1968-1993 John A. Siniscal, 2025-03-05 In 1968 at the height of the Vietnam War a young IBM systems engineer is sent to Saigon to support computers used by the US military in their war effort While there he becomes captivated by the people and culture of Asia and spends the next 25 years in the fledgling software markets of the region His journey takes him to Singapore where he co founds a software company to Australia and eventually to Japan where he faces the obstacles of selling US software in an unforgiving market His persistence and cultural sensitivity eventually lead to success bringing new opportunities and one major setback In this memoir he provides insights into the difficulties of developing and selling software in the 1970s when computers and networks were greatly limited in power and functionality He also takes the reader into some of the after work activities he pursued including running with the Hash SCUBA diving and a trek in the Himalayas Now retired he reflects on his extraordinary journey grateful for the challenges and triumphs that shaped his life and career
