

Social Connections

As a parent, you need social connections – friends, family, and community -- who care about you and your children and offer support you when you need it and for you to give support when they are in need.

This means:

- Building relationships with other parents in your child's school and/or child care program, neighbors, co-workers, and other places that offer connectivity.
- Focusing on relationships where you feel valued, respected, appreciated, and wanted.
- Honing your relationship skills by reaching out to others, working on resolving conflicts respectfully and positively, being a good listener, and offering support to others.

Try these tips:

- Join community groups that share similar interests: walking, dancing, crafting, etc.
- Schedule playdates and meetups to engage with other parents.
- Reconnect with old friends. Give them a call, email them, connect with them on social media.
- Attend scheduled school and class functions. Sign up to help in your child's classroom, be a class parent, volunteer with the PTA, shelve books in the library, etc.
