Sketches in Lavender, Blue and Green Jerome Klapka Jerome, 1897 The fault that most people will find with this story is that it is unconvincing Its scheme is improbable its atmosphere artificial To confess that the thing really happened not as I am about to set it down for the pen of the professional writer cannot but adorn and embroider even to the detriment of his material is I am well aware only an aggravation of my offence for the facts of life are the impossibilities of fiction

Jerome K. Jerome,2015-03-04 The affair of course had been a marriage of convenience Blake to do him justice had made no pretence to anything beyond admiration and regard Few things grow monotonous sooner than irregularity He would tickle his jaded palate with respectability and try for a change the companionship of a good woman The girl s face drew him as the moonlight holds a man who bored by the noise turns from a heated room to press his forehead to the window pane Accustomed to bid for what he wanted he offered his price The Eppington family was poor and numerous The girl bred up to the false notions of duty inculcated by a narrow conventionality and feminine like half in love with martyrdom for its own sake let her father bargain for a higher price and then sold herself Sketches in Lavender Blue and Green Jerome K.
