Mirror Poetry, Politics and Promises of Empire Christof Ginzl, 2009-04-29. This interdisciplinary study examines the poetic and political representation of the Palatine Marriage in London in 1613 by analysing the vast number of English and Neo-Latin festive nuptial poetry and prose written on the occasion of the marriage of Count Palatine Frederick V 1596-1632 and Princess Elizabeth Stuart 1596-1662, stylised and represented as heroes and paragon figures of Protestant Europe. Taking a literary and cultural studies approach, the study explores courtly representational modes used to convey the propagandist and prophetic messages of the marriage, suggesting that the nuptial union follows a heavenly plan and fulfils the hopes of the formation of a pan-Protestant empire and a future bulwark against the imminent threats of Catholic Habsburg. In this respect, the study aims to provide an alternative
