Some Place Like Home Using Design Psychology To Create Ideal Places:

Some Place Like Home Toby Israel, 2003-12-19 Introduces the field of design psychology with interviews with Michael Graves, Andres Duany and Charles Jencks to examine how places from the past contain seeds of future choices for home locations, dwellings and interior design Prepare to Defend Yourself . . . How to Age Gracefully and Escape with Your Dignity Matthew Minson, 2016-04-15 The author of Prepare to Defend Yourself: How to Navigate the Healthcare System and Escape with Your Life is back. This time Matthew Minson MD turns a penetrating and whimsical eye on the medical and social aspects of aging in Prepare to Defend Yourself: How to Age Gracefully and Escape with Your Dignity. While seeming to simultaneously channel a combination of Benjamin Franklin and Charles Schulz, Dr. Minson goes after bodily changes, behaviors good and bad, and what everyone can do to make life more bearable and dare we say it fun after fifty. Laced with his unique style of poignancy and humor and peppered with his own surrealistically funny cartoons, the book bravely takes on health, finances, sex, diet, exercise, death, the law, and what you can do to protect what matters most as you age. It's life, liberty, and the pursuit of a chuckle in this groundbreaking book that just might make you look forward to your golden years. For anyone of any age who plans on aging with their dignity intact, this is the book for you. Introduction to Design Psychology Eleni Kalantidou, 2025-01-09 In the age of climate change, psychology and design have been employed through impromptu collaborations to validate solutions and future scenarios. Introduction to Design Psychology contests this approach by proposing an ideological framework for an intentional joint endeavour between psychology and design. Intentional design psychology is presented as a critical proposal grounded in unpredictability, nominating ways to activate new production, consumption, and habitation patterns. It unfolds through chapters exploring urban environments, technology, and consumer culture, making evident the need for new definitions of social resilience and adaptation. As part of this process, adaptive designs that enable resilient psychologies are revealed. By challenging the disciplinary status quo of psychology and design, this book aims to activate a new field of knowledge. Introduction to Design Psychology is essential for psychologists, designers, and urban planners, as well as professionals from affiliated fields willing to reconfigure their own thinking and practice.

The Happy Design Toolkit Ben Channon, 2022-02-28 If you were to design a building that prioritises occupants' happiness, what would it look like? How would the materials, form, and layout support healthy ways of living and working? Delving into the evidenced-based research on architecture and mental wellbeing, The Happy Design Toolkit helps you to create happier places. It explores how factors such as lighting, comfort, control over our environments, and access to nature, exercise, and social interaction can impact how we feel. Easy to understand, tips include bringing nature into your developments with roof gardens and living facades, and countering social isolation with communal areas that encourage chance interaction. Each of the featured architectural interventions includes an analysis of the wellbeing benefits, as well as the potential limitations or associated challenges. From sparking joy in individual homes and workplaces to encouraging healthier lifestyles through landscaping and urban design this book demonstrates how wellbeing concepts can be integrated across a range of scales and typologies Packed with inspiration and advice The Happy Design Toolkit will breathe new life into your projects and help you create a happier and more inclusive built environment for everyone Features real world examples including Marmalade Lane co housing by Mole Architects Francis Holland School by BDP Maggie s Centre Oldham by dRMM Architects Kings Crescent Estate by Karakusevic Carson Architects and Happy Street by Yinka Ilori Over 100 hand drawn illustrations of design details and elevations Essential reading for architects interior designers landscape architects and students
