a collection of new perspectives on Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart a novel that was first published in 1958 and which has since become a classic of world literature. Aside from opening up the novel to new interpretive strategies of well established literary critics and clarifying some past ones, this collection of essays repositions Things Fall Apart as a literary piece with interdisciplinary and multidimensional appeal. The volume fulfills the objective of using the novel to interrogate the colonial and pre colonial African past with Nigeria's post modern present and projects the country into a future that looks to literature for a deeper understanding of where Nigeria is as a citizen of an emerging global village. Innovation and Transformation in International Studies Stephen Gill, James H. Mittelman, 1997-05-15. This book explores the nature of and conditions for theoretical innovation in international studies.

Poverty and Exclusion in a Global World A.S. Bhalla, Frédéric Lapeyre, 2016-07-27. In Western Europe the notion of social exclusion is rapidly diffusing in recent years. This book investigates the notion of social exclusion as a new way to approach social issues such as the new poverty, long term unemployment, precariousness, social polarization and disintegration. Particular attention is paid to both the global relevance of an approach in terms of social exclusion and its value compared to more conventional approaches in terms of poverty or deprivation. It is shown that social exclusion goes beyond these by explicitly embracing the relational as well as the distributional aspects of poverty and emphasizing processes. In this book the authors explore the specific forms of social exclusion in the ongoing processes of globalization, deregulation, crisis of the welfare state and rise of individualism.
