Supportive Care And Midwifery:

Supportive Care and Midwifery Rosemary Mander, 2008-04-15 This book considers the broad range of support given to mothers including social psychological and clinical It also looks at the provision of this service and how different models have been set up internationally to fulfill this important function It brings together the latest research findings which examine the nature of care that is provided and consider what constitutes effective and efficient support This aspect of care is considered a crucial part of the increasing and expanding role of the midwife The ability of midwives to provide ongoing support throughout childbearing is one of the features of midwifery care which distinguishes it from other care providers This is a feature which is common to the resurgence of midwifery throughout the world and therefore this text will have international appeal

Evidence Based Midwifery Helen Spiby, Jane Munro, 2009-10-13 Evidence based practice is now widely accepted as a fundamental tenet of midwifery The importance of evidence in defining midwifery policy and practice in the UK health system and others is acknowledged and enduring While the development and evaluation of research in midwifery is well charted the question of how such evidence is incorporated into practice has to date received less attention and discussion in the midwifery profession Answering this need Evidence Based Midwifery focuses on the dissemination and use of evidence for midwifery practice and explores midwives experiences in using the evidence base to inform policy and enhance clinical practice Written by a highly regarded and diverse group from the UK and international midwifery community Evidence Based Midwifery addresses issues of relevance to all midwives whether clinical practitioners or educators students or supervisors researchers or managers Issues that influence evidence based midwifery are discussed and topics covered include problem based learning implementation of evidence based guidelines and the involvement of service users Edited by founder members of the Evidence Based Midwifery Network International collaboration with contributions from the UK Greece Canada and the Netherlands Primary focus on the incorporation of evidence into midwifery practice Real life examples throughout
