

4 And as he was considering with himself about his journey, the morning came upon him.

5 In the length of the journey the gifts of the visible broke.

6 And now he drew near to a great city, in which there was an idol, to which the other idols and gods of Egypt brought their offerings and vows.

7 And there was by this idol a priest ministering to it, who, as often as Satan spoke out of that idol, related the things he said to the inhabitants of Egypt, and those countries.

8 This priest had a son three years old, who was possessed with a great multitude of devils, who uttered many strange things, and when the devils seized him, walked about naked with his clothes torn, throwing stones at those whom he saw.

9 Near to that idol was the inn of the city, into which when Joseph and St. Mary were come, and had turned into that inn, all the inhabitants of the city were astonished.

10 And all the magistrates and priests of the idols assembled before that idol, and made inquiry there, saying, What means all this commotion, and devil, which has fallen upon all our country?

11 The idol answered them, The unknown God is come hither, who is truly God, not in them any one besides him, who is worthy of divine worship, for he is truly the Son of God.

12 At the name of him this country trembled, and at his coming it is under the present commotion and consternation, and we ourselves are afflicted by the greatness of his power.

13 And at the same instant this idol fell down, and at his fall all the inhabitants of Egypt, besides others, ran together.

14 But the son of the priest, when his usual diseases came upon him, going into the inn, found there Joseph and St. Mary, whom all the rest had left behind and forsaken.

15 And when the Lady St. Mary had washed the swaddling clothes of the Lord Christ, and hanged them out to dry upon a post, the boy possessed with the devil took down one of them, and put it upon his head.

16 And presently the devils began to come out of his mouth, and fly away in the shape of crows and serpents.

17 From that time this boy was healed by the power of the Lord Christ, and he began to sing praises, and give thanks to the Lord who had healed him.

18 When his father saw him restored to his former state of health, he said, My son, what has happened to thee, and by what means wast thou cured?

19 The son answered, When the devils seized me, I went into the inn, and there found a very handsome woman with a boy, whose swaddling clothes she had just before washed, and hanged out upon a post.

20 One of these I took, and put it upon my head, and immediately the devils left me, and fled away.

21 At this the father exceedingly rejoiced, and said, My son, perhaps this boy is the son of the living God, who made the heavens and the earth.

22 For as soon as he came amongst us, the idol was broken, and all the gods fell down, and were destroyed by a greater power.

23 There was fulfilled the prophecy which saith, Out of Egypt I have called my son.

CHAPTER 9

1 Now Joseph and Mary, when they heard that the idol was fallen down and destroyed, were set on with fear and trembling, and said, When we were in the land of Israel, Herod, intending to kill Jesus, slew for that purpose all the infants at Bethlehem, and the neighbourhood.

2 And there is no doubt but the Egyptians if they come to hear that this idol is broken and fallen down, will burn us with fire.

3 They went therefore hither to the secret places of soldiers, who rubbed themselves as they pass by, of their cloaks and their clothes, and carried them away bound.

4 These thieves upon their coming found a great noise, such as the noise of a king with a great army and many horses, and the trumpet sounding at his entrance from his own city, at which they were so affrighted as to leave all their booty behind them, and fly away in haste.

5 Upon this the prisoners arose, and bound each other's hands, and taking each man his bags, they went away, and saw Joseph and Mary coming to meet them, and inquired, Where is that king, the noise of whose approach the soldiers heard, and left us, so that we are now come off safe?

6 Joseph answered, He will come after us.

CHAPTER 10

1 Then they went into another where there was a woman possessed with a devil, and in whom Satan, that cruel rebel, had taken up his abode.

2 One night, when she went to fetch water, she could neither make her clothes on, nor to be in any house, but as often as they had her with chains or cords, she broke them, and went out into desert places, and sometimes standing where roads crossed, and in churches, would throw stones at men.

3 When St. Mary saw this woman, she joined her, whereupon Satan presently left her, and fled away in the form of a young man, saying, We be men, because of thee, Mary, and thy son.

4 So the woman was delivered from her torment, but considering herself naked, she blushed, and avoided seeing any man, and having put on her clothes, went home, and gave an account of her case to her father and relations, who, as they were the best of the city, esteemed St. Mary and Joseph with the greatest respect.

5 The next morning having received a sufficient supply of provisions for the road, they went from thence, and about the evening of the day arrived at another town, where a marriage was then about to be solemnized; but by the arts of Satan and the practices of some sinners, the bride was become so dumb, that she could not so much as open her mouth.

6 But when this dumb bride saw the Lady St. Mary entering into the town, and carrying the Lord Christ in her arms, she stretched out her hands to the Lord Christ, and took him in her arms, and closely hugging him, very often kissed him, continually moving him and pressing him to her body.

7 Straightway the string of her tongue was loosed, and her eyes were opened, and she began to sing praises unto God, who had restored her.

8 So there was great joy among the inhabitants of the town that night, who thought that God and his angels were come down among them.

9 In this place they abode three days, meeting with the greatest respect and most splendid entertainment.

10 And being thus furnished by the people with provisions for the road, they departed and went to another city, in which they were lodged in lodges, because it was a famous place.

11 There was in this city a gentleman, who, as she went down one day to the river to bathe, beheld cursed Satan leaped upon her in the form of a serpent.

12 And bit her himself about her belly, and every night lay upon her.

13 This woman seeing the Lady St. Mary, and the Lord Christ the infant in her arms, asked the Lady St. Mary, that she would give her the child to kiss, and carry in her arms.

14 When she had consented, and as soon as the woman had moved the child, Satan left her, and fled away, nor did the woman ever afterwards see him.

15 Whereupon all the neighbours praised the Supreme God, and the woman rewarded them with ample beneficence.

16 On the morning the same woman brought perfumed water to wash the Lord Jesus, and when she had washed him, she preserved the water.
