

Supporting Behaviour in the Early Years

An Educator's Role

If a child is displaying behaviour that is disruptive to themselves and/or others, you may wish to use some of the following strategies.

Interact with the child in a calm manner and remain calm.

Ensure that the child helps to tidy up any mess made as a result of their behaviour.

Provide a quiet area where the child has an opportunity to self-regulate.

Sensitively point out to the child what they are doing and offer support to modify their behaviour.

Engage themselves in the activity and avoid talking to the child.

Repeat the strategy for the behaviour to support the child to learn from the experience.

Ensure the child has a chance to self-regulate.

Engage with the child to support them to learn from the experience.

Consider alternative ways to support the child's behaviour.
