance of liberalised and integrated Public Private Partnership Contracts as an essential component of the world legal and policy order is well documented The regulation of PPPs is justified economically to allow for competition in the relevant public service and to achieve price transparency thus resulting in significant savings for the public sector In parallel to the economic justifications legal imperatives have also called for the regulation of PPPs in order to allow free movement of goods and services and to prohibit discrimination on grounds of nationality The need for competitiveness and transparency in delivering public services through PPPs is considered a safeguard to achieve international standards in delivering public utility services First it assesses the compatibility of the current PPPs legislation and regulation in the MENA region with the international standards of legislation and regulation prevalent in many other countries including the UK France and Brazil Secondly it compares the practices in the MENA region with those of international bodies such as the OECD and World Bank Comparisons are then made between the MENA countries and those in Europe and Asia with regard to the influence of culture policy and legal globalization The book will be of interest to scholars and students in the field of international contract law public law and state contracts finance law and private law The Impact of Investment Treaties on Contracts between Host States and Foreign Investors Jan Ole Voss, 2010-12-10 Foreign investments are usually implemented through contracts between host States and foreign investors These contracts and international investment treaties represent two different legal instruments that protect foreign direct investment The co existence of both instruments under international investment law has generated fundamental problems By scrutinizing and tracing the increasingly divided jurisprudence on central aspects of treaty interpretation and analyzing the conflicting legal concepts applied by arbitral tribunals this book represents a comprehensive examination of the complex relationship between the two in the field of investment treaty arbitration Establish Uniform Requirements for Government Contracts. Hearing ... on H.R. 255 United States. U.S. Congress. House. Committee on judiciary, 1932
