Supporting Citizens Initiatives Bangladeshs Ngos And Society:

Supporting Citizens' Initiatives Richard Holloway, 1998 Comprises a collection of articles which examine the role currently played by non governmental organizations in Bangladesh

Civil Society in Bangladesh Farhat Tasnim, 2021-02-13 This book is the first of its kind to offer an understanding analysis and prediction of the state of civil society in Bangladesh in relation to development and democracy It is a research attempt to reveal the paradox found in developing countries like Bangladesh where there are numerous and active civil society organizations CSOs that have had almost no influence in consolidating democracy This book however also qualifies the normative assumption on the positive relationship between civil society and democracy asserted by the mainstream neo Tocquevillean School that has a profound influence on donor policies Readers are introduced to civil society in Bangladesh from a broad perspective Rather than confining the analysis to NGOs chapters explore the origin nature and function of both modern and conventional CSOs which helps to provide a more authentic understanding of the genuine state of civil society in relation to other actors in the political system Combining survey data analyses and empirical observations with carefully chosen case studies the book reveals that CSOs participate very actively in social services This research also reveals that these highly active CSOs in the field of social development lack the necessary attributes for ensuring participation proper interest articulation and monitoring of the state Through systematic analysis the book shows that political structures and for Bangladesh particularly political parties along with vertical social relationships such as clientelism patronage nepotism and corruption have contributed to a non vigilant civil society in Bangladesh although it often is spoken of in different terms This book is highly recommended for researchers students and development practitioners interested in South Asia as well as in understanding the potentials and limitations of civil society in relation to development and democracy Farhat Tasnim s book is a comprehensive treatment of civil society in Bangladesh It will serve as a useful resource for future researchers in this field for a long time to come Harry Blair Yale University USA Farhat Tasnim provides in this book a new perspective on one of the essential cases of civil society study Bangladesh Her penetrating analysis of the relationship of civil society organizations and democracy in Bangladesh should attract a wide readership This is an important book not only for students of Bangladesh but for scholars and practitioners interested in the relationship of civil society organizations and democracy Robert J Pekkanen University of Washington USA

Supporting Citizen's Initiatives Richard Holloway, 1998 This book explains the role currently played by non governmental organizations NGOs in Bangladesh and contains lessons for all those concerned with understanding the relationship between state and civil society organizations throughout the developing world

Civil Society in Asia Dr Fahimul Quadir, Professor Yutaka Tsujinaka, 2015-07-28 Notwithstanding Bangladesh s recent success in both creating a market friendly structure of economic governance and holding periodic elections its political system continues to be marked by clientelism rampant corruption and widespread violence The country faces the major challenges of fostering a culture of democracy human rights and the rule of law as the politics of mutual distrust have re emerged with renewed strength into a dysfunctional political landscape This volume examines the failure of liberal democracy to take root and asks despite the presence of a vibrant civil society why is Bangladesh still struggling to institutionalize democracy Providing much needed analytical context to explore the theoretical and empirical dimensions of the role of civil society in the democracy and development of Bangladesh the volume brings together well established international authors to explore key ideas and debates from a wide range of disciplines Through this the contributors raise intriguing questions about the prospects for liberal democracy and social development in a Muslim majority country The

State and NGOs Shinichi Shigetomi,2002 This volume examines the state NGO relationships in fifteen Asian countries

State & NGOs Shinichi Shigetomi,2003-08-01 There is already much literature on the significance of NGOs in the development process However there has been little discussion on why the NGOs take on different forms in different countries This volume examines the state NGO relationships in fifteen countries It is not however a pot pourri of country reports All the contributors use the same analytical framework and focus on the key concept of e economic and political spacee for NGOs Readers will find that the analysis of the various NGO forms is well synthesized in this volume Historical Dictionary of Bangladesh Syedur Rahman,2010-04-27 Bangladesh literally the land of the Bengalis is the most recent addition in 1971 to the independent nations of South Asia It had previously been known as East Pakistan and prior to that it was part of British India It has been inhabited by people of different races and religions and ruled over by different leaders who imposed different regimes It is overpopulated and underdeveloped but there is much more to it than that Bangladesh has a long and oftentimes proud tradition it has produced writers and artists of genius and it is an important outpost of Islam And with a population of some 130 million it is one of the larger countries in the world The fourth edition of the Historical Dictionary of Bangladesh greatly expands on the previous edition through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and over 700 cross referenced dictionary entries on important people places events and institutions as well as significant political economic social and cultural aspects Civil Society in Asia Wayne Hudson,2024-11-01 In East and Southeast Asia the creation of civil society is a crucial yet most difficult issue Europeans have had the luxury of centuries in a slow moving world characterised by weak governments in which the foundation institutions norms and values of civil society could ferment and develop Asia however faces this task when a nation s currency can devalue in seconds destabilising its government and when states have far more effective means of surveillance suppression and terror This book examines these issues and shows that a better understanding of civil society in the Asian context is central to promoting contemporary political social and economic reform in Asia It will appeal to students and teachers of politics law and sociology because it provides new perspectives on how to understand civil society drawing on Asian examples as well as indications for rethinking what civil society means in Asia Individual chapters combine theoretical and empirical issues in a way which fills a major gap in the literature

Henceforth works about civil society will need to take more account of the Asian evidence and Asianists will need to have a clear idea of what civil society in Asia means

Civil Society by Design Kendall Stiles, 2002-06-30 Drawing on years of research and direct experience in Bangladesh Stiles pulls together theoretical strands from economics sociology and anthropology to help explain an emerging social structure in the Third World These structures which he calls intermestic development circles bring together international donor agencies with various domestic community and private organizations In Bangladesh not for profit agencies are dramatically transforming their operation and organizational cultures while in turn Western NGOs are themselves changing in subtle ways Scholars of development will find Stiles s intriguing account of the reciprocating effects of extensive interaction cooperation and tensions between international donors and domestic recipients informative and provocative Moving through three discernable phases each one explainable by resort to different theories these development circles grow from mere trading arrangements to a coherent social structure separate from the rest of civil society in Bangladesh While in the process of the not for profits receiving assistance become wealthier and more effective they lose much of their local identity and become part of a transnational network At the same time donors must recast themselves in order to work effectively with these agencies which often creates tension between local and home offices The book closes with some recommendations that might attenuate some of the more troubling effects of this transformation

Social Thoughts and Their Implications Kazi Abdur Rouf, 2018-12-18 The book contains social economy and green economy development different concepts theories ideas community development different thoughts citizenry skills development concepts poverty eradication and good governance approaches local living economics propositions and their implications in Bangladesh and in Canada with examples It narrates different concepts theories and approaches to green management development practices for sustainable business development The book has its roots analysing social development different thoughts and services to identify gaps and to solve environmental degradation problems employment generation poverty reduction and to identify sustainable bottom up social development approaches The discussions of the book explore the process of empowerment of gender development good governance and raising community solidarity capital development among disadvantaged people in Bangladesh and Canada Civil society agencies have been working for people s citizenship development local resource development ecological development women empowerment and community organizing thrive to civic education and develop networking among villagers since Bangladesh independence 1972 By reading this book readers can find latest information on social economic and green development different schemes and services initiated by NGOs and their implementing strategies and outcomes in Bangladesh and in Canada that are narrated in the book The book writes in a debate form in order to analyse social development different thoughts with examples to explore appropriate initiatives need to be taken for improving disadvantage people livelihoods in Bangladesh and Canada

Bangladesh David Lewis, 2011-12-07 Since its hard won independence from Pakistan Bangladesh has been ravaged by economic and environmental disasters Only recently has the country begun to emerge as a fragile but functioning parliamentary democracy The story of Bangladesh told through the pages of this concise and readable book is a truly remarkable one By delving into its past and through an analysis of the economic political and social changes that have taken place over the last twenty years the book explains how Bangladesh is becoming of increasing interest to the international community as a portal into some of the key issues of our age In this way the book offers an important corrective to the view of Bangladesh as a failed state Community Radio Policies in South Asia Preeti Raghunath,2020-08-07 The book draws on critical media policy studies to study the principles and performances of policies and policymaking for community radio in four countries of South Asia Sri Lanka Nepal India and Bangladesh It focuses on the processes and practices of deliberation that go into policymaking across space and time and the global local spectrum It stitches together a critical media policy ethnography drawing on over a 100 formal interviews and informal conversations with policy actors from South Asia in a bid to present a deliberative policy analysis of policymaking for community radio in the region Drawing on Grounded Theory the book fleshes out the Deliberative Policy Ecology Approach as an inclusive heuristic to study media policies Green Culture Kevin Wehr,2011-06-28 This volume provides an overview of the many ways in which culture cross cuts everyday ecological practices The entries focus on the ways in which environmentalism is portrayed in the media and how ecological communication happens Through its 150 signed entries this work provides readers with photos cross references and a resource guide Reshaping the Holy Elora Shehabuddin,2008-07-28 Through extensive field research Elora Shehabuddin explores the profound implications of women s political and social mobilization for reshaping Islam Specifically she examines the lives of Muslim women in Bangladesh who have become increasingly mobilized by the activities of predominantly secular NGOs yet who desire to retain reclaim and reshape rather than reject their faith In their employment and in their interactions with the legal system the state NGOs and political and religious groups women are changing state practices views of women in the public sphere and the nature of lived Islam itself In contrast to most work on Islam and Muslims which has focused on the Middle East and has privileged the study of religious and legal texts this book redirects our attention to South Asia home to one of the largest Muslim populations in the world and emphasizes the actual experiences of Muslims Women and gender as well as Bangladesh s formally democratic context are central to this inquiry and analysis Research Anthology on Microfinance Services and Roles in Social Progress Management Association, Information Resources,2022-09-23 Microfinance has emerged as a growing field as more businesses discover the benefits and opportunities it provides To ensure that microfinance is utilized appropriately further study on the best practices and difficulties is required The Research Anthology on Microfinance Services and Roles in Social Progress considers the ways in which microfinance can be utilized to achieve social progress as well as the challenges and opportunities of this area Covering key topics such as income small businesses entrepreneurship and credit this major reference work is ideal for industry professionals government officials computer scientists entrepreneurs business owners managers policymakers researchers scholars practitioners instructors and students Performance Management in Nonprofit Organizations Zahirul Hoque, Lee Parker, 2014-10-10 With increased competition for external funding technological advancement and public expectations for transparency not for profit and non governmental organizations are facing new challenges and pressures While research has explored the roles of accounting accountability and performance management in nonprofit organizations we still lack evidence on the best practices these organizations implement in the areas of accountability and performance management This book collects and presents that evidence for the first time offering insights to help nonprofits face these new challenges head on Performance Management in Nonprofit Organizations focuses on both conventional and contemporary issues facing nonprofits presenting evidence based insights from leading scholars in the field Chapters examine the design implementation and working of accounting accountability governance and performance management measures providing both retrospective and contemporary views as well as critical commentaries on accounting and performance related issues in nonprofit organizations The book s contributors also offer critical commentaries on the changing role of accounting and performance management in this sector This research based collection is an interesting and useful read for academics practitioners students and consultants in nonprofit organizations and is highly accessible to accounting and non accounting audiences alike Education, Participatory Action Research, and Social Change D.

Kapoor, S. Jordan, 2009-09-28 Drawing primarily from critical traditions in social and educational research this book frames contemporary issues and several conceptual theoretical analytical and onto epistemic approaches towards the development and practice of PAR Participatory Action Research in multiple educational spaces and initiatives for socio cultural change

Crises of Governance in Asia and Africa Sandra J. MacLean, Fahimul Quadir, 2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 Investigating the relations between ethnicity and governance in Asia and Africa and going well beyond traditional and orthodox treatments this volume is not only a stimulating text but also an invaluable tool for original and innovative research Social Movements Savyasaachi, Ravi Kumar, 2017-09-19 This volume attempts to show the emerging contours of transformative action in social movements across South Asia It argues that these contours have been shaped by contestations over questions of equity justice and well being on the one hand and the nature and scope of new and classical social movements on the other This is manifest in diverse modes through people s struggles protest and dissent The authors examine a variety of themes that have determined the course of the politics of transformative struggles They critique neoliberalism primitive accumulation money class inequalities as well as aspects of capital labour conflict They highlight the contributions of movements by women dalit and marginalized communities peace movements and environmental and agrarian struggles The volume also appraises the role of internet in grassroots mobilizations and that of civil society networks in the making of participatory democracy It further argues that the predicaments of cultural ethnic national regional and linguistic identities are not divorced from capital labour conflicts The book will serve as essential reading for students and scholars of sociology social movements politics gender and feminist studies labour studies and the informed general reader
