Holland,2014-10-07 In her heartwarming New York Times bestsellers Unlikely Friendships and last year s Unlikely Loves Jennifer Holland revealed the surprising emotional bonds that exist between animals of different species Her books spent dozens of weeks on bestseller lists and caught the attention of major media from CBS This Morning to USA Today Why Because she opened our eyes to the rich inner lives of animals showing us that the power of love and friendship is not for humans only In Unlikely Heroes Ms Holland uncovers and celebrates yet another side of animals that we often think belongs primarily to people heroism that indefinable quality of going above and beyond often for altruistic reasons often at great personal risk These 37 inspiring true tales show animals whose quick acts have saved lives like the pod of dolphins who protected swimmers in New Zealand from a great white shark by forming a screen around them There are stories of animals who simply and unselfishly give like Rojo the llama who shines his very special light of lovingkindness on the elderly patients in an Oregon rehab center And there are compelling stories of heroic resilience like Naki o the abandoned puppy who lost all four paws to frostbite but found the grit not only to overcome that terrible hardship but to reclaim the joy of life that s him smiling on the cover of the book The American Hereford Record and Hereford Herd Book American Hereford Cattle

Breeders' Association,1918 Making National Heroes Jacqueline Zhenru Lin,2024-01-02 Making National Heroes is an ethnography of the making of national heroes in the commemoration of the Second World War in contemporary China Foregrounding the lived experience of men and women who participate in commemorative activities it theorises how masculinity and nationalism entangle in recollecting war memories Taking the feminist line of inquiry this anthropological study develops an approach to capture the centrality of making exemplars in the realisation of hegemonic masculinities It adds a gender perspective to studies on exemplarist moral theory and theorises exemplary men s cross cultural significance in defining masculinities Researchers in the fields of critical masculinity studies anthropology feminist methodology China studies and memory studies will be interested in this book I highly recommend this book about the grassroots redress movement that seeks to make national heroes of the largely forgotten KMT soldiers from pre 1949 times By way of exploring this intriguing topic Jacqueline Zhenru Lin gives a fascinating account of how nationalism and gender interact to produce exemplary masculinities in present day China Kam Louie University of Hong Kong Firmly grounded in anthropology but with historical and digital analyses woven throughout the author eloquently opens new avenues for reflection in Chinese masculinities research This important contribution draws new attention to links between masculinity nation and memory in a media saturated world Jamie Coates University of Sheffield

The American Hereford Record and Hereford Herd Book American Hereford Cattle Breeders' Association,1922 Brief history of Hereford cattle v 1 p 359 375 African Women Writing Diaspora Rose A. Sackeyfio,2021-04-26 African Women Writing Diaspora Transnational Perspectives in the Twenty First Century examines contemporary fiction by African women authors to resonate diaspora perspectives on what it means to be African within transnational spaces Through a critical lens the collection interrogates the ways in which women construct new ways of telling the African story in the global age of social economic and political transformation African Women Writing Diaspora illustrates that for African women life in the diaspora is an uncharted journey across new landscapes of identity beyond Africa s borders as a unifying theme The fictional works analyzed represent the leading women writers who dominate the African literary canon and the contributors explore diverse themes of immigrant life racialized identities and otherness within transnational spaces of the west

Proust and Emotion Inge Crosman Wimmers,2003-01-01 In Proust and Emotion Inge Crosman Wimmers proposes a new approach to A la recherche du temps perdu that centres on the role of affect Through close reading of the hero narrator s personal history the author shows how emotional paradigms especially separation anxiety involuntary memory and other compelling impressions give focus and structure to Proust s novel Drawing on reader oriented and emotion theories she shows how affect commands the attention of the motivated reader and is crucial to the process of self understanding for both the narrator and the reader This is the first extensive study in English to take fully into consideration the drafts esquisses published in the new Pl iade edition of the novel the Mauriac edition of Albertine disparue and material from the unpublished Proust manuscripts all of which shed further light on the importance of affect in A la recherche Proust and Emotion will appeal to readers interested in an approach to Proust that combines insights from philosophy psychology and literary aesthetics and in a poetics of reading that pays particular attention to emotion
