Statistical Models for Strategic Management Michel Ghertman, Jacques Obadia, Jean-Luc Arregle, 2013-03-14

Statistical Models for Strategic Management offers practical guidance in the use of statistical models for empirical research in strategic management. The contributions in this edited volume come from distinguished researchers in the field of Strategic Management and provide illustration of most statistical models that are relevant for strategy research. The book is divided into four major topical areas: Strategic Analysis and Firm Strategies, The Resource Based View of the Firm, Transaction Costs Agency Theory and the Boundaries of the Firm, and Corporate Alliances, Acquisitions and Networks.

Research Methods for Strategic Management Giovanni Battista Dagnino, Maria Cristina Cinici, 2015-10-16. The field of strategic management has developed significantly since its birth from business policy and business planning in the 1960s. Pioneering studies were essentially normative, prescriptive, and often based on in-depth case studies. The evolution of strategic management into a respected field of academic study resulted from the adoption of research methods previously employed in economics. Today, research in strategic management is likely to employ a mixture of methods borrowed from related and unrelated disciplines such as political sciences, psychology, neuroscience, and behavioral economics, which can be confusing to researchers new to the field. This book provides the reader with a broad introduction to the array of qualitative and quantitative research methods required to investigate strategic management. Throughout the book, strong emphasis is placed on practical applications that transcend the mere analysis of the theoretical roots of single research methods. The underlying result is a book that encourages and aids readers to learn by doing in applying the implications of each chapter to their own research. This text is vital reading for postgraduate students and researchers focused on business strategy.

Strategic Management in Islamic Finance Alexander Pock, 2007-12-05. Alexander von Pock develops a holistic conceptual framework for identifying and testing key success factors of Islamic financial institutions. The framework integrates insights into the current practices of Islamic finance, a variety of theories, namely the market-based view, the resource-based view, and to some extent New Institutional Economics approaches, as well as previous research from the fields of strategic management and economics. The author is testing the theoretical framework empirically in a survey of 36 major Islamic financial institutions based in the Gulf Cooperation Council area and in Malaysia.
