Supporting Citizens Initiatives:

Supporting Citizen's Initiatives Richard Holloway, 1998 This book explains the role currently played by non governmental organizations NGOs in Bangladesh and contains lessons for all those concerned with understanding the relationship between state and civil society organizations throughout the developing world

European Citizens' Initiative: A Tool for Engagement and Active Citizenship Yilly Vanessa Pacheco, Dulce Lopes, 2023 This publication gathers contributions to understand better and further develop the European Citizens Initiative This participatory and agenda setting tool introduced into the Treaty of Lisbon has not yet reached its full potential of citizen engagement nor has it driven the significant policy changes initially expected Bearing this in mind the project ECI From A to Z aimed to promote the knowledge and use of the European Citizens Initiative within the higher education arena by engaging investigators and students from four different Universities University of Coimbra Georg August University of G ttingen Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Ia i and the University of Vigo to work together to share their concerns and common views on the European Union role and policies This publication describes the methodology followed and results reached under the project but more than that it is a practical toolkit for all who wish to know more about the European Citizens Initiative and how to put it in motion

Citizens' Initiatives in Europe M. Setälä, T. Schiller, 2012-03-13 An exploration and analysis of the regulation and practices of citizens initiatives in eleven European democracies and the EU The contributors to this volume shed light on how citizens initiatives influence patterns of political agenda setting in representative democracies and how they can contribute to participatory democracy

Citizen Initiatives and Democratic Engagement Sumona DasGupta, 2013-11-12 This book looks at a series of citizen led campaigns to provide information about and energise the institutions of local self governance in India following the 73rd and 74th Amendment Acts Staggering in their outreach and magnitude the campaigns popularly known as PEVACs Pre election Voters Awareness Campaigns reached out to huge swathes of the population particularly in rural India through a unique network that incorporated civil society organisations across the country the media and the State Election Commission itself The book journeys through the heat and dust of these extraordinary campaigns drawing from a repertoire of field reports and interviews to reflect on the significance of this experiment on deepening democracy in India In particular it analyses the methodology of the campaigns and posits that this itself became an extraordinary exercise in democratic practice indicating the shape that deliberation and dialogic practices could actually take on the field As the campaigns moved from district to district through their street plays posters pamphlets jagrut yatras candidate voter dialogues rehearsals of voting procedures setting up of information booths and participatory workshops for newly elected representatives a new dialogical experiment was born and shaped By examining these campaigns this book emphasises the idea that governance is not just the business of central federal governments but also of citizens outside the formal institutions of governance without whose active participation democracy cannot be deepened

Social Cohesion and Resilience through Citizen

Engagement Frank Othengrafen, Sylvia Herrmann, Divna Pencic, Stefan Lazarevski, 2024-12-09 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 License It is free to read download and share on Elgaronline thanks to generous funding support from the German Academic Exchange Service DAAD and the German Ministry for Education and Research BMBF This incisive book examines how citizens are increasingly taking it upon themselves to change their neighbourhoods and communities becoming co producers makers and pioneers who actively participate in the design of urban spaces and spatial processes Analysing the potentials and limitations of civic engagement it discusses how such participation has led to greater cohesion of communities against changing environments Assessment Framework for People-Centred Solutions to Carbon Neutrality Sabrina Bresciani, Francesca Rizzo, Francesco Mureddu, 2024-03-16 This open access book presents a catalogue of over one thousand indicators which can be used by cities public administrators to monitor and evaluate social innovation action plans to support people centred collaborative or co designed solutions to lower carbon emissions Indicators are clustered according to a framework of social innovation solutions for climate neutrality at city level developed by merging top down academic knowledge with bottom up pragmatic case studies There is currently limited guidance on how to embed social innovations in their cities action plans with the aim of reaching climate neutrality and on how to assess the progress and impacts of such people centred projects in cities The book addresses this gap and is thus relevant for scholars in the field of policy making and design as well as cities transition teams policymakers and consultants Based on the work developed within the EU funded project NetZeroCities intervention logics are provided for each of the ten categories of action with related indicators clustered by category and evaluation criteria effectiveness efficiency relevance replicability and scalability Guidelines to implement the framework support city administrators in defining steps they need to follow to apply the indicators to their local case making social innovation a crucial lever for accelerating systemic transformation All change please! - challenges and opportunities of the energy transition Andreas Stefansky, Angelina Göb, 2022-01-27 The annual meeting of the ARLs Junges Forum forum for young professionals on 6-8 October 2016 in Leipzig addressed various aspects of the energy transition when where how and why In presentations and discussion groups they considered not only technical legal and planning aspects related to infrastructure expansion and the management and structuring of the energy transition but also its significance for spatial development The focus of the annual meeting was selected in view of the current importance of the issue The transition is a process intended to ensure a safe environmentally friendly and economically successful future and as such involves a broad spectrum of social planning and scientific challenges and opportunities that require more in depth consideration and analysis The following questions thus provided the starting points for the presentations What are the key action areas for the implementation of the energy transition How will the cities and the countryside of the future look How do the various actors behave and how do they react to different technologies Where and why do conflicts and competition emerge and how can resistance and acceptance be dealt with These key questions were the focus of the annual meeting and informed the following themes How smart is the city of the future Pole position for new form of mobility and We say no public protest in the energy transition Creative Urban Regions: Harnessing Urban Technologies to Support Knowledge City Initiatives Yigitcanlar, Tan, Velibeyoglu, Koray, Baum, Scott, 2008-02-28 Explores the utilization of urban technology to support knowledge city initiatives providing fundamental techniques and processes for the successful integration of information technologies and urban production Presents research on a multitude of cutting edge urban information communication technology issues From Austerity to Abundance? Margaret Stout, 2018-11-12 This volume explores the ways in which civil society and governments employ transformative tactics of direct engagement in coordinating efforts toward the common good Increasingly these collaborative endeavors seek to share power and break down role boundaries in the pursuit of abundant human flourishing as opposed to cost saving austerity Democracy in Poland Anna Gwiazda, 2015-07-24 This book assesses the quality of democracy in Poland from the collapse of communism in 1989 up to the 2011 parliamentary election It presents an in depth empirically grounded study comparing two decades of democratic politics Drawing on democratic theory and comparative politics the book puts forward an evaluation of democracy based on four dimensions representation participation competition and accountability The book is an important contribution to debates on the performance of the new democracies in Central and Eastern Europe where some scholars argue that there is a democratic crisis that after a period of democratic progress most of these countries are experiencing democratic fatigue and that their democratic performance is poor However the Polish case shows that democracy is not in crisis in fact the quality of democracy in Poland has improved The book shows that democratic quality stems from good democratic institutions Moreover the Polish case shows useful lessons that can be learnt by democratic reformers in countries that are undergoing the transition to democracy or are aiming to consolidate their democratic systems It concludes that effective accountability good representation and stable competition are vital Promoting Human Rights in Russia by Supporting NGO's Elena Klitsounova, 2008 Complex Political Decision-Making Peter Bursens, Christ'l De Landtsheer, Luc Braeckmans, Barbara Segaert, 2016-11-18 10 The Ukrainian crisis revisited response to Richard Herrmann 11 Politics it has never been so simple complex versus simplistic rhetoric and the use of hyperbole in political decision making in the Netherlands 12 The challenge of complex decision making concluding chapter and discussion Index Handbook Positive Health in Primary Care Machteld Huber, Hans Peter Jung, Karolien van den Brekel-Dijkstra, 2021-11-10 Increasing numbers of general practitioners are discovering the benefits of working with Positive Health It helps to talk with patients in a different way with a focus on possibilities rather than on the impossibilities related to a particular health problem This is good for the patient And for the general practitioner But how do we apply Positive Health This handbook provides useful tools The book is full of tips tells the story of how the concept was first developed and gives practical examples It explains the underlying scientific basis of Positive Health with a clear emphasis on what is meaningful to patients And above all this book invites you to start working with Positive Health on various levels in your consulting room your practice and in the local community Because cooperation and combined effort are key You will experience how Positive Health seamlessly fits the core values and challenges of all aspects of primary care The handbook is intended for all primary care professionals as well as those who are still in training It describes the Dutch health care system and the experiences related to inspiration implementation and the anchoring of the Positive Health concept into this system The publication is indispensable for anyone who wants to provide meaningful primary care using the Positive Health concept When I heard about Positive Health and the spider web I felt that it gave us a much wanted tool to empower our patients and the community El nborg B r ard ttir general practitioner programme director primary care training Primary Healthcare in Iceland

Non-profit Organizations and Co-production Caitlin McMullin,2022-10-07 Non profit Organizations and Co production The Logics Shaping Professional and Citizen Collaboration develops a novel framework for analyzing the practices of co production between citizens and professionals in the non profit sector Analysing organizations in three contexts Sheffield England Lyon France and Montreal Quebec Canada the book examines the international differences between non profits evidenced by the way that they variously blend or assimilate the logics of the market state and community and how this shapes the motivations for and approaches to co production at the micro level in each context This book presents a major step forward in comparative non profit studies and the co production of public services This book will be of interest to researchers policymakers practitioners and graduate postgraduate students in public administration and management particularly within Public Nonprofit Management and Organization Studies The book speaks directly to key contemporary debates in these fields including the nature of organizational hybridity public service innovation and approaches to service user involvement

Democratizing Science Paola Mattei,2023-09-25 Available open access under CC BY NC ND licence Public trust in the scientific community is under extraordinary pressure Crucial areas of human activity and public policy such as education universities climate and health care are influenced by populist political strategies rather than evidence based solutions Moreover data driven methods are becoming increasingly subject to delegitimization This book examines potential remedies for improving public trust and the legitimacy of science It reviews different policy approaches adopted by governments to incentivize the empowerment of stakeholders through co production arrangements participatory mechanisms public engagement and interaction between citizens and researchers Offering an original analysis of the political roots of the governmental impact and engagement agenda this book sheds much needed light on the wider connections to democracy

A Good Society Is More Than Just a Private Affair Hans van Ewijk, Jef van Eijken, Harry Staatsen, 2012-12 Welfare societies are confronted with a new social quest the problem of increasing numbers of people having difficulties in coping with daily complexity and the dramatic increase in users in youth care mental health and the punitive system The answer to this new social issue is not a Caring State but an Activating State The new social quest asks for a new concept of citizenship on the one hand and a new social professional as generalist specialist or professional friend on the other hand From there different modern approaches in social work are presented such as outreach social work new avenues for reducing recidivism making room for vulnerable people in the community interethnic connecting in sports good social care and a new profile for social workers Open Cities | Open Data Scott Hawken, Hoon Han, Chris Pettit, 2019-09-26 Today the world's largest economies and corporations trade in data and its products to generate value in new disruptive markets Within these markets vast streams of data are often inaccessible or untapped and controlled by powerful monopolies Counter to this exclusive use of data is a promising world wide open data movement promoting freely accessible information to share reuse and redistribute The provision and application of open data has enormous potential to transform exclusive technocratic smart cities into inclusive and responsive open cities This book argues that those who contribute urban data should benefit from its production Like the city itself the information landscape is a public asset produced through collective effort attention and resources People produce data through their engagement with the city creating digital footprints through social media mobility applications and city sensors By opening up data there is potential to generate greater value by supporting unforeseen collaborations spontaneous urban innovations and solutions and improved decision making insights Yet achieving more open cities is made challenging by conflicting desires for urban anonymity sociability privacy and transparency This book engages with these issues through a variety of critical perspectives and presents strategies tools and case studies that enable this transformation Regime Consolidation and Transitional Justice Anja Mihr, 2018-01-18 Regime Consolidation and Transitional Justice explores the effect of transitional justice measures on regime consolidation or the means by which a new political system is established in a post transition context Focusing on the long term impact of transitional justice mechanisms in three countries over several decades the gradual process by which these political systems have been legitimatised is revealed Through case studies of East and West Germany after World War II Spain after the end of the Franco dictatorship in 1975 and Turkey's long journey to achieving democratic reform Regime Consolidation and Transitional Justice shows how transitional justice and regime consolidation are intertwined The interdisciplinary study which will be of interest to scholars of criminal law human rights law political science democracy autocracies and transformation theories demonstrates importantly that the political systems in question are not always more democratic than their predecessors and do not always enhance democracy post regime consolidation Handbook on public participation in the institutions of the European Union Blasi Casagran, Cristina, 2019-02-25 Since 2015 Dr Blasi holds a postdoctoral fellowship at the Department of Public Law and Historical legal Sciences of the Autonomous University of Barcelona This book entitled Handbook on public participation in the institutions of the European Union explains in a structured manner all the rights and actions that EU citizens are entitled to as nationals of one of the EU Member States It also examines the rights of temporary and permanent residents coming from third countries It provides clear and accurate information about the subject Public Participation in the Institutions of the European Union and it is an essential tool for the dissemination of content and activities during the entire course
